Alberta Consolidation Set For Grain Companies

The community was saddened Dec. 30th to hear of the passing of Peter Marcum, the age of 76 years.

Pete was one of the real old timers of Alberta, coming from the Paskiiland Islands with his parents in August 1901. They spent the first winter with an uncle, Peter Mikko, at Nakamuk. The following spring they settled on a homestead one mile south of Nipawing where they farmed and fished for many years. Later on, Pete took over and continued on until the age of 76.

Mrs. Mary Marcum passed away Jan. 1st at Edmonton at the age of 68 years.

Mrs. Marcum moved from Canada with her husband and two daughters, Alice and Mary. Her family was from the Marcum's brothers, The late originally in Nakamuk in 1901. They lived in Nakamuk until 1911 when they moved to Stratford.

Mrs. Marcum was very much sympathetic to the Doctors Guild for about 40 years. She died at the age of 68, 1964 to live with her daughters, Mary and Alice.

Cattle Owners Advised Of New Disease Testing Program

Incidence of the disease in many areas has now been brought under very close control.

Instead of retreating all the herds in the area periodically to a central testing station, the new system is to have Animal Inspectors go now testing cattle at terminal stock yards and at all other slaughtering establishments. This is called the Market Cattle Testing (MCT) Program.

If 15% of an owner's herd is tested under this program or infection is kept under surveillance, a reaction to the blood test, either at testing in the yard or at slaughter, means "looking for the source of infection is the number of original reactions is now very infrequent."

Some larger ranches are supplied with their own back boxes to make more certain that test results are credited to their herds.

For dairy herds, an extra

Checking the possibility of infection is insufficient if less than 15% at 3% per year, is tested. The cows may be over 3 years old and bulls over 18 months.

The first Confederation Convention was held in 1867. It was the first time that the people of the Dominion were consulted on the subject of their own government. The Convention was held in Charlottetown, P.E.I., and it was there that the British North America Act was passed. This Act created the Dominion of Canada and gave it the right to govern itself. The Convention was a great success and it was the first step towards the creation of a united Canada.

SOAPS & DETERGENTS
 Soap is made by the simple process of combining fat or oil with water, synthetic detergents (synthetic) are made by the process of combining oil with water and soda ash. In addition to the basic ingredients, many other chemicals are added which may (1) increase cleaning ability, (2) increase sudsing ability, (3) make clothes appear whiter and brighter, (4) prevent soil from settling on the fabric, (5) act as a water softener. The amount of soap or sudsing agent used depends on many factors so follow the directions for use on the package. It may be necessary to use more soap than you get the right results. There are many different brands of soap, compare prices of the various brands as the cost of detergent varies greatly.

When wash water has been properly conditioned, add ONE TUBFUL of the detergent normally used. Two questions may arise at this point, "don't detergents contain a perfume?" "Don't these make use of water conditioners unnecessary?" The answers are, "yes, the packaged detergent does contain a certain amount of water softeners necessary for use in hard water." "No, they do not make use of a packaged water conditioner."

A LETTER TO YOU

We are holding a fertilizer meeting for the benefit of farmers in the Strathmore area. This meeting will deal with the proper use of fertilizer under varying conditions of crops and soils of the area.

We will also feature a new film "Fertilizer Country" filmed locally, which will be of added interest to farmers here. It is our contention that farmers are spending considerable money on fertilizer today without proper regard for the returns which might be obtained. It is our desire that the greatest return for each dollar spent be obtained. See us for more information.

Time: Monday Night, February 27th, 1967.
Place: Gibson's Show Room
Time: 8:00 p.m., sharp
Coffee and donuts will be served.

In view of the importance of this subject to farming in this area, we would be highly disappointed if you do not see there.

Yours very truly,

Alan Gibson

If you thought Pontiac was coming out with just another sports car, you don't know Pontiac!

Pontiac announces not one, two, three or four, but five magnificent new Firebirds for every kind of driving.

Now you can choose from five new Firebirds with the same advanced Pontiac styling, but with five entirely different driving personalities. And they all come with rugged available interior, wood grain styled dash, exclusive space-saver collapsible seats, bucket seats and vinyl-oval tires.

Firebird HD. HD stands for High Output. As a sport sedan behind the wheel with the Firebird HD boasts a 285-hp V-8 with a four-barrel carburetor, dual exhaust and sport tires. Standard trim is a column-mounted three-speed. Naturally, all Firebirds options are available.

Firebird Sprint. Now you don't have to go to Europe for a sophisticated road machine. This is the 215-hp version of our super Overhead Cam Six. It's mounted on special suspension that practically welds it to the road (Any road!) With a floor-mounted all-synchro 3-speed.

Leave it to Pontiac to do it right.

See your authorized Pontiac dealer.

We congratulate Mr. and Mrs. William F. Johnson on the birth of their daughter, Emily, who is now five months old.

My apologies to Mrs. Dean Black and her risk for omitting the B event from the list of winners at the latest Social. Dean's risk consisted of Mrs. Joyce Hulse, Mrs. Iva Gregory and Miss Barbara Watson. Congratulations.

Get well wishes go to Mrs. Orla Pedersen who underwent surgery in the Brooks Hospital recently.

Sorry to report that Mrs. Gerda Rasmussen was again hospitalized, following complications. She is now recovering satisfactorily.

Firebird 225. Cold under those dual scoops is a 400 cubic inch V-8 that shugs off 325 hp. It's connected to a floor-mounted three-speed. On special suspension with redline wide oval tires. This could be called the ultimate in grand touring. After this, there ain't any more.

Firebird 225. In short runs for a family in a sports car? There is more. The excitement of a sports car with the practicality of a 225 cubic inch V-8 that delivers 250 hp on regular gas. Standard transmission is an all-synchro three-speed. But you can order an automatic.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

County of Wheatland No. 6

The Editor, Strathmore Standard, Strathmore, Alberta.

Dear Sir:

As you know, the Council of the Town of Strathmore has given a great deal of consideration and thought to the necessity, advisability, planning and building of a complex to bring under one roof the Town's administration offices, fire fighting equipment and machinery.

It was the hope of the Council that there would be a better than average turnout of ratepayers at the Annual Ratepayer's Meeting on Feb. 27, 1967. Unfortunately, this was not so and only a few people were on hand to hear some of the reasons why the Council feel that this building is a necessity for the town.

We are now writing to you, trusting that you will give the letter prominence in your paper. We hope that the ratepayers of the Town of Strathmore will read it, become acquainted with the facts, and agree with the Council's decision.

1. The present Town Office is a small, one-story building, which is not only cramped and inconvenient, but also a fire hazard. It is a disgrace to the town and a disgrace to the ratepayers who are forced to pay for its maintenance.

2. The present Town Office is a small, one-story building, which is not only cramped and inconvenient, but also a fire hazard. It is a disgrace to the town and a disgrace to the ratepayers who are forced to pay for its maintenance.

Editorial

We have had the pleasure of listening to Politicians give a few years now and we are always amazed to find that they cannot change their minds without so much as a quip in speech. They can hardly state statements in twenty-four hours, they must first be given in the form of a question.

THE VICAR OF BRAY

March 23rd 1790 Century

In good King Charles's golden days,
Who lay upon his back and
A noble high churchman was I,
And on 1st of April
To teach my flock I never mind,
Kings were by God appointed,
And lost any those that did resist,
Or touch the Lords' anointed.
Chorus And this is how I maintain.

When Royal James possessed the crown,

And Popery came in fashion,
The pious king I looked down,
And read the Declaration;
The Church of Rome I found would fit
Full well my conscience,
And I had her a Jesuit.
But for the Revolution,
Chorus And this is how, Sir.

When William was our King declared,

To save the nation's grievances,
With this new writ about I cheer'd,
And swore to him allegiance,
Old principles I did reveal,
Not concealing at a distance;
Positive obedience was a job,
A just was non-resistance.
Chorus And this is how, Sir.

When royal Anne became our Queen,

The Church of England gave,
Another form of things was seen,
And I became a Tory;
Occasional conformists here,
I should they moderate;
And thought the Church in danger was,
By such perversion.
Chorus And this is how, Sir.

When George in pudding-line came o'er,

And moderate men looked big, Sir,
My principles I changed more now,
And no longer a Whig, Sir,
From our parliament I proved I
And from our faith-defender,
And almost every day I'd
The Pope and the Pretender
Chorus And this is how, Sir.

TV's illustrious house of Hanover,

And Protestant succession,
To them I do allegiance swear—
While they are held prisoners;
For in my faith and loyalty
I never more will falter,
But George my loved King shall be,
Until the times are over.
Chorus And this is how, Sir.

Seventeen careers are available in health care careers field each rising above the others in prestige and income. Many places still have the doctor under exclusive control. But now you can choose from thousands of years ago even as the X-ray man. I really know how two things in the future in three years or a few hours - made it all.

Schools help people by advancing them on hospital banks to find, experts in research, and organizing education of fields in the school system. Many schools also provide continuing education for people, or help them to get their degrees in less time.

 The County of Scotland held no bloodstock of the Wm. H. Miller Association theme. The significant makes a face right-of-approved program. Mr. Jewell indicated that voluntary sponsors and help would have to play a big part in the program. Mr. Jewell stated there is tremendous untapped resources in students and senior citizens which require only the stimulus of a co-ordinator. A council could save a reduction in voluntary help where the services of a highly paid director is concerned but plans to consider this matter further at a future meeting.

BEWARE OF BRAKES!

DID YOU KNOW?

Hydraulic Brake Fluid has an affinity toward moisture and absorbs moisture from the air, which causes rust to accumulate in the Brake System. This may promote brake or any hydraulic system to rapidly deteriorate and can cause a fatal failure in a Hydraulic System.

FARMING THE SEA OFFERS FOOD HOPE TO CREECHWATER

by Michael Rosen

The idea of farming the sea, instead of just making a fish, is something new to many Canadians, although of course they thought of it a long time ago in parts of the world.

And as the world's population grows to the realization that the sea could be a source of food for the world's people, the idea is being taken seriously.

For all the modern methods, the sea-farming device, the floating canning factory, the fish, the modern man has been slow to develop the true possibilities when it comes to farming the sea.

He is a little better off than a hunter who takes his gun and then waits away, waiting for the fish. The hunter knows that, maybe, given good luck, he might perhaps obtain a few more than he needs to eat. The fisherman, too, still has to depend on chance.

Fish have been farmed on the sea, not only in the Far East, but in Europe as well. Religious houses lived fish on the sea in the past, in central Europe the ancient monks kept fish in the sea.

In Britain, the first fish farm in sea water has been started.

Engineers speak of an inlet of the sea in Scotland, and at a nearby county thousands of fish are being raised in the sea. The fish are being raised in the sea, and the sea is being used to the sea's advantage.

This is an important step forward because under natural conditions in the open sea only about one in every 100,000 fish survive and accounts say that if the sea were properly cultivated, it could produce enough to feed the world.

In Britain, research into sea-farming, disease control, and the breeding and marketing of fish is being done in several places at top speed. All this work is being done by the British Fish Authority.

There is an old saying that "There are plenty more fish in the sea than there are in the pot." In the case of the British, and elsewhere, the saying is true, but it is also true that the sea is a source of food for the world's people.

BEWARE OF BRAKES!

DID YOU KNOW?

Hydraulic Brake Fluid has an affinity toward moisture and absorbs moisture from the air, which causes rust to accumulate in the Brake System. This may promote brake or any hydraulic system to rapidly deteriorate and on cause a total failure in a Hydraulic System.

This hydraulic hazard may be avoided by flushing the system with Alcohol. This process renders Hydraulic Systems safe for at least one year.

CENTENNIAL REEFS

By Mary Mercer

Beards, beards, beards, every shape and size. Brown, black and gray. On many cliffs they grew.

The old looked young. The young looked old. Some looked quite gallant. Others looked quite bold.

All signed and paid a dollar. One hundred days to grow. A beard like the great grand-dad's.

Many long years ago. One caught on fire. When a light hit the light. Many farmers washed out and some grew at night.

Some resting and chattering. Others crisscrossed and snoring. The barbers with their scissors. Had a chance to show their art.

Then Centennial Day arrived. On the thirty-first of May. The judges to pick the winners. Had a hard time they say.

Much fun and conversation. Those beards to all have grown. And all Strathmore will remember. The year of "Beard"-evens.

The purpose behind Whoppy-Layer Day must not be lost in the excitement of the day. The whole concept of the Whoppy-Layer Day is to bring together the many friends in the community, unfortunately in the past, who have been separated by the loss of money and the loss of money. Whoppy-Layer Day is a day when the community can come together and share the joy of the day. Whoppy-Layer Day is a day when the community can come together and share the joy of the day. The seven-day interval was the most active of the entire. On July 31, a large area of clouding was observed. It is interesting to note that the total aircraft hours for the month of July 1967 were only 1,000 hours less than for the month of July 1966. To the east of the target, large hail was reported in the area south of Togo and in the Acadia Valley area.

August 4. A severe hail threat was forecast on this date. The main area of activity occurred in the foothills to the target. A cell southwest of Sundre moved eastward to near Carleton and out of the project area. Two aircraft mounted flights were required. The target area was observed and the activity north of the target. PRIVATE AND AVOID
AT A MEETING OF THE ROCKYFOOT PUBLIC AND THE COUNTY EDUCATION BOARD, THE PUBLIC WERE TOLD TO TRY TO RECRUIT TEACHING STAFF THEMSELVES AS THE COUNTY HAD TRIED WITHOUT SUCCESS.

THE PARENTS OF ROCKYFOOT ADVERTISED IN VARIOUS COUNTRIES AND HAD A GREAT MANY REPLYES AND MANAGED TO SUCCESSFULLY RECRUIT TWO TEACHERS, WHICH ALL GOES TO SHOW THAT IF YOU WANT SOMETHING DONE, YOU HAD BETTER DO IT YOURSELF!

LET THEM TALK!

Reported on the front page in this story of Crowfoot School and the vandalism that destroyed it. The school is now being reconstructed by a firm of carpenters, building up what "The present younger generation of a special class of citizens".

They are to be placed, they are not to be blamed for the vandalism they practice in the name of hippies, kids, lower people or hoodlums.

The vandals must stop, before it has become a way of life with these youngsters. We don't owe them a living, we shouldn't give any form of handout, and giving them a living is to make them more of a burden.

The vandals must stop the highway of the road. They are to be placed, they are not to be blamed for the vandalism they practice in the name of hippies, kids, lower people or hoodlums.

According to the Alberta Wheat Pool Crop Report dated September 9th, excellent progress was made in the work in harvesting Alberta's 1967 crop. Farmers in some districts have already finished and generally another week of dry weather will complete the harvesting of all grain. Escorted late seeded coarse grain and flax. Provincially 89 percent of the wheat has been cut and 63 percent thrashed compared with 58% cut and 23% thrashed a week ago.

no rainfall reported in southern and central regions. In the Prince, however, showers early in the week caused harvesting delays of up to 3 or 4 days. In spite of the generally cool, dull weather, almost one-quarter of the total wheat acreage was thrashed during the week. Heavy dew and a second gush of rain compounded the problem in the Prince but the rain of the 10th day thereafter will virtually complete the grain harvest in the area.

Thrashing has been slow in areas north of Edmonton and eastward to the Saskatchewan border. Fairly good rainfall during the week caused delays but with the return of favourable weather, harvesting will proceed rapidly. In north eastern regions only 20 percent of the wheat has been gathered but good progress has been made westward.

Late sown crops in south western regions are maturing to be completed for another two weeks. In the southwest there has been good progress in final planning of wheat harvest, however, further east extremely dry soil conditions and the threat from grasshoppers has caused farmers to delay sowing.

As the harvest progresses, wheat yields and grain quality continue to improve over earlier estimates and are now expected to average 22.5 bushels per acre, up from 22.3 bushels per acre last year. Yields are good in the Red River area where it is estimated that wheat will average about 40 bushels per acre. In the Hanna district, on the other hand it will average only 10 bushels per acre. Yield estimates for all grain crops except flax and rye show a slight upward trend from a week ago.

The wisest penny we know.

We call it a power penny. In the past 20 years it has become "blue chip" currency - for it's the only kind of penny that has doubled in value. Every home maker can live like a queen (even without a butler or maid) with electrical servants like these.

From Math to Social Studies - you can learn a lot in 5 hours of study. Cost? Just one power penny.

A portable heater and a power penny give you an hour of snug warmth.

One power penny, the children - a parent's budget!

More Power to Your Penny with today's electrical living!

ALUMNI DANCE: The former students, staff friends and invited guests of the fall Alumni Dance at the University of Wisconsin, will meet at the University Club on Friday, Nov. 17, at 9:30 p.m. To attend the dance, send your name to the alumni office to be added to the roster to remember.

SAMPLE KITS: Many farmers already used the soil sample kits and are having good results, as long as the weather holds. The kits are still available and it is still time to take soil samples.

Soil analysis: is not the greater source of any means to all crop production problems. It does help us weigh to narrow down some of the uncertainties of farming. The soil analysis is the compass in our soil as it is continually changing. Temperature varies during the year, soil moisture, and tractors and the soil all contribute to soil changes.

Soil sample: taken from 4 to 6 inches deep, for the soil sample improvement for the next year. The soil is compared to the returns we expect.

Soil sample: is to pick up the Soil sample kit now.

PEST-CONTROL NUTRITION

Another Alberta Junior Citizen

DEAN WOLFE, Beiseker

On June 5, quick-thinking Dean Wolfe, aged 10, saved his brother Gary's life. A year old Gary fell and was run over by the rear wheel of a tractor. His chest and stomach were crushed. When his mother moved him from under the tractor, he appeared unconscious with no sign of breathing. Dean immediately gave Gary mouth-to-mouth resuscitation. Soon Gary was breathing and crying. He was alive! His rescuer, Dean, has been a Cub Scout for three years.

We congratulate Dean Wolfe and thank Alberta's Weekly Newspaper Editors for their active participation in the Alberta Junior Citizens of the Year program sponsored by Alberta's provincial electricity utility companies.

This is one of a series of Junior Citizens Award ceremonies sponsored by the Alberta Electric System Widespread, Editor of the Acme Sentinel and to Dean's

The control group received a standard training program, while the experimental group received a modified training program. The results of the training program were compared between the two groups.

THE HOMEMAKER

Dear Homemakers:
With all the dearest of us, it is best to follow the manufacturers' directions as to the amount of water to use. The word "dehydrate" is a general term used to describe a process of removing moisture from food. This process is used in the manufacture of many food products, including dehydrated fruits, vegetables, and meats. The process of dehydration is used to preserve food by removing moisture, which is a natural enemy of bacteria and other microorganisms. Dehydrated food is a convenient and healthy way to enjoy many of the foods we love. It is also a good way to reduce food waste and save money. So, next time you are in the grocery store, look for the dehydrated section and you will find a wide variety of products to choose from. Thank you for your interest in this important topic.

WANDA KREBS, Didsbury

Wanda Krebs, aged 14, helped her father to manage their home and his younger brother and sister when her mother was hospitalized. Wanda cooked, washed, laid house and looked after the family while attending school. For much of this time, her father was at the hospital, so the load of work fell on Wanda. She looked after three milking machines and a bull and sometimes milked the cows. Wanda also continued to sew clothes for herself as a Home Economics project. She is a third place winner in the 4-4-4-4 Achievement Day.

We congratulate Wanda Krebs and thank Alberta's Weekly Newspaper Editors for their active participation in the Alberta Junior Citizen of the Year program, sponsored by Alberta's Investor-owned electric utility companies.

This is one of a series of Junior Citizen Award announcements. Our special thanks to Mr. M. L. Lashburn, Editor of the Okla. Gazette and to Wanda's mother, Mrs. R. Krebs of Didsbury.

Keep Ash Trays In Every Room

To prevent fire in Christmas time — and your room — keep ash trays in every room, including your room. If there are smokers in your home, keep the ash trays in every room. This is a very important message from the fire department.

"From the GALLERY"

OTTAWA — Parliament Hill presents a cheerful, colorful front for the Christmas season with two 30-foot lighted trees on the lawn and multi-colored decorations on the steps. The trees are the work of the various holiday decorations that will close the Centennial Year in gay style.

What Price A Heart?

The world was thrilled to hear of Dr. Christian Barnard's first heart transplant a couple of years ago. Even then it was a miracle. Now this brilliant young surgeon has made another attempt and so far it looks as though his purpose has been achieved.

The ethics of these wonderful steps in medical science, more merely causing the churches some concern, but no far, as the fact that he has been heard from them.

The issue must be made into a controversy, and as far as there has been some opposition published, i.e. the race and color of the donor and other such matters.

The matter to be considered are more deeply concerned with the ethics of the heart and a kidney? To whom does it belong? Is there a value, early the value of the deceased donor would have the good race paid to the family?

How long will it be before some unscrupulous "ghoul" starts selling unfortunate victims?

If Dr. Callaghan of Falmecum fame is correct in stating that the whole business is premature and that a successful transplant will never be made, then the church should be bringing late to thousands, working give a severe notice of censure for their gluttony.

ON JAN. 11 I could be chucking over the deacon-race group announcement the other day to the effect that I wish I could see the other side of the coin.

Anyone who could the secretary of St. Vincent's announcement as anything but tongue-in-cheek has certainly learned very little of the volume "St. Vincent" over the past couple of years.

Apparently her decision to quit politics completely, however, is not too much to expect. It seems as though she is to be leaving the church for good, and it seems as though she is to be leaving the church for good.

It is a pity. Since she first won the Niagara Falls state in 1966, she has been a dedicated politician. It is a pity that she is leaving the church for good.

She was a cartoonist, I would draw her in tomorrow, and she would be a cartoonist. It is a pity that she is leaving the church for good.

She stole the newsmakers-of-the-year crown from Charlotte Watson in 1964, held it in 1964, lost it to Mrs. Watson and Isabel McLeod and was again in 1967.

Whether there was a deliberate Liberal plot to downgrade a Tory-appointed Central Commissioner is a moot point. More likely, Miss Laidlaw was a victim of a grand conspiracy.

She certainly had a good time turning up in the most unexpected places in the most unexpected ways. It is a pity that she is leaving the church for good.

In conclusion, I would like to bring up the most decisive factor which caused me to tain a home, that being the family. Today, that family is the place on campus where the students of the Family Life and Cloom family live. Students want to grow up too fast and leave home without realizing that those years at home will prove to be the most important of their lives — in essence shaping the pattern of life they will follow when they leave home, and that of which they will wish to follow when they have a family of their own.

Eighty Years

The students at the Crowfoot School at Cluny made this lovely birthday cake for Mr. F. Fairbours of Cluny who celebrated his 60th birthday recently. It is Fred's workshop with 80 candles as a fence and all was edible.

The Rev. Robert Erickson, pastor of the first pastor in 1920 and served until 1955. Pastors since have been: The Rev. Gordon Miller, the Rev. Robert Erickson and the Rev. Ronald Nelson, the present pastor, who began his ministry in 1966.

The church is located in a rural setting, fifteen miles from Drumheller. The building, erected in 1929, is of typical Danish architecture that one might find in rural Denmark.

The present congregation is a member of the Western Canada Synod of the L.C.A., with 187 baptized members.

The two-day celebration will include, among other things, a banquet on Friday evening with L. Governor of Alberta, G.rom McEwen as guest of honor.

young speaker, and on Sunday, the Rev. J. E. Fries (D.D.) will be delivering the Anniversary sermon.

There is a book being published in commemoration of the fifty years.

Berthelun Lutheran Church, Delum Island, has friends to join with them in the glorious event and would like to be helped by April 15, if possible, from those who are desiring to come to the banquet.

Rev. Jona Jonsson is chairman of the Anniversary Committee.

of joining a Political Action Group in the County. I am writing to those who promote such organization; I can only hope that you realize that such ideas are totally unacceptable. Our County government is by election only and we have no need of a so-called group deriving from another number of educators.

I assure that cooler heads will prevail and this proposal will be rejected. I am sure that the Board of Education will do what is right.

Sincerely,
JAMES E. STANFORD

WHEATVIEW SCOUT RALLY

PIKEBUD SCOUTS WITH THE CONTENTS OF A "PORK DINGY" REMOVED FROM A FELLOW SCOUT FOLLOWING AN "EMERGENCY OP".

STANDARD BROWNIES TOLD THE AUDIENCE JUST WHERE ALL PENNIES GO.

The Scouts, Guides, Cubs and Brownies of Wheaton District held a Rally at St. Ignace's Church, where they described the get-together as successful would be an under-estimation.

There were over 500 youngsters in the crowd, and entertainment which was provided by the Scouts, was in the true style of Scouting—mimic, songs and talent.

The climax of the evening was a short film singing starting as usual with the Scout song, and ending and finishing with some appetizing just to calm the Spirits of the youngsters.

Chaplain Althabem gave a short talk on religion and the Scout's motto. His son has just been honoured by the Standard and has been elected Scoutmaster of a St. Ignace's Stole of which he is the first.

The evening finished with a song, "The Scout Song," by the case, and lots of youngsters having made a lot of good friends.

The men who organized the evening, such as Mr. Iversgaard and Mr. Simon, were well deserved for their big "Hats Off" for a successful evening.

Namaka News

By Mrs. E. B. L.

There was a good turnout of folks at the well help program at the Community Hall, last Friday evening. Miss Prashar was in charge and gave an informative talk on the value of the hand-me-downs.

The hand-me-downs were displayed and sold or ordered. The Friendship Club Ladies sold lunch of coffee and doughnuts.

Strathmore Home & School

The monthly meeting of the Home and School Association was held in the Strathmore Community Hall, last Monday night, March 23, with a good turnout of over 100 people.

Mrs. E. B. L. presented the minutes of the meeting and following the singing of "O Canada" the minutes of January's meeting, the executive meeting and the Treasurer's report were read and adopted.

The President then gave a short report of the meeting held in Calgary on Mar. 23rd concerning the new approach to the teaching of science to students which proved most interesting.

Mrs. Prashar then introduced the guest speaker for the evening, Inspector Little of the Narcotics Division of the Calgary City Police. He gave a most informative talk and the films that were shown on the dangers of wrong use of L.S.D., which certainly gave a very sobering effect to the watching audience.

The evening closed with coffee being served in the Home Economics Room.

A Tribute to John Mackenzie

By Ian MacKenzie

Comrade President, Comrade Ladies and Comrades I present to you a list of local history, wrapped up in one presentation of a life membership, in absence, in Comrade John Mackenzie, of Strathmore, Mounties, Strathmore, Strathmore, Strathmore.

John, as he was called locally, took over the Strathmore Standard in 1959, after the death of the late John Mackenzie, who had been the owner of the paper since 1914. John had been in the paper since 1914, and he had been in the paper since 1914, and he had been in the paper since 1914.

During the war, his two brothers were killed, one in the Balkans, in 1918, and the other in November, just four days before the Armistice. John had been in the paper since 1914, and he had been in the paper since 1914, and he had been in the paper since 1914.

John says, "The building of the Memorial Hall was an act of faith. We had very little money to start with but the people of the community were very generous with donations of $50.00 to $100.00, and numerous money raising events. The building was opened by the late ex-Prime Minister, Mr. B. N. Stewart."

John remembers the time, when Jimmy Swenson invited him to the furnace room for a drink. When John went upstairs, he collapsed. He was taken down to the Dr. Giffen's office for the present Dr. Giffen, and nothing appeared to be wrong. It turned out that the exhaust pipe of the gasoline engine which drove the lighting motor had become disconnected and it was the fumes of the motor that had caused his incapacity, not the "intoxication" which he had imagined.

In 1934, being the senior member of the family, his brothers having been killed during the war, as previously mentioned, John had to return to Scotland to go into partnership with his father and now at the age of eighty-one, John is still engaged in publishing as chairman of the directors, of the Strathmore, a Robson weekly.

So tonight it is an especial honor to present on your behalf, a life membership in the Strathmore Standard to John Mackenzie, who has been a member of our staff for many years.

WHEEL ALIGNMENT HELPS

Toronto - British auto engineers have found that an average car wheel only in out of balance will create a continuous hammer blow of about 12 lbs. at 60 m.p.h.

The investigation was conducted in South Africa by British Road Holdings, a subsidiary of the British Empire of Australia, Mac and Jaguar cars, has shown also that the same wheel will pound the car's suspension at the rate of 50,000 times an hour.

"It is obvious that such a pounding would cause a considerable amount of wear on the suspension and steering mechanism, and would also cause a considerable amount of wear on the tires."

Many makers of British wheels have factory-balanced wheels for smooth running, vibration-free operation and minimum wear of vital parts. But it is still in the interest of every car owner to have his wheels checked for balance every 5,000 miles.

COMPLEMENTARY GRAZING

Alberta ranchers are strongly advised to review the temperature, brought about by the extremely early spring, to turn their cattle on to native range as early as possible. C.E. Anderson, head of the Field Crops Branch of the provincial Farm Industries Division, explains that when the weather is green a good start in the spring, it will provide good cattle grazing in mid-summer. If, on the other hand, it is green too early, the grass growth will be retarded and its ability reduced by the cattle through the summer will be severely strained. Native range is not needed for early spring grazing, and usually does not come into its own until about mid-June, and even later in some areas.

It is one of the facts that feed on a large percentage of range land is likely to be short by mid-summer, unless we have exceptional weather.

EDITORIAL

There is to be a petition against the construction of the proposed Maltby Highway by some of the citizens of Strathmore.

The concern of these people is that this enormous road may become, even more of a nuisance than at present to the town of Strathmore. In the event, the Town developing south of Highway No. 1, the "Piggery" would be an added property tax. The town of Strathmore of a Piggery should be considered. Piggery could become a serious problem.

These are the considered convictions of the Anti Piggery People.

The other group, who we will call the Social Quality For Swine Factor, of which the Town Councilors must be members, have these considerations to ponder:

(1) The Piggery would be the most modern and hygienic building conceivable for its purpose in Alberta.

(2) The revenue to the Town would be approximately $100,000 per year.

(3) The Town Council has approved the application and do not object to the construction of the Piggery.

(4) The Provincial Health Unit and Regional Planners have approved the plan.

(5) If the applicant builds his Piggery outside the Town limits, he will not have to comply with stringent health regulations. The town could sell him Piggery South and nothing for their Piggery Bank.

These pertinent facts are laid out for your information and interest on the subject which will be discussed.

Please refer to human beings, farms, on the street, but do write your views and the Standard will air them without bias. All letters are to be signed. A name does please will be printed if necessary.

The City of Calgary is extremely concerned with a proposed Industrial Development just over their boundary lines, to the east of the City.

Rockyview M.D. may well obtain permission for this scheme from the Provincial Planning Board. If this should be approved, all citizens of Calgary and its suburbs will have the country and local parasitism on the edge of Calgary.

The burden of Taxes should fall squarely on the shoulders of all of us, not scheme such as the one contemplated by Rockyview M.D. are definitely in collision with lower income citizens who live in the town.

Should an industry feel that Calgary is not suitable for their purpose, let them move into a town such as Strathmore or Alford who would welcome a little revenue.

Rockyview M.D. intends to build industry to sit out on the outskirts and to refuse to pay taxes on the land around them. A very short-sighted and selfish attitude.

We hope that M.D.'s across Alberta will play ball with their towns and villages and refrain from snatching up the land. We are hard to say - especially in relation to industry with industrial enterprise.

The regular meeting of the Strathmore Town Council was held on Tuesday, July 16, 1968 with a full slate of councilors attending.

The form of William Harwood was the scene of a gathering of the descendants of James and Florence Harwood.

The clan had nearly 225 members in attendance, some of them relatives by marriage, but the majority had blood ties with James and Florence Harwood.

James Harwood came to Cloncha at the age of 14 years and worked on a farm for $12.00 per month, 5 years later he married and he remained with the family of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Stevens while he was building a house and barn on his quarter.

The "Florence Stevens, Mr. Stevens' daughter, became the wife of James Harwood on June 2nd, 1893.

They lived together in the old house on the Stevens' property until James had built a log house, the building material was skidded across Eagle Lake, which was dry at the time, with a team of horses.

James Harwood purchased his land from the Hudson Bay Company with full title.

Strathmore in those days was located on the edge of Eagle Lake. The town moved to its present location in 1900. Relatives of James and Florence Harwood, many of whom still live in the district, recall walking or riding ponies to school and the brand is registered under his name to this day.

The reunion of the Harwood clan was held July 6, 1968 at the original farm, with relations coming from as far away as Brooklyn, New York and Seattle, Washington.

The Rockford Letter Club has been approached as to the possibility of there sponsoring a local band. Before this can be undertaken it must be known how many participants can be expected and to what time would suit all those involved.

Everyone age 8 and over is invited to join. The approximate cost will be $1.25 per week (one lesson per week) and we will require a minimum of 25 members.

May we request your cooperation by having your reply by July 25, 1968. No previous musical knowledge or experience is necessary. Please direct any inquiries to Mr. S. Stin.

slump in wheat prices

Although the new international wheat agreement will not take effect until next year, the slump in wheat prices is a reflection of the overproduction of the past crop year.

The price of wheat has fallen from a high of 30¢ a bushel in late June to a low of 25¢ a bushel today. This is a drop of 20 per cent. The price of wheat is a reflection of the overproduction of the past crop year.

The price of wheat is a reflection of the overproduction of the past crop year. The price of wheat is a reflection of the overproduction of the past crop year.

Secondly, the new trade pact commits the Canadian government to export wheat to the world's largest grain market, the United States. This will result in a large increase in the quantity of wheat exported to the United States.

What is the cause of the slump in wheat prices? The price of wheat is a reflection of the overproduction of the past crop year.

It would be inaccurate to place all blame for the wheat slump on overproduction. It is important to note that the price of wheat is a reflection of the overproduction of the past crop year.

It is important to note that the price of wheat is a reflection of the overproduction of the past crop year. It is important to note that the price of wheat is a reflection of the overproduction of the past crop year.

By coincidence the Canadian railways did not suffer through the slump in wheat prices. They are indeed very fortunate in that the price of wheat is a reflection of the overproduction of the past crop year.

Homemaker

By Catherine
District Councilwoman

Far from being a luxury for the idle rich, the dishwasher assumes an important role in the life of any woman who has her hands full of children or who works outside her home, or who caters to everyone from hired men to Sunday visitors.

For one thing it saves her 300 hours of time per year. For another it is more sanitary than hand dishwashing. For a third it saves the work of washing 4,000 dishes per month. And finally the machine is the most perfect of the point where it does a thorough and effective job.

People who own their own homes and can spare the time to do a complete dishwasher and should carefully read the manufacturer's instructions. The plan to move will gain satisfaction for both sides and make up their minds what they'll be doing.

ALTA HAIL STUDIES REPORT

Hail activity in central Alberta is running well below normal for this time of year. This is the smallest number for the first of July since 1961, which was the least active year since the Hail Studies Project began.

The most active day so far this month was the 9th, when several small swarms of hail were reported. Two small storms moved on a track from Crowsfoot to Rummy during the mid-afternoon, followed by a larger storm about an hour later. By the time it had reached Lethbridge, the tops were up to a height of eight miles and it then deposited a pocket of water-saturated hail between Lethbridge and Swift Current. The hail was enough to crop the ground in places, and there was some damage to crops. One farmer reported hail golfball size. The storm then rapidly dissipated as it crossed the Red Deer River. Another storm laid a swath of hail from Pigeon Lake, just south of Carleton Place. This storm also reached a height of eight miles at one point, but so far the largest hail reported was only grape. Several other storms were tracked on the radar, but do not appear to have any significant amount of hail.

On the 10th a slow moving storm drifted east from the northern Indian Reserve to south of Dryden reaching a maximum height of seven miles. Most of the hail was only pea and grape size with just one farmer reporting walnut size. However, this storm gave a tremendous downpour of rain with many farmers reporting between one and two inches.

Two groups from the United States have now joined the project for a period of three weeks. Also 7-13 jet aircraft from the National Aeronautics Administration in Ottawa is working with the project this week. The aircraft is equipped with instruments for measuring winds and turbulence very accurately. The plan is to have this aircraft fly around the storms at various altitudes from 10,000 to 40,000 feet to obtain the wind flow in the immediate vicinity of the storms. These data will be a very useful additional input to the modelling of the airflow into, through and around hailstorms.

The Alberta Hail Studies project has urgent need of samples of all sizes of hail for laboratory analysis, and requests that during the next month anyone who has any substantial amount of hail save a sample. Clean stones should be picked up off the ground, put in a plastic container and immediately sealed in a plastic bag half a gallon will do—and then stored in the freezer. Clean and careful notes of the date and time the hail-fall, inform Alberta Hail Studies that you have a sample and arrangements will then be made to send a truck out to collect it.

One final point—even during the present partial strike hail report cards should be filled out immediately after the storm and mailed at a later date. The information is still of value, even if delayed and is an essential part of the very valuable climatology of hail now being accumulated for Alberta.

BASSANO A.A.R.N.

The summer meeting of the Bassano Chapter A.A.R.N. was held at the home of Mrs. Eric Knudsen, on June 24th, Thursday, June 20th. A good crowd attended, although several of the regulars from Standard were unable to attend.

Mrs. V. Fisher, an Inhalation Therapist from the Rockyview Hospital, spoke to the group of her work in the treatment of patients with respiratory diseases. This is a comparatively new treatment and gaining rapid recognition with the medical man. She spoke of the wide scope of the job opportunities in the field and stressed the need to make the available courses known to young people in our community.

Mrs. W. Clifford and Mrs. M. Haislop were appointed delegates to represent the chapter at a meeting of the South Central District Executive early in September.

The meeting closed with a delicious lunch served by the Hissar household.

The Annual Whooper-Upper Day held at Strathmore was an unprecedented success. The weather was beautiful for most of the day. A thunderstorm brought a downpour at about 5:00 p.m., but this did not dampen the spirits of the day. The dance was very well attended.

The winner of the Superior Feed and Supply trophy for the Best All Round Cowboy was awarded to Mr. Jack Nickel of Sundre. The quality of the riding and the much of judging was very difficult. Three judges, Mrs. Hans, Mr. Goodrum and Mr. Bruce Langdale of CPN did an efficient job of judging which enabled the Parade to start on time. Well over a hundred floats drove behind the marshalls and the North Hill Lions Pipe Band.

One of the most outstanding features of the parade was the Antique Auto Section. The entrants had polished their exhibits to perfection. The class gave the judges quite a headache but they finally chose a 1917 Ford open-touring car as winner.

There were far too many floats to describe them individually. It was certainly pleasant to see so many old cars. The class was judged by Mr. and Mrs. Jack Nickel of Sundre. These people helped Strathmore's parade and not only were their exhibits appreciated, but the neighbourliness of gesture was also appreciated.

The committee who have worked under George Freeman, deserve a big applause for a job well done. The day was a Wm.

The "write up" of the Whooper-Upper Day would not be complete without a special mention going to the Rockyford Lions Chequerboard Band. They did a wonderful job, as did the western musicians, the Wheatland Oldtime Band, and the Strathmore E-Band. The Strathmore E-Band, as the O.A.P. the barbeque was a success and the credit for the delicious meat goes to Ed Barlow who has got to be Barbeque Chef par-excellence.

The cowboys who have worked under George Freeman, deserve a big applause for a job well done. The day was a Wm.

ART had completed his ride and the pickup rider was Stander. He suffered at least three broken ribs and was rushed to hospital by Stare Ambulance.

LOTS OF BULL!

The maverick Buffalo Bull is being sighted in the neighborhood. Jack Isard and Neil Chelmsford met him charging north on 7th highway. Jack reports that the buffalo was running along the hardtop at an estimated 15 m.p.h. and a guess at his weight was made at approximately 800 pounds. Lots of bull! Latest reports are from Rockyford where he was spotted, but he was seen at night and was allegedly killed. It was the same night as the Rockyford Fair!

There is at the foot of this page a notice which could be termed important to the residents of Westland County. The purpose of the meeting is to discuss the organization and administration of preventive health services within Alberta. There has been a lot of speculation on the merits of locating a hospital at Strathmore and indeed many aspects discussed by interested persons should be presented at the Drumheller meeting.

It occurs to the writer that possibly is the main thing wrong with the health authorities and place the views of them many persons who signed the hospital petition.

Dr. Norman Ross when approached some months back on the subject of a Strathmore hospital was not discouraging in his comments, and he felt that there was a possibility of a re-opening of the neighbouring hospital district, but Dr. Ross was fairly noncommittal.

It is now up to the Town to see what they can achieve by moving this meeting with a strong representation.

The band was certainly jumping in Lambert Park on Whopser-Upper Day evening. Some of the citizens did not wish to be in the spotlight and the town with Pop Mac.

One of our local heroes, decided to bring a lot to his neighbours, and off he trotted with a midget truck, loaded with the band. This noble gesture proved effective, but probably he will regret it, for he has a fine new truck, and has the hard round to pay the fine which is sure to be imposed on him for driving a midget truck in a public place. He is a hero for the town, I doubt it though!

EDITORIAL

Editorial Position of Editor

This law which is an arbitrary enforced by the police is merely based on a fact. The percentage of taxpayers who are not paying their taxes is very high. The authorities are alarmed at the lack of interest in the youth of today for the purpose of law and order.

The enforcement of the liquor laws must be an embarrassment to the police as they enforce them upon a young man who is not a taxpayer and who is not a citizen.

The beer parlor could be a very pleasant spot for a few youngsters to get together and have a talk, and a couple of beers, especially when winter is upon us and "parting" is common to only for sportsmen who care to risk exploitation.

The liquor laws should be reviewed and as politicians have been so many times, perhaps lowering the drinking age to eighteen would be in order.

The voting age can be lowered to the present liquor laws are the same amount of revenue which flows into the provincial coffers.

The points for lowering the drinking age are too numerous to mention, but the fact that liquor possession is often one of the first incidents the police become involved with during a young person's life, must often lead to involvement with the law.

Colwell Cutting the Highway Bank was an official opening of their premises at Colwell, Sept. 14th at 2:00 p.m.

There is to be an official ceremony with Mayor Dick Nicholl.

The new bank is a very modern in its design. It has a flat roof and large plate glass windows. Those of us who witnessed the construction of the vault can attest to its strength. Over 100 cubic yards were placed on the 3/4 inch frame, and then top quality concrete was poured to 18 inch thickness.

The new bank is furnished with dark mahogany veneer wood with decorative top and has a ceiling of laminated maple. Complete air conditioning will help both customers and staff.

The old Royal Bank has been a landmark since 1909. The bank was then the United Bank of Canada, amalgamated with the Royal Bank in 1920's. During its many years of service, the Royal Bank has had only four Bank Managers - J. Van Tighem, C.F. Nicholl, L. Adams and the present manager, Don Nicholl.

The old bank building has been sold to the Strathmore Standard and will be used for their "other" operation. The Standard thought of getting CHRISTIAN N. BARNARD, the Cape Town surgeon who performed the world's first heart transplantation, was honored on May 10 by the world's oldest society for heart specialists, the New York Cardiology Society. Society officials presented a citation to Dr. Barnard during a luncheon meeting at the University Club. The officials included Constantine D.J. Genovese, Jr., M.D., New York, Society President, and Henry I. Russell, M.D., Staten Island, N.Y., President-Elect.

Dr. Genovese said the surgeon was being honored "for significant achievement toward the mitigation of the human condition of cardiac transplantation requiring exceptional dexterity and knowledge, courage and wisdom."

The personal presentation to Dr. Barnard was written in advance of the Society's 50th Anniversary meeting on May 18 in the World War II Veterans Auditorium. At that time, Owen P. de W. Boyan, South African Consul-General in New York, officially accepted the formal citation for Dr. Barnard. Dr. Barnard was also made an Honorary Fellow of the Society at the luncheon meeting.

"This is a highly technical job, especially in the fast-moving field of agriculture, and it requires a high level of education. For people wanting to complete their secondary education, required high school courses include English, mathematics, science, and social studies. For those who wish to pursue a degree in agriculture, a number of universities offer programs in agriculture, including the University of Alberta, the University of Saskatchewan, and the University of Manitoba. When graduates have good jobs in industry which they can transfer to the agricultural course, the agricultural course, Mr. Collins stated. These agricultural courses, unfortunately, are not available in houses or nurseries or in research stations. The research station of forestry, a number of agricultural research stations at the University of Wisconsin, and other research stations at De-

FROM THE GALLERY

More of the criticism that has been heaped on the speech from the Throne that opened the 30th Parliament Sept. 12 is being re-examined.

Naturally the leaders of the opposition parties criticized it. If the speech had been a recitation of the verbatim on the House and the Ten Amendments, the opposition would have been out-blasted to find time for a wish list.

To fault it for not mentioning the issues to payers, is to ignore the fact that the speech was not intended to be a wish list, but that the government is aware of its financial quality. The speech was a statement of the government's position to its predecessors, but it was a solemn warning to the future.

It is the fact of nature based on the speech that the government is aware of its financial quality. The speech was a statement of the government's position to its predecessors, but it was a solemn warning to the future.

As the fact of nature based on the speech that the government is aware of its financial quality. The speech was a statement of the government's position to its predecessors, but it was a solemn warning to the future.

The leader of the opposition is another human being, and he is not the same material environment as any other human being. He is a human being, and he is not the same material environment as any other human being.

Given that the Prime Minister is a fellow human being, and he is not the same material environment as any other human being. He is a human being, and he is not the same material environment as any other human being.

First it offers a bring back some of the legislation that was left hanging in the air. It is a human being, and he is not the same material environment as any other human being.

Included here are the criminal code amendments and changes in the food and drug acts. With this, the government is not the same material environment as any other human being.

There are a number of amendments to existing acts governing the financial operation of the country. They would correct, in part, the government's financial position.

Finally, the speech presents a start on some of the new items that Mr. Trudeau has talked about ever since he first came to the throne. It is a human being, and he is not the same material environment as any other human being.

It is necessary to remember that the speech was not presented as a blueprint for the life of the Parliament. It is a human being, and he is not the same material environment as any other human being.

Farmers who store their grain will want to keep an eye on the risk of rusting.

Dr. R. N. Smith, an insect ecologist with the Canada Department of Agriculture's Research Station in Winnipeg, says that this is a very real risk to grain stored in a field.

Household and Fashion Hints

Driving T-shirts—Common T-shirts and short underwear are being worn by many people. These items are not only uncomfortable but they are also a fire hazard. It is recommended that people wear long-sleeved shirts and long pants when driving.

Household Hints—When cleaning the house, it is important to use the right products for the right surfaces. For example, use a mild detergent for the kitchen sink and a stronger cleaner for the oven.

Fashion Hints—When choosing clothing, it is important to consider the weather and the occasion. For example, wear a heavy coat in the winter and a light dress in the summer.

Rockyford Local Board Favors School

It is the opinion that the days of the small high school are numbered. One reason behind this opinion is the fact that the number of students in the area is declining. The school board is of the opinion that the school should be closed and the students sent to the nearest high school.

A specific example: Last year, 1967-68, we had thirteen students. This year we have only eight grade eleven students. Four of the thirteen students are in either Strathmore or Drumheller. We could not offer the courses for the last year's grade eleven students. It is necessary to place them in a different school because we do not have a high school in this area.

I need not point out the effect on our community if we lose all our high school children to Strathmore, and to Strathmore they will go if we turn down this category "A" school.

Parents going to Drumheller or Calgary to pick up their children on week-ends will be inclined to spend their money there which otherwise would go to local merchants.

We will have more 4-11 Club, Rangers, Hockey etc. for the children of this area who will be in Strathmore. This could help break up the family factor, such a vital factor in the area. The school would be a place where the children can go to get some of our tax dollars back.

A point that should be brought out here is the fact that the school would be a place where the children can go to get some of our tax dollars back. The school would be a place where the children can go to get some of our tax dollars back.

To sum up our position, let me say that we stand firmly with the Education Committee's plan for a Category "A" School and a better education for the students in the County of Hume. We collect the aid of you, the Education Committee and of the Education Committee to lay the facts before the citizens of this area so that they may make an intelligent decision on this matter.

Respectfully Submitted
Gladys Barry Wynne, Chairman
Rockyford Local Board

Gas Liquid or Solid Fertilizer

Nitrogen, the most mobile and usually the most deficient plant nutrient, is available in two forms: as a gas, a liquid, or a solid fertilizer. The availability of fertilizer in these three forms permits diversification in handling, storing and applying that could result in a more efficient use of nitrogen applied to the soil. Some experimental results indicate that there is little or no difference in plant response that can be attributed to whether the nitrogen fertilizer was applied to the soil as a gas, liquid, or solid.

Ammonia is the only gas fertilizer commercially available in western Alberta, and nitrogen gas is the only plant nutrient available in this form. Ammonia is available as a liquid or solid fertilizer, sometimes referred to as anhydrous ammonia, and the solid fertilizers are referred to as granular, powder, or dry fertilizers, but may be made up of many Bowl Carcass Marketing will be the theme of the 35th Annual Conference to be held at the Banff School of Fine Arts, November 25 to 29, 1968, in view of the growing realization of the need for more effective marketing procedures and concepts in the reversing the grading system. The conference will be the property of carcasses. The question of whether carcasses will be processed, or whether carcasses will be placed in the broader, rather than in the narrower, carcass market, will be discussed. Organized by the Dept. of Extension of the University of Alberta (Edmonton).

Duck Hunter

The year's duck hunter is in the chills in front and wet in the back. It's been seven hours since he's had a bite to eat. And twenty since he's been in the water.

It cost him more than a hundred bucks to get into the water. To help him out, he's been told to take his gun with him. Which, presently, any day he will rise and hide himself from the ducks.

Duck Hunter

The year's duck hunter is in the chills in front and wet in the back. It's been seven hours since he's had a bite to eat. And twenty since he's been in the water.

It cost him more than a hundred bucks to get into the water. To help him out, he's been told to take his gun with him. Which, presently, any day he will rise and hide himself from the ducks.

Walt Disney's TONKA

THE GIFT OF LIFF

COUNTY ELECTION

The saga of the Little Big Horn from the Indian viewpoint will be presented at the United Farmers of Alberta Entertainment Night, Tuesday, Nov. 19th at 2 p.m. in the Strathmore Theatre, Strathmore.

Walt Disney's TONKA is a hero, the lone survivor of the historical Custer massacre and the film relates his story.

The movie is one of three scheduled as entertainment for the general public, United Farmer members and their families. Representatives of the U.F.A.'s petroleum division and farm supply division will be on hand with displays and answers to questions about the operation of United Farmers in Alberta. The public will be welcomed by the UFA delegates of the area. Coffee, hot chocolate and doughnuts will be served.

Children will find the movie of particular interest. It has been adapted from David Apple's popular novel. Commanders published in 1931 and filmed 10 miles southeast of Lethbridge, Oregon on the Warm Springs Indian Reservation.

BLOOD FOR DONNY

The response to our story has been really overwhelming.

Individuals have come forward, as well as many clubs and organizations in response to the appeal for blood.

The United Church appeals to Sunday's congregation and have about 30 names of donors.

The Standard has been in contact with the Calgary Red Cross and they inform us that with regret they cannot bring a team out to Strathmore to collect blood. BUT on Nov.

15th there will be full facilities for donors at the Red Cross Blood Donor Clinic located at 707-13th Ave. S.W. between the hours of 10 a.m. and 1 p.m. and again at 3 p.m. and 6 p.m.

Perhaps the drive will draw a lot of well wishers but we still hope that many will want up in cars and make the drive.

Arrangements, if you could find transport, can be made with Mrs. Farber at 362-354. Please don't forget, the nicest Christmas Gift you could possibly give is a mobile Donny Wegener.

LEGION BANQUET

The No. 10 Branch of the Royal Canadian Legion held their Annual Remembrance Supper and Dance on Tuesday, Nov. 12.

The Commander of Zone 4, Mr. Ferguson of Brooks addressed the assembled Veterans and their guests during the banquet. Traditional courses were proposed to the Organ and Piano Collections.

Harry Isaac is now 25 years of age and during these years he has received 2,000 transfusions from Southern Alberta blood donors, and must continue to do so in order to be able to live a normal life. Here is his story.

Harry was born in Lethbridge, Alberta and shortly after his birth his parents discovered that he was a haemophiliac, commonly known as a "bleeder." With Harry it was internal bleeding, mainly in the joints accompanied by excruciating pain. He spent more time in the hospital than out of it. Three years of his life were spent in a wheel chair and his future did not look very bright. It seemed that little could be done and Harry had resigned himself to spending most of his life in a hospital bed.

The family had moved to High River when Harry was five years old and lived there until a little over two years ago when they moved to Calgary. During this time constant blood donations kept him alive.

Then just two years ago Harry was put on cryoprecipitates (a blood derivative) requiring 12 units a week which means 12 donations of blood. This treatment along with physiotherapy worked his magic. His legs gained strength and Harry now walks around much to the hospital for treatment. He earned an Arts course at the University of Calgary this fall and will be majoring in English. He plays the guitar and he and two friends formed a trio, which performed on television recently on the United Fund "orchestra."

On the 11th of August of this year Harry married Joan Hodgson, an X-ray technician and the future looks bright for him.

Harry is a very intelligent young man and puts his heart into anything he undertakes. He is most grateful to the thousands of Red Cross blood donors who have made a normal life possible for him; and with their continued help - which he will always need - and his own pluck, calm and determination, nothing but success can follow his endeavours.

Among the two thousand blood donors who have invested in the life of this young man are the people of Lethbridge and district, and Harry's useful life and promising future is indeed a gratifying return on this investment.

This is just one, moving success story of the 'gift of life' and the people who give it.

HOLMAN Addresses Meeting

The Catholic Women's League of Strathmore held a meeting in the Sacred Heart High School on Tuesday, Nov. 12th. The meeting was held to discuss the proposed County of Wetaskiwin High School.

Superintendent of Schools, Mr. Holman, was the guest speaker and he reiterated the urgent proposal to the attentive audience of about forty people.

Mr. Holman, following the publicity program that the County has decided to conduct, the ladies suggested that a brochure would soon be made available, which would reveal all aspects of the proposed High School. The brochure will list costs, methods of financing and the opportunities which could be made available to students.

The meeting was a most instructive and Mr. Holman replied to all questions in a most able manner.

F.U.A.'S TARGET '35' UNDER WAY

The President of the Farmers' Union of Alberta today predicted "Target '35", the organization's membership drive for 1968-69 will be an unqualified success.

The FUA's goal of 35,000 members will be surpassed said Paul Babey, as he reviewed returns received at head office in Edmonton.

With approximately one third of the canvassers reporting by Saturday morning, about 12,000 memberships have been recorded.

Mr. Babey said he considered the number of new memberships confirmation of growing interest in the organization.

"Membership renewal always comes in first", he stated, "and the relative number of new memberships will increase as the canvass of past members is completed and efforts are concentrated on making contact with new people."

Reports coming in from Ernest Koehli of Sedgewick, District 9 Director (Camrose - Stettler), have put that area in the lead with approximately 1,600 memberships sold. Mr.

Koehli said the new membership picture is "very bright", with some locals recording as many as forty new members.

The FUA president said reports will continue to come in for several days, as the canvass continues.

"Good weather has meant that farmers in many parts of the province have returned to harvesting operations, restricting canvassing, to evenings only. "I'm said, "so it may go on longer than we had expected, but we're extremely pleased with the results to date."

HOW COME?

We have now become what is known in this business as a "Tabloid"; we hope you will like it.

The reasons for our changing are numerous but the main one is to bring the actual pricing of your "Standard" back to Strathmore.

The Tabloid size sheet is considered by experts an easy size to handle and much easier for the make-up girls to assemble and for you to read. The economics of business also are a cause for concern, the idea of going Tabloid has always been present, but with the post harvest and the disastrous hail storm and consequently the stacking off of business it is now in operation.

This article is written for you, our readers and friends, to understand the predicament we find ourselves in.

The Strathmore Standard has many years of tradition behind it, and has also had many major changes, the sheet size was always Tabloid up until 9 years ago but we don't feel we are making a backward slip, but merely consolidating our position in an inflated economy.

NOT A NICKEL MORE TAX

The Open House evening at the Samuel Crowther School, this year turned out to be an overwhelming success, with more than 200 people in attendance. Mr. Holman the guest speaker of the evening, explained the proposed changes in the school, outlining in detail the financial, necessity and desirability of a High School.

Mr. Holman made many statements to the audience but one that sticks in the mind of this reporter was quote "if the proposed School Building Program, say within the proposed $15.00 per square foot allocated for construction it will not cost the taxpayers of this County a nickel in extra taxes." Mr. Holman explained how furnishings and architects fees would be found and the amount of money promised by the Indian Affairs Dept. would be disbursed.

Composite High School

In the centre pages of this week's Strathmore Standard you will find a complete breakdown of the proposals, and necessity, for the Composite High School.

The County School Committee are most anxious that every person in the County of Westland should have the opportunity to read and understand the motivation behind the proposals.

Therefore we at the "Standard" are issuing a "Full Coverage" publication and owing to the postal regulations most people will receive two copies of this week's Standard.

The information has been printed in the centre pages to enable you, the public, to extract them and carry the pertinent information to the scheduled meetings.

The proposals for the Composite High School will probably require a plebiscite for them to be completed and you are asked to study the centre pages, where every detail of the proposals may be found.

Those persons requiring extra copies of this issue can purchase them from either the Strathmore Pharmacy or our office located in the old Royal Bank.

LETTER TO EDITOR

Dear Mr. Farran:

As you were the organizer, or one of the organizers of the "Strathmore Night" Blood Donor Clinic held in Calgary at Red Cross House on Monday November 25th, on behalf of Donny Wegener of Strathmore, we felt we would like to write an open letter of sincere appreciation to yourself, to all the blood donors who came from the Strathmore area and to those area residents now living in Calgary who responded in such a spontaneous and heartwarming way.

Approximately eighty-five friends of the Wegener family unhesitatingly and unselfishly donated blood at the clinic, a wonderful example of Christian humanity working at its best.

This generous providing of "The Gift of Life" for one less fortunate than themselves does much to restore one's faith in these troubled and violent times.

The sincere thanks and admiration of all of us at the Red Cross Blood Transfusion Service goes warmly to all you fine people.

Yours truly,
W.K. McGregor,
Business Administrator,
Calgary Depot, B.T.S.

School Committee Proposals For Clean and Composite High School

FORWARD

There is among professional educators, in this country and elsewhere, a rather strong conviction that recent and impending changes in secondary education make it vitally important for the small high school to provide adequate educational services. (A campaign for further centralization of high schools is following upon that belief.)

There is also, however, among the citizens of hundreds of small communities throughout the country, a conviction that the local high school, small as it may be, is an essential institution. A counter-campaign against further centralization grows out of that conviction.

There is surrounding the small high school issue a good deal of emotion; we have our utmost to rise above this emotion, and assess the situation objectively.

The County School Committee subscribes to the following as its guiding principles in secondary education:

1. Every student should have the opportunity to pursue a high school education suited to his abilities and recognized interests and to do this without experiencing undue hardship. For all but a few remote and isolated residents or for such students as may require specialized vocational programs this opportunity should be available without having to live away from home.
2. The high school program offered should be, as far as possible, for the varying abilities and interests of the students. This suggests that in addition to the academic program leading to the university, the student should have the opportunity to study in Business, Home Vocational Subjects, Home Economics, Fine Arts and other general electives and be able to pursue these in some depth, that is beyond the Grade 9 level.

The School Committee by majority decision believes that the establishment of one County Composite High School will be a big step towards achieving our objectives.

You will find in this brochure an outline of our proposed reorganization to provide a basis for further thought, study and debate.

NECESSITY

An external evaluation team comprised of Dr. R. F. Blumel and Mr. O. C. Blumel, of the University of Alberta, visited County Schools on March 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17 and 1966. Following are excerpts from their report.

"Within our province a continuing shift of population from the rural to the urban areas has created very basic problems for both areas. As much as pupils from the rural areas will migrate to the cities either for continued education or to seek employment, they now have a particular need for a sound education prior to their migration.

The living habits of people have changed as many of the amenities of life have been given to them. The technology of industry and farming have changed greatly; greater skills are required of workers. These changes have all had their impact upon our education system—our boys and girls must remain in school longer and they must have suitable programs. The question as to how adults should react to all these changes is most significant. Thus the objectives of modern education as related to change and the continuing aspirations of small communities are often at variance.

The philosophy of senior high school education has altered in order to keep pace with such changes. Since urban employers demand of their employees an education well above the level of junior high school, high schools now attempt to cater to the needs of all young people in order to them for post-secondary training. For those entering the professions there is the academic or matriculation stream; for those planning a technical career there has been established vocational high schools whose programs are articulated with the technical institutes; for those planning a career in business, a commercial curriculum is a must, and for those wishing a general high school diploma, a number of elective courses must be available.

The so-called knowledge explosion has required an up-grading of the academic curriculum which requires more equipment than the text-books previously provided, and even text-books have been replaced by more up-to-date materials. Wide reading and research are required of academic students, and so large, well stocked school libraries have been established.

In order to offer such broad programs, schools require, not only expensive equipment, but also large, highly specialized teaching staffs supported by sufficiently large enrolments. The small high school can no longer operate efficiently and economically.

The County of Wetland operates six small high schools, none of which can be considered self-sufficient at a satisfactory program. These high schools have enrolments ranging from fewer than 20 to just under 150 students, with a total high school population in the county of fewer than 940 students. Thus each high school enrolment is too small to offer the complete program outlined above. It would be possible, however, for one school to offer a large portion of the program in three or four years. The exception being the technical-vocational program. However, when this student body is divided among six schools, their operation is neither educationally nor economically sound.

In the 1967-1968 year, 73 classes had enrolments below 150 students each, and of these, 54 classes had from 1 to 50 students each. To occupy teachers time instructing classes that small is very expensive and actually limits the effectiveness of the instruction, since committee work becomes virtually impossible, and since such classes are invariably inadequately equipped. Moreover, limited staff necessitates assigning teachers to subject areas outside of their fields of preparation."

This program is based on a projected enrolment of 435 high school students. The enrolment is made up of 360 County students and 75 Jordan students. The above figures are taken from a statement of enrolment prepared for the Department of Education when application was made for a County High School.

FARM CREDIT CHANGES

Parliament recently passed important amendments to the Farm Credit Act. The $40,000 ceiling on standard loans for individual farmers is unchanged - but new loans may be made up to $60,000 for two farmers working in a partnership and up to $30,000 for three or more owner-operators working together. Similarly, under the supervised loans, the ceiling for an individual farmer is $15, maximum for two or more owner-operators may be for a loan up to $30,000. A new provision generally allows up to 90% of the appraised value of land, livestock and equipment to young farmers.

HOME BUILDING WORKSHOP The latest development indicates that the proposed Home Building Workshop will be held on Sat. 9:30 a.m. to 12:00 p.m. at the Strathmore office. We can still handle a free home and ask that you register soon by leaving your name at the local Extension Office.

GRAIN DRYING & DRYERS Many questions are being asked about the proper use of grain dryers. The maximum allowable temperature for drying winter wheat is 130 degrees F. It is hard to find. We received a good circular answering many of these questions. This was from the Grain Growers' Federation. They interviewed D. Clark of Landis, Sask., who is now in the West. He has been in grain dryers of anyone in Western Canada. You may pick up your copy from the Extension Office in Strathmore.

BACKFILL PROBE KITS FOR SWINE: The Record of Performance testing for swine has been in progress since 1964. Backfill Probe Kits consisting of a 1/2 inch blade with scalpel blade and ruler are available for $2.50. Orders may be placed at the local Extension Office (D.A.) and forwarded to Edmonton. The backfill probe will also come in handy for all hog producers, since the new Hog Grading system relies on the backfill probe too.

FARM RECORDS: The new year is not far away. And this of course means the end of another year, and income Tax returns. Many people would rather do anything than keep records. They put off the ordeal as long as they can, and in the end they will get some accountant fill out the income Tax forms for them. All this is undesirable.

There is a saying — "Man fears that which he knows not." This is very true and applies in many cases to record keeping. But today's records are Accounting Courses and Extension principles are books. They are a deep mystery and only an underdog — a person can get a real thrill out of getting things to balance and what a satisfaction to see the financial picture unfold of your own business operation.

It's no use to say you don't understand and need some help — children and adults are doing it all the time. Just ask at the popularity of our Vocational Training or refresher courses at the Universities and others.

Keeping records is more than a good book and know-how. The keeper or keepers have to discipline themselves. Purchases have to be made so that they can be easily recorded in the right place.

We have a supply of the Prairie Provinces Farm Account Books on hand now. We also have a Book, the number and your copy, remember — if you need help it is available to you at anytime.

F.U.A.

Seeks Changes

The President of the Farmers' Union of Alberta seeks poor harvest conditions have underlain the need for changes in the present crop insurance program, and amendments to the Prairie Farm Advance Payments Act. Mr. Babey, pointed out that farmers who were not able to harvest their crops are left completely without income. The Crop Insurance Corporation will not make settlement until the crop is harvested. The farmer cannot get a cash advance under the terms of the present act because it applies only to harvested grain.

The F.U.A. President suggested that the ability of a partial insurance settlement be explored, and that interest rates on premiums, commencing December 1st, be lowered.

He also said the Prairie Farm Advance Payments Act should be amended to give the aid of evidence of a crop insurance claim as security for a cash advance.

Edith Keir

Mr. Babey said the F.U.A. Crop Insurance Committee will bring recommendations along these lines before the organization's annual convention to be held in Edmonton in December.

Injuries By Fire

A fire injury in some cases occurs at the same time other persons are killed by fire. The same cause in general is attributed to fire injuries that are recorded as causes of fire deaths. We have lists of 83 injuries from fire reported in 1935 made up of 56 men, 12 women and 15 children.

The greatest single cause of injuries and deaths is associated with fire or careless handling of flammable liquids. A close examination of fire injuries resulting from ignition of heating natural gas shows that more than half of our injuries from fire are from these two causes — accidents with flammable liquids or accidents with natural gas. Another cause of fire injuries are careless smoking, children playing with fire, accidents with torches, grass fires and explosions of miscellaneous causes. In the case of fire injuries and deaths, it is well to review the safe practices required:

1. Persons who are working with flammable liquids must know exactly the nature of the flammable liquid they are using, that is, knowing its flash point is very critical in order to determine whether it could be safely handled in open containers where there are sources of ignition.

2. We must repeat and repeat again that gasoline is an explosive flammable liquid and can never be safely used as a cleaning solvent.

3. Whenever gasoline is stored temporarily, it can not be in open containers in the escape of gasoline vapours which are very explosive.

4. Another safe practice is to store gasoline in unmarked containers. There should always be a label indicating there is gasoline and there is danger.

Concerning the precautions necessary with natural gas, there are very simple but very important. Of first importance is that there be good maintenance of all gas burning appliances and piping. If a gas leak is discovered, it must be reported to the gas company immediately.

It is imperative that persons evacuate the building when there is leaking gas to be sure that they avoid the danger of the flash fire or the detonation exploding gases. Care is particularly needed in the home to avoid lighting over or heaters after escaping gas is detected. There may be enough accumulation of gas to cause that flash fire or explosion, fire producing a tremendous blast. It is always to be handled with great care in order to avoid fire casualties.

JAPAN'S Grain Deal

Last year, Japan for the first time became the largest single export market for Canadian grain, by volume, according to the Board of Directors' Report to the 1935 Annual Meeting of Alberta Wheat Producers Association held in Calgary, in the 1967-68 crop year, Japan purchased a total of 74, 700,000 bushels of wheat, 122,000 bushels of barley, 122,000 bushels of flax, and 122,000 bushels of other grains.

Canadian wheat exports for the season totaled 335,100,000 bushels, a 20 per cent increase over the previous year. Total exports of the principal grains and wheat flour, compared to 61.5 million a year earlier, Britain, with purchases of 69,800,000 bushels, Canada's second largest grain customer; Malindi China, with purchases of 52,000,000 bushels, ranked third; and India, with purchases of 47,000,000 bushels, ranked fourth largest single export market, receiving 47,000,000 bushels of wheat, and India received 47,000,000 bushels of wheat, and India received 47,000,000 bushels of wheat.

REDCOATS ADVANCE ON METIS

From the Imperial Oil Collection

In 1884, Louis Riel was persuaded to return from exile in the U.S. where he was teaching in Montana - to champion the cause of the pioneer white settlers, Metis and Indians once again, this time in Saskatchewan. At first he tried to uphold their interests by constitutional means against federal government encroachment, but to no avail. The building of the C.P.R. across the prairie inevitably would break the transportation monopoly of the Metis Red River Cart, and it brought land speculators and new settlers who threatened to wipe out the peaceful community farm system they had established along the river banks. The federal government failed to grant the urgency of these worries, which were intensified by the fact that the buffalo, on which the Metis had depended for a nomadic living, had disappeared from the plains; the Metis farms had become their only way of surviving.

Riel set up a rebel provisional government at Batoche, on the South Saskatchewan. If Riel had given his brilliant general, Gabriel Dumont, who was a hero of the great buffalo hunts, a free hand to lead guerrilla harassment of the militia on their long trek from the end of the railway toward Batoche, history might have taken a different course. But Dumont's forces were held in check.

A detachment of North West Mounted Police sent to stop the rebellion in the end was defeated by Dumont's Metis at Duck Lake on March 26. A trial of strength became inevitable and was complicated by Indian uprisings against the N.W.M.P. Eventually Riel, Dumont and Cree Indians under Big Bear and Poundmaker fought a series of brave and brilliant battles against vastly superior federal arms. The outnumbered rebels finally met defeat at Batoche on May 12, and Edmonton on July 12.

Riel was captured, found guilty of high treason, and hanged in the police barracks at Regina in November, 1885. Eight Indian leaders were also hanged; Poundmaker and Big Bear were jailed for three years and died broken in spirit. Dumont fled to Montana, started in wild west shows, and was eventually allowed to return to Batoche, where he married a Scottish half-breed, and lived out his life peacefully.

by Miss Catherine Young District Home Economist

It's almost too late for last minute Christmas gifts and ideas, as I am sure you will be busy with final preparations for the holiday. Here is one recipe though which I know you'd like to try.

A Recipe for a Merry Christmas

Take the crisp, cold of a December night, add two generous parts of snow, stir in air on clear it tastes.

Into a generous heart, mix the wonder of a little girl, the sparkle of a young boy's glance, the love of parents and set gently before the chimney side. Add the lightest touch of a reindeer's hooves, a sprig of holly, a scent of fir. Set the mixture to rise in the warmth of a dream of goodwill to men. It will be almost ready to serve when it bubbles with warm and good feelings. Bedeck with the light of a star set in the East, garnish with shining balls of gold silver and red. Serve, to the tune of an ancient carol, in the midst of the family table.

This recipe is sufficient for all the men and women you will ever meet.

I hope you have a Happy Holiday and best wishes for a Good New Year.

We welcome the holiday season with the sincere hope that it proves to be the happiest one ever for you and your family.

CHRISTMAS MESSAGE

As we approach the holiday, may I extend warmest Christmas wishes to all. I hope good health will prevail, and good appetites, and good will. There will be homecomings and family reunions and music and laughter.

I would like to think that the Christmas could find us one year nearer that goal of Peace On Earth. The day-to-day news about unrest and progress and riots and violence does very little to reassure those who long for a more peaceful world community. People of good will must feel discouraged at times, wondering if Peace On Earth will ever be achieved. Perhaps they should ask themselves exactly what they mean by Peace On Earth and having defined it to their satisfaction.

Common people think of Peace On Earth as being synonymous with the goal of war aimed at fellow humans, but I wonder if it should not mean more than that. I like to think of Peace On Earth as the attainment of a complete harmony between humans and all the segments of Nature's community. Peace On Earth should mean Peace On Earth - not just peace between man and his human neighbours while mankind is at war with nature. If we want understanding and peace between the nations, it may be that we should begin by understanding the philosophy of peace with all the creatures and creations in Nature's wonderful world. It may sound a little like that great citizen of the world, the late Dr. Albert Schweitzer. If so, that is the way I would want it to sound.

Anyway, a Merry Christmas to all.

Put a Chinook in your car!

An in-car heater is a little convenience that makes winter driving easier, safer.

The temperature may be several degrees "below". But you're ready to go! With a small, convenient electric car heater, your car is comfortable and warm - like the house you just left. No need to turn on the engine ahead of time, before you're ready to leave! No windshield scraping to provide safe-driving vision. Having the convenience of an electric in-car heater is like putting a chinook in your car!

Rosebud News

by Mrs. F. Biblow

A meeting of the Parents' Group (Committee of the First Rosebud Scout and Cub Committee) was held in the Severn Creek school on the evening of Dec. 4th.

Seen at the hockey game between the Drumheller Miners and the Medicine Hat team in the Drumheller Memorial arena on the evening of Dec. 7th were many Rosebuds including Stolz, Greenewald, Comstock, Nicklasen and Biskup, all of whom wondered if this real hockey or wrestling it was quite an exciting match!

Many friends and neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. L. Co. Nielsen gathered in the Rosebud Memorial Hall on Sat. evening Dec. 4th to honor the newlyweds. Lead table guests were Mr. and Mrs. Leo Nielsen. Mrs. E. A. Biskup (husband's mother), Mr. Niels Nielsen, Mr. and Mrs. A. Lagard, Karen and Cameron, Mrs. Betty Nielsen, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Clark and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Milgate. Master of Ceremonies, Mr. Hans Anderson, kept the audience well entertained.

Other ladies are off to the west coast in this winter weather. Grandma Clark of Drumheller accompanied by Mrs. Norma Skibsted and Mrs. Virginia Greenewald travelled aboard a jet, from Calgary, to Vancouver, B.C., where they took in the wedding of Miss Sheila Fenton on Dec. 7th. Get well wishes go out to Mrs. Rosemary Comstock who has been quite ill at home. A special get well wish from all the Brownies of the First Rosebud Pack. They missed Brown Owl at their last meeting.

The Baptist Church Young Peoples Group held a skating party on Friday evening, Dec. 6th. Skating was on a smooth near Terry Butte's and lunch was enjoyed in the Herrin Wilson home. The young folks report a good, though rough, skate and which was most welcome after the frosty winter air.

I wish to take this opportunity to wish the editor, staff and readers of The Strathmore Standard a Happy Christmas Season and Christmas Day and best wishes for a Peaceful New Year in 1967.

The First Rosebud Brownie Pack held an after school Christmas Party and gift exchange on Friday, Dec. 15th.

Not all Rosebuds are in the midst of preparations for Christmas at home. Jim Peterson and a chum of his from Drumheller left the Santa Claus conveyer behind last night. They boarded a Jet at Calgary International Airport and flew to the Hawaiian Islands for a long holiday to "beat into the New Year. In fact, they intend to return when they feel like it. Lucky guys!

The Rosebud United Church held their annual "White Gift" service in the church on Sunday evening, Dec. 15th. A program of Christmas selections was presented.

Bill never noticed. On Dec. 9th the day the Draw was to be made George declared Bill the winner and paid presented him with a old radio. George is worried a little as no doubt Bill is wondering how to get back at him!

hazard. The Dominion Dept. of Forestry suggests the following safety steps in caring for the Christmas Tree:

- (1) Buy only fresh trees. Avoid dry trees, they cannot be repaired.
- (2) Store in shade out of doors till needed.
- (3) Re-cut diagonally "1" above original cut.
- (4) Use only tree stands that allow the tree to be completely immersed in water.
- (5) Maintain water level above cut while tree is in the home.
- (6) Use only fresh water - additions of sugar or chemical additives to the water will actually reduce the tree moisture content.
- (7) Fire retardant chemicals are no substitute for proper care.
- (8) Use only safety approval lights and decorations.

Gifts for Needy

When illness or unemployment strikes, a family often can't afford even small Christmas gifts. But The Salvation Army can see to it that there are warm clothes and toys for the children and a holiday dinner. Along with material assistance, The Salvation Army offers the reassurance of knowing that somebody cares.

Christmas Greetings

May you be of good cheer as Christmas dawn... your heart full of ever-blooming with all of the high happiness and beautiful blessings of the Day. May the joys of this Christmas be remembered very deeply through many a long year to come.

Premier of Alberta Christmas Message

I sincerely appreciate this opportunity, my first as Premier of Alberta, to stand on behalf of the Government of Alberta and hearty Christmas greetings to each and every citizen of this Province.

Once again the day has come when we pause amid the rush and turmoil of life, to commemorate the most important event of all time. That event was the miraculous birth of the Babe of Bethlehem. None can deny that this holy event has influenced the course of humanity more than any other in the long history of mankind.

The Christ Child came for the express purpose of recovering men from the cause and the consequences of man's inhumanity to man. There can be no true observance of Christmas unless this fact is recognized, no words of men can improve on the message voiced by the heavenly child when he heralded the birth of the Prince of Peace on the world's first Christmas Eve. They sang, "Peace on earth and good will towards men," and their song has echoed and re-echoed in the hearts of men throughout the world ever since. I even though the fulfillment of that ancient promise of Christmas may seem beyond our present reach, its ultimate realization is assured to all who recognize that peace on earth and good will among men are bound inseparably with an unfettered allegiance to Him and to the practical daily application of the Christian way of life.

The past year has been marked by far-reaching world developments which have given even greater magnitude and added importance to the age-old problem of human relationships as between men and nations.

As we celebrate this Christmas with all the joy and wholesome happiness we can command, we should not forget that we live our "tomorrow" and celebrate our future Christmas in a world that will be what we ourselves make it.

In our keeping of Christmas, let us not forget those less fortunate than ourselves, the stranger in our midst, the homeless and friendless, the sick and afflicted, and all who are in need of understanding and a helping hand.

May all of you, in your homes, enjoy a blessed and joyful Christmas with your loved ones and your friends, and may your personal, and on behalf of your Government, wish for each of you the best and the happiest New Year season ever known.

My Christmas is a magic time of happiness for you—think everything you need to make for the realization of all your wishes.

May each day that follows provide this magic spell and bring you good health and prosperity.

A Child Dreams of Christmas

A CHILD DREAMS OF CHRISTMAS ...strapped candy canes ... mysterious packages hidden away ... reindeer landing on a snowy roof ... a red felt stocking hung on the fireplace ... a tree twinkling with magic colours ... a midnight cry twinkling with stars ...

... very child dreams at Christmas time, and as we grow old we cherish the dreams of our childhood as much as the reality of this sacred season. But there are some children who dare not dream of Christmas. They have been hurt and disappointed so much in their short lives, that they are afraid to hope. These are the children of poverty-stricken families, of broken homes, and institutions. Ill-frightened, unhappy children. Must they go without Christmas this year, while others have so much? Not if The Salvation Army can help it. In countless ways the Army of the helping hand brings the joys of Christmas to children too often forgotten. Small things ... a stocking filled with candy canes ... a new doll ... a warm outfit ... can make the day glow with happiness for a child. Salvationists not only provide these things, but also work to reunite families, obtain jobs for fathers, and help parents to cope with emotional problems. A gift to The Salvation Army's Annual Christmas Program can give a child the courage to dream again.

Greetings

On this joyous Christmas we wish to extend our heartfelt thanks to all of our patrons and business associates for their friendship—their cooperation—in their loyalty during the past year. A Merry Christmas and Happy New Year to everyone.

FOR A SAFE NATURAL CHRISTMAS TREE

OTTAWA — The evergreen Christmas tree is a firmly established Canadian tradition. The decorations, lights and aroma of an evergreen is the central theme for Christmas decorations in many Canadian homes.

Although a natural Christmas tree can constitute a serious fire hazard in the home if not installed properly, with just a little care it can be kept perfectly safe and green.

Tests conducted at the Department of Fisheries and Forestry's Petawawa Forest Experiment Station show that the difference between a safe and unsafe Christmas tree lies in the tree's moisture content, something which can be controlled quite easily.

The Department recommends that three simple steps be followed for the safe enjoyment of a natural evergreen Christmas tree:

First, do not purchase a tree that has dried out. Test the twigs and needles for flexibility. Trees that are too dry have brittle branches and shed their needles readily.

Second, if you are not taking the tree into your home immediately, store it out of doors, preferably in a shady location.

Third, when the tree is to be put up in your home, re-cut the base diagonally (see illustration) to remove the original cut. Then stand the tree in a container which is large enough that the diagonal cut on the base can be completely immersed in water. Make sure that the water remains at least as long as the tree is in your home. For some trees this may mean adding a pint or more of water per day.

Tests have shown that a tree cared for in this manner will have a much longer life span—last as long as 10 days—than a tree which is cut as high—and in many cases higher—than when it was originally cut down. Thus, your tree will stay fresh, green and safe throughout the entire Christmas holiday season.

There are two important limitations on this method of Christmas tree care. A tree which is too dry when purchased will continue to dry out, even though it is placed in water. If a Christmas tree shows signs of drying out after it has been erected—in the needles and twigs becoming more brittle—it should be replaced immediately. Also, highly combustible materials around the base of the tree, such as gifts wrapped in tissue paper, present a serious fire hazard from which your tree, as well as most other household furnishings, will not be immune.

To complete your Christmas tree safety program, don't use decorations on your tree which will burn easily. Also, use only electric lighting equipment which bears the Canadian Standards Association label of approval, and make sure all wires are properly secured.

sockets are in proper working order.

The Department's tests also show that spraying a Christmas tree with fire-retardant chemicals is no substitute for the recommended method of re-cutting the base and standing the tree in water. It has also been found that placing sugar or chemical additives in the water, rather than prolonging the life of the tree, will actually reduce the tree's moisture content, shortening the length of time which it may be used in the home.

As happy families everywhere gather together to celebrate this most festive of seasons, we hope pleasure in celebrating it you get hope that all the joys of Christmas fill your home.

By Henry F. Heald

OTTAWA - The basic question underlying the argument over the changes of the rules of procedure for Parliament is the degree to which an electoral victory gives a party a mandate to impose its will on the country. The present Liberal government takes the attitude that it won the election so for the next four years it has free rein to do what it pleases and if the people don't like it they can vote them out of office at the next election. However acceptable such a system may be to a party-democrat that has emerged recently in Africa and Latin America, it just doesn't mesh with the British tradition of parliamentary democracy; nor the French tradition either.

Something less than half the votes cast on June 25 were for Liberals so it can hardly be said they were given a mandate even though those votes gave them a substantial majority of seats. A little better than half the voters agreed that one of the three opposition parties had better men and better policies for the governing of the country. The parliament is designed to ensure that those men and those policies have at least a tempering effect on the policies of the government.

It is with justification then that the opposition parties are up in arms against a proposed rule change that would allow the government to set the time limit on debates. Delay is the opposition's only weapon and if compelled by strong enough feelings they can hinder the operation of government, as they did in the pipeline debate in 1960, until the ruling party is forced to seek a fresh mandate from the electorate.

At the moment the opposition parties are vowing to fight the new rule change as long as breath holds out. The Conservatives have scheduled speakers right up to Christmas eve. The remainder of the rule change, drafted after many weeks of dedicated work by a 12-member Commons committee chaired by Gordon Blair, the new Liberal MP for Grenville-Carleton, NDP Whip Stanley Knowles, parliamentary rules expert, threw the first gun in the attack with a more have the rules dealt with by committee of the whole House rather than a full debate to approve or reject. If his suggestion had been accepted start of the debate would have been delayed a further two days as the government would have had to bring in a new motion requiring 48 hours notice. Mr. Knowles' move was more fundamental than that, however. The two types of treatment provide for very different kinds of debate. Under the present system each MP can speak only once, amendments are hard to make, and when the debate is over and the vote is taken to approve the reports of the special rules committee the whole package of procedures is adopted as a one-shot deal.

In committee of the whole each rule would have been created separately. Members would be free to speak on each one; questions could be asked and answered, amendments moved, debated and voted on, and a separate vote on each rule. Mr. Knowles cited precedents dating back to Confederation to support his contention that no major rules changes had ever been made except they were discussed individually in committee of the whole. Government House Leader Donald MacDonald said there were precedents for the government's view as well. Mr. Knowles said the only one he knew of was in 1913 when Robert Borden brought in a package of new rules which attracted the same accusations of government arrogance as are being fired at the Liberals now.

Salvation Army Message

"Christmas not only tells us of God's coming to the world in the person of Jesus Christ," Commissioner Clarence D. Wiseman, commander of the Salvation Army in Canada, reminds us,
"but it also tells us of the abiding simplicity which is the heart and enduring society is built."
The world is full of strife, sorrow, loneliness, follows and such who claim their right to speak their message, yet often fail in the simple business of loving one woman, having one husband or wife, building a wholesome family life, or bearing witness to things that are gracious and good. This is one side of the Christmas family story that surely needs emphasis today.
In fact, the Christian faith testifies at Christmas to the eternal value of goodness and where its truth is fully accepted it has demonstrated its capacity to create such goodness.

Commissioner Wiseman reminds his fellow Salvationists that their relation to the world which they live is one of service. They are expected to stand squarely in the midst of people who are needing help, love and trust, and serve them in the name of that One Whose birthday we celebrate on December 25th.

Emphasizing that the grim realities of Viet Nam, starvation in India, and poverty in our own land are not forgotten in the midst of festivities, the Commissioner challenges Christians to be more positive and sacrificial in their response to these human needs. He suggests that young people be prepared to devote at least some years to the service of humanity in Canada or abroad. A number of young Salvationist University Students served in Africa, Asia and South America during the past summer, and plans are in hand for next summer.

Commissioner Wiseman points out that this is one of the most satisfying ways of celebrating Christmas the year round.

PLAQUE TO BE UNVEILED

A plaque commemorating Alberta Normal Schools will be unveiled in the University of Alberta Education Building, Saturday, December 12th, at 11:00 A.M.

fessor of Sociology at the University of Lethbridge, for his Master's thesis, will also be presented to the University at the event. The presentation will be made by F. B. Percy, Superintendent of Schools, County of Strathcona and President of the Education Society of Edmonton, to Dr.
Walter H. Johns, President of the University.
Dr. C. S. Lord, former principal of the Edmonton Normal School, will unveil the bronze plaque which notes the contribution the graduates and staffs of three Alberta Normal Schools to education in the province.

Former students and staff and the general public are invited to attend the ceremonies. Among

A. L. Doucette of Calgary, C.K. Havercroft of

HARTELL'S SILVER WEDDING

A huge crowd attended the 25th Wedding Anniversary celebration of Mag and Jack Harrell in the Memorial Hall, Saturday evening. The honored couple, with their family, entered the hall to the strains of the Wedding March. Good wishes were extended by M.C., Frankie Cocks on behalf of all present.

Everyone enjoyed dancing and a varied program. A highlight of this was a mock wedding with Georgia VanDerpepen as bride, Lydia Barry as groom, Don Jones, bridesmaid, Sis Downey, best man, Alta Damen, flower girl and Jack Warrack, preacher. All played their parts well and much fun resulted. The bride was shy, the groom a knockout in tight bell-bottom sailor pants, the bridesmaid stunning in a natural blond wig, and off the shoulder pale blue gown. The preacher had a difficult time and his nose grew redder and redder under the strain. The flower girl seemed to be allergic to her blooms and the best man determined to get his buddy married off.

Following the mock wedding, we were entertained by two lovely Can-can girls, Edna Warrack and Elsie MacLean, who rendered several comic numbers about roving sailor boys.

The quintette from Carletonland, comprising Al Malmberg, Joe Nicholls, Harry Christensen, Ralph McKenzie and Noel Barlow, sang several songs in fine style. Noel Barlow then rendered a solo, "Dannie Boy, Jack's favorite song". The program was much enjoyed by the honored guests and all present. Frankie Cocks, as M.C. kept things lively, to say the least.

Following the program, he introduced the head table guests. Besides Mag, Jack and their family there was Miss Yvonne Desmet and Donna and Frankie Cocks.

Mr. Bill Sander spoke on behalf of the community and presented their gift, a three-piece set of luggage "His", "Hers" and "Theirs." He said he had known the Harrell family since early days and remembered clearly the happy family get-togethers among his folks and theirs and especially the sing songs.

He complimented Mag and Jack for carrying on the tradition of hospitality so typical of the Harrell family in the pioneer community. He said, although he had not known Mag and her family as long, he had enjoyed the association to the full. Good wishes on behalf of all present were extended by Bill and he wished Mag and Jack many more years of wedded happiness. The crowd enthusiastically sang "For They are Jolly Good Fellows," and rendered four lusty cheers. Jack thanked Bill for his kind remarks and expressed his sincere and deepfelt thanks to the community for the lovely gift and to all who had helped to make their anniversary such a happy one. Mag also expressed her thanks to everyone.

Stew Groves then spoke and presented the Groves' family gift, a 12-piece set of stainless flatware. Bobby Harrell presented his parents with a lovely engraved mantle clock and thanked them for their care and interest over the years.

Bud Hebbes said a few words about his association with the Harrells and how much he had enjoyed their friendship.

Everyone sat down to a delicious lunch. Mag and Jack entertained at their home following the party. Relatives of the Harrell's from out of town, included: Edna and Eddie Vermunt, of Carstairs; Martha and Bill Warrack, of Calgary; Muriel and Bill Moench, of Ponoka; Mr. and Mrs. J. Minue, of Okotoks; Mr. Alex Harrell, of Harrell, Alberta; Mr. and Mrs. John Harrell, of Okotoks; and Mr. and Mrs. Pat Lyons, of Calgary. Out of town relatives of Mag's included: Mrs. Jean Forrest, of Calgary and Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie Forrest, of Midnapore.

All good wishes go out to Mag and Jack for many more years of happiness.

FIRE PROTECTION

The Gleichen Lions Club are anxious to contact all the people who may have an interest in forming a Rural Fire Protection Association. The Gleichen Lions have certainly sponsored many worthy projects and this one certainly has merit.

The meeting is to be held in Meadowbrook Hall Tuesday January 14th at 8:00 P.M. There will be representatives of two Fire Equipment Companies who will discuss costs and needs of such an association. Also a speaker from the Provincial Fire Commissioners office will be present.

Please make a real attempt to attend this important meeting.

EDITORIAL

The festivities of the year are now complete, and we can all settle down to face the changes of 1969.

The old year certainly was a wild one, so many things happened.

Mr. Trudeau became our Prime Minister when he was a year previously he had hardly been heard of by the mass in the street.

The year was similar, retired completely from Alberta's political scene, and we now have Hon. Harry Strom as head of the Social Credit Party, which will not bring much of a "Wind of Change" as both men seem to have similar ideals.

Marble Luther King was assassinated, and as yet his murderer has not been convicted, and as yet his murderer has not been convicted, and as yet his murderer has not been convicted.

The international "Voice Community" had the U.S.A. was a major issue, but it was not a precise Apollo flight.

The Year 1968 could not be called a dull one, by any standards, but the world still hovers on the brink of chaos, there are two wars going on at the moment, and another one pending in the United Arab Republic and Israel. The call for world peace has been made by every other dignitary of any consequence, during 1968 and yet Britain and the U.S.A. still supply arms and ammunition to nations to kill each other. These two powerful nations can always find a excuse for this type of business, but Britain and France in the Africa conflict must be a lot of soul searching.

The economy of Canada in agriculture has on the list of revenue makers, and we all know to be a farmer you have to be a bit of a gambler.

The gamble in 1968 was a "lean" and "tight" until September and then came the hail and the impossible harvest conditions, the gamble hardly paid off in any areas, and was devastating in a great proportion of Alberta.

The Canadian farmer, being that he is still now in considering how much money, he will put to the pot for this year's gamble, may we at this office take this opportunity to wish you our readers.

The very best of luck in all your enterprises and family ties during 1969.

CAIRNHILL NEWS

We are sorry to hear that June Schultz has been one of several who has been quite ill with the flu recently.

Mary MacDonald entertained the Groves families with a dinner at her home in Strathmore prior to their attending the Silver Anniversary Party for Nig and Jack Hartell.

Gregg Downey has just returned from a never to be forgotten trip to Jamaica, where he accompanied Paul Bunting of Kingston, to his home for the holidays. Mr. Bunting is a fellow student of Groves at Tech.

Among those entertaining over the holidays were: Allie and Roy Downey with a Christmas Eve supper for their friends and relatives; Nig and Jack Hartell with a good "old fashioned Christmas" for the Groves families.

Six and Harold Downey with an evening of fun on their anniversary, Dec. 26th.

Lauri Groves had her annual Christmas get together for the family on the 29th while Marilyn and Keith were home from Trail.

BONSPIEL

The Westwinds held their 8th Annual Allied Teen School Bonspiel on December 29th and 30th. First in the "B" event was won by Brian Roth's team. His team consisted of Lois Schultz, third; Ray Taylor, second; and Marlene Rindon, lead. They were the only out of town team that ended up in the prize. The trip was well worth it despite the cold weather. Due to the generosity of the Watkins man, Bill Rohl and his products the team was kept blister free.

friends and relatives called in for coffee and enjoyed the hospitality of Marion and Leo.

In the evening the Community Hall decorated for the festive season was the scene of a happy anniversary party. The beautiful wedding cake centered the head table and was doubly appreciated by the couple because it was made and decorated by our talented local chef, Gary Larsen. Flanking the wall was a miniature nurse, and Air Force mechanic, symbolic of the honored couple 25 years ago. A large number of friends gathered to honor Les and Marion, and were ushered in by Bill Nielsen and Kermit Story. Marion was escorted to her place of honor by Victor Pedersen and Leslie by Joleen Castella, while everyone sang "Happy Anniversary".

Gordon Kroon was the jovial M.C., he called on Jim Watt for the Civic welcome.

Louise Soudard entertained with a piano solo. Les and Donna Fider sang a number.

Santa Claus made his appearance bringing the gift from the Canadian Legion.

Pam Milbat graciously presented the O.E.S. gift. Murray on behalf of the family spoke a few well chosen words. Pastor Abrahamson presented the symbol of marriage decorated for the cake, after which he asked the blessing. Marion and Les thanked everyone for a memorable and happy day.

Orla Pedersen made the presentation on behalf of the Community, with a lovely bride book made by Fern Jensen. EU Westergaard sang two numbers especially chosen for each. Les and Donna Fider sang a number.

Santa Claus made his appearance bringing the gift from the Canadian Legion.

OBITUARY

John Adrian Van Bavel, passed away suddenly on Dec. 12, 1968 at the age of 69 years. Born in Antwerp, Belgium, he came to Canada in 1910, settled in the Strathmore district, farmed for 45 years in Crowfoot district. He was a member of the K. of C. He resided in

He is survived by his wife Kathleen, 3 sons, Herman and Hugh of Calgary, Gordon at Red Deer and 7 grandchildren.

Services were conducted by Father Flanagan at the Sacred Heart Church, Strathmore at 11:00 a.m. Monday Dec. 16, 1968.

Speaking to a group of Certified General Accountants, their national president, James E. Sperry, C.G.A., of Vancouver, said that management must review and re-write the rules in their firms. "It is a shocking thing," he said, "when the current and effective version in the hands of the unions is the harm they can do to management by following management's own regulations."

"I am not blaming the unions, I am blaming all of us in management who have permitted archaic, study and legislative regulations rather than flexible common sense to govern the operation, the adherence to which can slow down the operation."

"The C.G.A. course is unique," he said to the members, "in its emphasis upon Control Relationships. It urges you to put your knowledge to use by re-writing your rules so that they become assets rather than contingent liabilities."

"To say union men threatening you with 'work to rule' you can then say 'Does this mean you will be at work on time from now on and that you will stop abiding the coffee break?'"

Democracy in Action

There is to be a number of "Public Meetings" held in the County of Strathmore during the month of January by the Hon. Gordon Taylor M.L.A. They are slated for Tuesday, January 28th, 2:00 p.m., Glenora Council House and 7:30 p.m., City Community Hall, the next day January 29th, 9:30 a.m., at the Barns Old Standard (barbeque only) and then on the same day at 4:00 p.m. Memorial Hall, Strathmore.

In the Minutes letter to Mr. Taylor, he says, quote "Your M.L.A., arranges these meetings in order to report to you those he has seen and to give you an opportunity to let him know your wishes," unquote.

At past meetings held by Mr. M.L.A., there has not been very much interest shown in Strathmore. In other Wheatland Communities he speaks, usually to a full house.

By the very content of his quote Gordon Taylor wishes to hear from all his constituents in Strathmore, only a few dedicated persons, who can not help but be his judgment as an elected member to Provincial Government.

If only one side of any case is pleaded to a spokesman for a community he can only believe that these are the wishes of the people. Lethery in local politics can do irreparable harm and these meetings are convened to allow us the electorate to have our wishes known in Provincial Government.

Gordon Taylor has lent a sympathetic ear to a great variety of problems and, this forthcoming opportunity should be taken by all Strathmore residents particularly The High School to be built in Strathmore in very far from being a fact and no doubt Mr. Taylor has had a lot of the "Against Factor" contacting him, this would be an ideal opportunity for the "For Factor" to compile a list and submit to Mr. Taylor.

Gleichen Hockey News

by Ron Sauve

A good crowd of Gleichen hockey fans saw their home-town midge trounce their counterparts in the Standard on the same night. First period goal getters were Laprise and Brown, with Brown making the second goal for the third and fourth scores to give him a much deserved hat-trick. Haggarty, Kank and Holton wound up the game in the third period leaving the poor Standard net mender wondering if his coach had left the rest of the team at home.

Saturday morning had the Gummer Pee-Wee team playing host to the Basano team and saw Basano come up with a 9-2 win.

Gummer fans, who by the way are paying very good tribute to the new arena with their en masse attendance, were greatly disappointed on Saturday night when one of the seasons worst storms caused the cancellation of a promising game between the Gleichen juveniles and a Calgary Team.

On Sunday afternoon the Gummer Bantams came out against a team from Calgary Montgomery to prove that bantam hockey players are better hockey players than FIGHTERS. Pans saw a good clean fast and hard hitting game of hockey with few penalties and no score until one of the Calgary players hit the screen and scored the only goal with less than a minute and a half left in the game.

Tournament hockey is to be held off this year in Gleichen with a Pee Wee tourney on Sat., January 25th and the Bantams to follow on Sat., February 1st. Teams battling it out in both tournaments will be Strathmore, Standard, Basano, and of course Gleichen.

A word of wise to Fathers and Mothers, "Don't send the kid to the arena, TAKE HIM!"

WHEATLAND COUNTY CHURCHES

Dear fellow pastor and congregation:

The Lutheran Churches of our county have invited the Rev. Dr. William Horden to conduct an evangelism conference here March 10-12. Dr. Horden, president of the Luther Theological Seminary in Saskatoon and one of the leading theologians in Canada today, is as capable a speaker and preacher as we could obtain. His involvement in church renewal within many church bodies is well known and highly rated.

Our planning committee has encouraged this conference to be of an ecumenical nature with all the churches possible in our county to participate together. There is need that Wheatland County should recognize the unity we have together in Christ our Lord and to come together to strengthen and affirm that witness.

The topic that has been requested of Dr. Horden is: THE CHURCH - FOR OR AGAINST. The hosting congregations have asked of Dr. Horden to prepare a discussion paper that can be used in cottage meetings in the congregations. This paper would serve as a preparation for his presentations to us.

Our hopes and aims are that all the 18 churches in our county will come together for this conference. Plans are being made for a rally chorus to sing at each of the evening sessions. A coffee hour is planned following each evening for free discussion and exchange. We hope to use many of the pastors both in the evening services and in the discussion hour following.

We personally invite your participation. If this is to be a county wide conference, each pastor and congregation must be personally present. Within the next week, each pastor will be personally approached and asked to help lead his congregation towards this experience.

May God lead and guide our preparations that this may become an experience with God in the household of faith.

In Christ our Lord,

Luther Abrahamson

Wheatland Lutheran Parish

Standard, Alberta

GLEICHEN LIONS

Although general meetings have taken place since the last report, and the Lions' little table of the year "Suit of the Month" was won by Don Burns of Strathmore and may be heard of in good health. Watch for another raffle coming up soon. You still have a chance to get in on our Color T.V. Raffle by buying a list of our "Pay What You Felt" tickets. This is to be drawn towards the end of January.

Our status is now in operation and is a tremendous asset to our community. A good winter of skating and hockey is under way and finishing work on the inside of the building is continuing although there is still much to be done.

On January 1st (summer) will be the scene of a rough and ready tugboat party sponsored by the Lions. The party is under way and the Lions are looking forward to a break in the weather to risk tobogganing, skis, and Ski-Doo's over perilous courses. The more timid souls warmed their backsides by a blazing fire while eating free hotdogs and hot chocolate.

A crowd prepared to have fun filled Woodbrook Hall on New Year's Eve and a good time was had by all. Can't wait till next year!

Best wishes of the Club go to Lion Blair Henderson who has entered hospital for a major operation. We hope you won't be out of action for too long. Deputy District Governor Blair Fields was in attendance at our last meeting and District Governor Leigh Williams will be at our next one.

Guest speaker at our last meeting was Robert Russell who was representing the Department of Education, Mr. Russell spoke on the Government's program of Adult Education in the field of small business management and development. He outlined a number of short courses that could be offered in the community and this matter is now under consideration.

TREES BURN WHILE COMMUNITY SINGS

The village of Standard gathered one more spark of joy out of their Christmas trees last Monday evening. Members of the Luther League had gathered many of the trees together in the village park and set them ablaze. While flames and sparks shot high into the air, the community gathered around singing carols and enjoying the warmth of the fire and each other's company.

January 6, celebrated in many communities as Epiphany, traditionally marks the date the wise men visited the Christ child. This event symbolizes the world-wide theme announced by the nativity messages of, "Peace on earth, good will to men."

The many homes, a huge peace torch was lit blazing out the hopes of all the people. Pastor Abrahamson led the group in a prayer for peace. Trumpeter Ed Peterson led the singing. Following the singing of the national hymn, "God save the Queen," the community linked arms singing together, "Auld Lang Syne."

For the many who gathered that cold evening, this was a most fitting way to end together the Christmas season and join together in looking ahead to the New Year. Hopes are high in the community that this may be a continuing tradition.

Polar Expert Warns Wind-Chill Factor Critical In Winter

A big part of winter safety has to do with dressing properly for sub-zero temperatures and not just thermometer readings, but equivalent chill temperatures created by wind or by riding a motorcycle.

Temperatures as low as minus 30 degrees Fahrenheit may pose little danger for the well-dressed winter voyager. But when you couple temperatures with wind, dangers of freezing or even death become a reality. That's the word from James H. McPherson, a meteorologist and North Pole explorer, who notes that a plus 10 degree Fahrenheit temperature coupled with a 30-mph wind results in a wind-chill factor of minus 10 degrees, with considerable freezing danger.

McPherson, who completed an Arctic trip by motorcycle in the North Pole with the Fram Expedition early last

Because of the decreasing population in rural areas and changes taking place in our society there is a real lack of leadership in rural communities. If you are a woman who is not involved in clubs or organizations of one kind or another to ask this question of your group members. If truth be told, I think the most cases your answer will be a definite YES, we do need a shot in the arm.

Shy Girl Super Thief Stole Half - A - Mill

When the Royal Bank of Canada discovered that a girl teller at its Penitence, B.C. branch was a thief, officials clamped a veil of silence over the whole affair.

Not because Kathleen Ann Spiller, the girl teller, had stolen money (bank employee embezzlers aren't unique) but because she had stolen $492,000 over a period of four years. She was jailed last November for three years. Her details described her beneath the veil of secrecy. Ann Spiller had a bathroom with gold plated taps... parked her Cadillac behind the bank... took glamorous trips to Fiji, Portugal, London... were an incredibly expensive diamond to work... Ann Maclean's Magazine news writer Alan Edmonds to Penitence to piece together the story of the girl no one noticed... until she proved that she was the "diamond" article in the February Maclean's puts it, "Anyone Can Steal a Million."

"The Royal Bank, concluding that Ann's banking habits were bad publicity, demanded that she refuse to talk to reporters. Her lawyer, trying to reach a restitution agreement with bank officials, forbade her to do so," says Maclean's. But the magazine goes on to explain how she bookended her only the bank but the entire city of Penitence, into believing that she was either an heiress, or lucky on the stockmarket; she had turned a hand into a miniature palace with over $100,000 - worth of furnishings; how she lavished gifts on her friends... she was so shy, so unsure of herself that she couldn't even bring herself to play the piano in front of her music teacher.

Edmonds says that Ann Spiller told her music teacher that she didn't know why she committed the crime... she was so shy, so unsure of herself that she couldn't even bring herself to play the piano in front of her music teacher.

Well, winter is still "too much with it" in this corner of the Big Country. However, there is one bright spot in this hamlet of Rosebud, and that is the mercury vapor street lights which Calgary Power has just installed. They certainly add to the town.

DANCE

FOR DONNY

The following important information with respect to the damp grain situation across the Prairies was released by the Canadian Wheat Board Council on Jan. 15, 1969.

"Last fall, as soon as sufficient information was available, and the need for urgent action was evident, the Grain Transportation Committee held a press conference to call attention to the problem of the extremely high volume of high moisture grain that had been harvested, and the need for firm drying of this grain to avoid spoilage.

"What we would like to do today is to give you an up-to-date report on the progress of drying high moisture grain. This report was compiled as a result of the work of a sub-committee of operating managers of the Grain Companies, Railroads and the Grain Commission and Wheat Board personnel, which was formed last fall to co-ordinate the movement of high moisture grain.

We have sent out a questionnaire to all delivery points across Western Canada, to get an estimate of how much grain had been dried and what is left to be dried. Up to January 3rd, 42 million bushels of grain had been dried on farms. The Elevator Agents estimated that we still 217 million bushels of grain to be dried to avoid spoilage.

"There appears to be some dryers in Western Canada to do the job if they were properly distributed and if they were fully utilized. Agents estimate that there are approximately 3,200 farm dryers in the prairie provinces, of which only 900 are being used.

The Agents were also asked why dryers were not being utilized. It appears that the dryers are not evenly distributed across Western Canada and from approximately 1,800 dryer delivery points, 703 agents reported lack of availability of dryers in their area. 210 said that it was too expensive and 132 that the farmers hoped to haul to country elevators or feed the high moisture grain. In order to get a better utilization of the dryers, the Grain Transportation Committee will make available to the Provincial Departments of Agriculture the results of this survey on an individual delivery point basis in order to assist the Provincial Departments in their program of trying to get optimum use of farm dryers. Local committees have been set up by the provincial governments to make farmers aware of the need for farm drying and the locations of farm dryers in their area.

As far as drying in commercial facilities is concerned, all terminals are drying on a seven day week, 24-hour basis. Interior terminals are also being fully utilized to conditions as much grain as possible. So far terminals have dried 19 million bushels of grain and have ample stocks either in store, or under load, to continue an all-out effort. During the present conference last fall, we estimated that the terminals would be able to dry from 100 to 150 million bushels before the end of the crop year. While this estimate still appears to be reasonable, we would like to stress that only about 100 million bushels can be handled by the commercial facilities prior to the advent of warm weather. This constitutes the need for maximum utilization of the farm dryers.

As Chief Commissioner of the Canadian Wheat Board, I would like to take this opportunity to give an announcement with respect to delivery quotas. Last fall I indicated that we would endeavor to equalize quotas by the end of the crop year at a six bushel level. We have also had a policy in effect which allows producers advanced delivery privileges on damp grain to the three

The Ladies Auxiliary of The Royal Canadian Legion, Strathmore, have organized a Benefit Dance to be held for Donny Wegner on Jan. 31st at 8:30 p.m.

This will be a true community effort where the Wheatland Oldtimers are donating the music, the Ladies Auxiliary will provide refreshments, the Legion the Memorial Hall and the only thing that is now necessary is for a good crowd to attend the dance.

The proceeds raised will help to pay the enormous costs of the operations performed on Donny's spinal column. The specialists who will perform the "op" hope that they will correct the misalignment left by polio, by as much as 3 degrees.

The motto for the dance should be "Come to the Dance, but don't come alone, bring two friends."

UFA OFFERS INTEREST FREE

GRAIN DRYER FINANCING

The wet grain problem is serious enough in Alberta as it is in any of our other 5,000 or more farms, but the need for farmers to start drying grain right now is so desperate, we are putting special measures into effect immediately," Mr. Boyle said.

He said the UFA, a farm association and petroleum co-operative deeply rooted in Alberta's rural history, is the only organization making the announcement to make the immediate practical help to the farmer.

"The federal government's cash advance to farmers for grain drying purposes will be acceptable as down payment on grain dryer purchases, but as yet we have received no word from the federal government on this. It is still our objective to try to equalize at a six bushel level, but in view of the large quantity of damp grain now in the marketing pipeline, it will be impossible to give any further advance delivery privileges beyond the three bushel quota level for damp grain.

I would also like to stress the need from a sales point of view for the delivery of dry grain, especially in the Vancouver shipping area. We have heavy commitments for dry grain out of the west coast in the next few months, particularly 2 Northern for Japan and other commercial markets, and 4's and 5's for the Chinese market, and in order to meet these commitments, it is essential that substantial quantities of this grain be farm dried."

Boost for cheese export

The new United States quota for 1,200,000 pounds of export Canadian cheese was announced last week by the U.S. Trade Minister, George F. Papp.

United States cheese exports to Canada have been limited to 1,000,000 pounds since 1964. Papp explained that the new quota did not mean that the United States will be buying more cheese from Canada, but that it would be allowed to export more cheese to the United States.

LETTER TO P.M.

From a Concerned Farmer

Prime Minister Pierre E. Trudeau
Parliament House
Ottawa, Ontario

Dear Sir:

I have addressed this letter Personal and Confidential and have taken all the precautions I can think of only to make sure that it reaches you personally. Undoubtedly you will never see it. Why should I? I am only one in twenty million population but, your name has said minority groups of even one should be heard, and in the matter of protesting Estate Taxation, I am surely not alone.

As a farmer I am best able to convey to you what will undoubtedly happen to farming if the rates of taxation as quoted in the press recently are enforced.

Farming is traditionally a family enterprise plagued by low income, but by frugal living a farmer, generally with the help of his wife and a growing family, may be able to accumulate an estate, based on today's inflated valuations, of possibly two or three hundred thousand dollars. On the death of the farmer and his wife, the family, in order to retain this farm, will be forced to pay 25 - 30% of its inflated value to the government immediately.

Is this fair? Remember, it took this farmer, his wife, and family possibly thirty years to build up the estate, and, except for the accident of inflation, it would never have had very much value. When the family takes one look at the tax bill, no one can blame them for saying, "Let the farm sell. It is not worth the tax." In actual fact it should be theirs because of the help they have given their father and mother, and the help they have given the nation.

But the government takes no notice of the honest, industrious work performed. The government may even demand more than the farm's worth in terms of actual productive value. Consequently, the government will have to take it to its heart. From there on it is only conjecture on my part, but I would surmise that farming will degenerate to the communal type. In the meantime, small businesses would also have been strangled. The result could be a complete gloom. Even such a loss cannot be made to work without negation of individual effort.

In this "Age of Secrecy" how do you presume? A Canadian trying to think for the people good of Canada.

Rockyford Community Spirit

The people of Rockyford are organizing a Benefactor Fund for the children of Mr. and Mrs. Skymanski. Mr. Skymanski suffered a fatal heart attack last year, and Mrs. Skymanski was killed in an auto accident last week. There are four children of the family and three of them are still attending school. Friends and neighbors of the family are rallying around to help lift some of the financial burden from the children.

Donations to this fund may be left at the Rockyford Village Office or at any of the business establishments in Rockyford.

WHITE CANE WEEK

"To be able to see is the greatest thing in the world," said Mr. Bill Drimman, President of the Calgary Club of the Blind. In a special interview for White Cane Week, February 2 - 8, the President, who is blind himself, pointed out the need for readers to take care of their eyes. "Doctors state that early treatment could prevent fifty percent of Canada's blindness," he said. In addition, according to the Workmen's Compensation Board of the 10 provinces, the accident rate is beyond all proportions. More than 300,000 eye accidents occur annually in industry alone. The figure does not include eye injuries on the farm, around the house or at school.

Because of these conditions the CCB and The Canadian National Institute for the Blind are dedicating the 1969 White Cane Week, their annual education project, to the importance of common sense eye care.

The President reviewed three important areas—research is under way on numerous levels in government, university and private source and the advance in eye medicine is considerable. The resulting new knowledge must spread to all concerned with sight preservation. "Action is the application of knowledge already possessed," Mr. Drimman said. He made a few suggestions for protecting your own eyesight.

"See your doctor at the first sign of trouble," he said. "This is the way to catch any eye conditions in time."

"If you need glasses, use safety lenses. Many a man can save today because that harder lens today is the brunt of the blow."

"If you have children, have the eyes test early. Crooked eyes must be treated by the age of seven. The early check can mean the difference between normal vision and one-eyed seeing for the rest of a child's life."

"You cannot make a better resolution this White Cane Week," said Mr. Drimman, "than to be wise and take care of your eyes. Remember, they must last a lifetime."

Psychiatrist prefers 'Pot'

We read in a daily newspaper that a leading psychiatrist states, that marijuana is probably no as dangerous as alcohol to the human being, and goes on to state "That of the two evils he prefers 'Pot'."

This gentleman also remarks that 'Pot' is available more fairly than high speed alcohol.

Remarks such as these should not be treated lightly as they may well be taken as fact, not only by our youth but by the general public.

The amount of controversy that 'Pot' has aroused is incredible, instead of expending money upon research and having honest, sane, and irrefutable statements why don't they use C.B.C. film coverage to Africa or Egypt where the populace has sunk to an all time low mainly caused by marijuana.

The African child in some village areas is an addict at seven or eight years old. This tragedy happens in a most innocent manner, the child is sitting in the sun with grandfather who will send him to light his pipe, the youngster takes the clay pipe to the fire and places a hot coal on the pipe to get the pipe going and back he toddles to grandpa, soon he has to have his own pipe.

The African child will not be subjected to underworld 'Pot' peddlars' he will wander in the bush and pick his own drugs from the plants which grow in abundance.

The dreadful fact is that he will be a very senile individual by the time he is 35 years old, and his mind will be a pitiful sight as he, will not be able to keep solids in his stomach and will slowly waste away his stamina.

There is no need for the lengthy research projects on the merits of Pot Smoking the government should send a few observers to Africa or to the Middle East to get their report on the effects of a free access to Pot.

There are a few responsible citizens in the communities of the County, who have others' welfare at heart.

This publication has been urged to bring to the notice of our readers the hazards of this extreme cold spell.

Ventilation is not one of the things we want to hear around our fire and safe, but it is essential. Readers are reminded that there is a possibility of an ice build up in chimneys and sewer vents, which can cause a lethal hazard, in deed we are told that under certain conditions an explosion may occur from the accumulated gases.

Please check your household vents for this possible hazard, it may save your life.

TRAINED TECHNOLOGISTS

Each year more and more agribusiness firms are looking to Alberta's able agricultural schools to provide them with the trained technologists needed to service today's highly specialized agricultural industry. Says J. Hawker, director of the schools which are located at Olds, Vermilion and Fairview.

Originally, says Mr. Hawker, most of the graduates returned to the family farm, but with increasing number seek employment with government agencies with agribusiness firms. For this reason it has been necessary to update the curriculum of the schools so that the graduates would be better qualified to share in today's general economy or may major in animal or plant science for job opportunities. For example, students may take a general course or may major in a specific field. A graduate with an animal science major would be better qualified for employment with a feed company or a firm manufacturing and distributing medical supplies for livestock. Similarly, a farm machinery distributor would likely prefer to hire a graduate who had completed a major in farm mechanics.

Two special courses which have been developed to meet today's off-farm employment needs are approximately 50 per cent of the agribusiness course is related to agriculture while the balance offers instruction in general business procedures and techniques. Graduates in soil technology will have been provided with an excellent background which should fit them for employment as land surveyors or in the fertilizer industry. The latter where a good knowledge of soils and soil fertility is an important factor.

GREEN ACRES

by A. E. Edwards, Dist. Agr.

MEETING—Don't forget the meeting on Green Acres at Standard on Thursday Feb. 6 starting at 1:30 P.M. in the Standard Community Hall.

POSSIBLE TROUBLE This past week it was talking to Dr. J. Bradley, our local Veterinarian. He suggested that the wintering of cattle and roughage ration could be heading for troubles. The energy required to maintain an animal in this cold weather cannot be supplied by roughage alone. Dr. Bradley suggested that some grain should be fed to supplement the roughage ration. The requirements for Vitamin and mineral will change - they are still needed.

Dr. Bradley stressed the fact that a hay and straw ration could not possibly supply the necessary energy to maintain a cow in this cold weather. In lieu of the time of year and the nearness to calving time he suggested that the grain to supplement the ration should be continued the rest of the winter.

SWINE GRADING SCHOOL & JUDGING COMPETITION - Trochu.

Don Peters, District Agr., at Three Hills informs me that they have scheduled a Swine Grading School and Judging Competition at Trochu on Feb. 28th and Feb. 29th.

At 10:15 A.M. on Feb. 28th at the Trochu Auction Market in Trochu they will examine the carcasses of the 6 hogs judged on the 28th. Mr. Art Radford, Livestock Supervisor with the A.D.A. and a Federal Gov. Grader will be the speakers.

A registration charge of $1.00 will be charged and two door prizes of 1/2 Hog Carcass each will be awarded. The best Judges will also win 1/2 a carcass each.

FARM ACCOUNT MEETINGS, I am meeting with groups of farmers and farm wives at the Standard Community Hall to help them understand the Prairie Provinces Farm Acc. Book. We will hold a series of 3 meetings. Along with becoming familiar with the book I am getting to know more of the farmers and their wives. Discussions will be held on a number of subjects and we will discuss many different aspects of farming related to making decisions - economically.

If any other group is interested, just give me a ring at the office in Strathmore.

PROGRESSIVE FARMING DAYS - Lethbridge

Feb. 4th, 5th, and 6th. Displays of 40 companies related to mechanization of the farm and modernization of the home have been successful at Olds and Vermilion. Agriculture Vocational Schools. They will be held at Lethbridge this year in the Exhibition Centre on three consecutive days, Feb. 4th, 5th and 6th.

If you are planning to build or make improvements on your farm - you will get many ideas from the displays and Co. Representatives at Progressive Farming Days at Lethbridge.

Gleichen Hockey News

by Ron Sauer

Blanton action started the week off when the Gunners, pitted themselves against Standard to be defeated 3 - 2 in a good clean game that only produced one penalty. For Standard Lescock scored twice and McNurra once with Russell and Vule doing the honors for Gleichen.

Wednesday night saw the seniors and the midges take action when the old fellows were again defeated by the 7 - 2. B. Kanki proved himself quite a star when he found the mark three times for a score. Deserved goals were again collected behind with two. The other two counters for the midges were set in by Hackett and B. Kanki.

Two local teams were again matched on Friday when the juveniles called on the Seniors to don their blades and give them some competition. The result was a fast, clean, and very hard hitting game with the first and third periods all being exciting.

WINTER CONCERTING

Why is it important to stop concrete from freezing? What precautions should a farmer take who wants to place concrete in the winter time? It is a good idea to use a concrete mixer.

Alberta's extension engineer, J. L. Reid says that freezing stops the natural hardening, and the curing process is slowly placed concrete. It is impossible to get strong, good quality concrete once it freezes. A certain amount of hardening will occur in the winter.

According to Mr. Reid five factors are taken into account by the extension engineers do not recommend placing concrete if the temperature is below freezing unless it is absolutely necessary. The concrete should be heated if the temperature is only slightly below freezing and the sand should be heated as well. If the temperature is colder, the temperature of the water at the time of mixing should be about 140 degrees F., and should be kept the same for each batch.

The temperature of the concrete when it is placed in the forms, says Mr. Reid, should be between 50 degrees and 80 degrees F. - winter or summer. It should not be allowed to go above 80 degrees F. In the winter, all ice, snow and frost should be removed from the forms, reinforcements and other contact surfaces. In fact, the temperature of all such surfaces should be above 32 degrees F.

In cold weather insulation can be used to maintain proper curing temperatures for a limited period. The insulation should be applied within half an hour of the concrete being placed. The heat loss during this period is about 15 percent per hour of the difference between the concrete and surrounding air temperatures. Additional covering and heat should be used if the insulation alone will not prevent freezing.

Mr. Reid says that the concrete should be kept at not less than 45 degrees F. for at least four days during the curing process. It is also important to remember that excessive variations in temperature will cause the concrete to weaken and crack. In addition to providing heat in cold weather, it is a good idea to provide moisture for the first 72 hours of the curing period. Steam is ideal for supplying both the heat and the moisture.

Calcium chloride, says Mr. Reid, can be added to concrete to hasten the curing process, but should never be used as a substitute for proper curing or protection during the curing period. In addition to shortening the curing period, the chemical reaction set up by calcium chloride increases the rate at which heat is released. This great provides additional protection for the concrete. According to Mr. Reid, calcium chloride should never be used at a rate higher than 1 percent by weight of the cement. Too much calcium chloride reduces the strength and durability of the concrete. There is evidence that it tends to intensify the destructive reaction between the alkalis in the cement and certain susceptible aggregates.

It is also said to corrode metal reinforcements or ducts imbedded in the concrete.

a real thriller when regulation time found the score tied between Gleichen and Bassano. Bassano's number seven, Stiles, came up with a winner in sudden death overtime. In his second game, Strathmore edged over Standard with a 2 - 1 score when this young but-cher Willows scored all goals for Strathmore to get himself a hat-trick. D. Dick and D. Jorgensen scored for Standard in the back end of the draw. Gleichen downed Standard 3 - 2 to put Standard out of the competition and move themselves into playoff position for top place. Game number four proved to follow the pattern of the day when at the end of regulation time, the score was again tied, Strathmore and Bassano each had five goals. At that point in the game Willows had provided again that he could put that rubber in the bag when he scored all five of Strathmore's goals. J. Larsen scored once for Bassano and Stiles opened the fan's eyes when he showed that there is more than one future hockey star in the league by scoring four regulation time goals for Bassano. Not quiting there he came back in overtime to save the game for his team in a second overtime period. In a penalty free first period Randall scored from Corbett to put Gleichen in the lead at the end of that first period. In the opening seconds of the second period, England scored for Bassano with no assist for the only scoring period. Officials saw fit to hand out two penalties to Bassano players in that period when they got two minutes for tripping and still were not far from being out of the puck after the whistle. The third period brought about a change to the day's close scoring when Naclean scored twice. Glen Brown was the hero of that game to give the Bassano team a clean win over the Gleichen team. Nat Murray presented the team with the much deserved trophy for their victory.

Saturday evening saw midgelet action when the Gunners and Bassano played to a six all tie. Gleichen's Glen Brown was the hero of that action with a hat-trick to his record.

Sunday games were cancelled due to the inclement weather, which seems to prevail this hockey season.

Officials ceremonies were staged in Gleichen's outdoor arena on Saturday when Arena Board Chairman Gordon Hall turned the mike over to the head of the recreation board, Vern Hoff. Hoff acknowledged the beginning of National Hockey Week and emphasized the importance of minor hockey. He reminded us of the need for all to work together to form a team of players, coaches, and good fans. The final game of the Pee Wee tournament got under way between Gleichen and Bassano when Gleichen's Naylor 1 of Ferguson dropped the puck to officially open National Hockey week for the Gleichen enthusiasts. Naylor Ferguson asks everyone to continue their mayor support to MINOR HOCKEY.

Exercise Frozen Jump

EDMONTON, January 24th, 1969 - Living in a tent and winter warfare training during an Alberta winter is quite a jump from ceremonial duties in the Royal Air Force in London, England.

For 150 members of 3 Company, 1 Battalion Coldstream Guards Exercise Frozen Jump is a very busy time. They are to spend the next five weeks living in tents at Camp Walwyn, Alberta, training in tents and operate under winter conditions.

Exercise Frozen Jump is a British Army mobility exercise in which the Coldstream Guards undergo winter warfare training in Canada. They are airlifted with their equipment by the Royal Air Force from the United Kingdom to Canada and return.

The main body of 123 guardsmen will arrive in Canada on January 27th and will be based in England after a stop in Gander, Newfoundland. The first RAF Britannia will arrive at 7 P.M. Monday, January 27th, with 60 officers and men. The second flight is scheduled to arrive 24 hours later.

The commanding officer of the company, Major J.E. Cadogan, arrived in Canada on January 26th with 20 officers and men of the advance party. They have been attending the Canadian Forces Combat Arms School, at CFB Borden for training period in winter survival and warfare so that they may instruct the remainder of the company when it arrives at Walwyn.

1 Battalion, Princess Patricia's Canadian Light Infantry from Calgary will provide an officer and sergeants to assist in the training program. While at Camp Walwyn the British troops will take part in the winter concentration exercises carried out in February by 1 Combat Group from Calgary. They will take part in the various competitions of military skills and winter warfare techniques. During the final phase of the concentration they will join with the Canadian Airborne Regiment from Edmonton to provide an enemy force against the units of the combat group. During the last week of their stay in Canada, the unit will have an opportunity to visit Calgary and spend six months of that time in Adm. Their ceremonial and public duties in London have been followed by the task of providing part of the force of the Allied Commander Europe defending the Northern flank of NATO in Europe.

Foster Parents

The Alberta Department of Public Welfare has always believed that foster parents are preferable to institutions in bringing up parentless children. Orphanages as such just do not exist in the province, indeed, in Alberta about 4,300 volunteer foster parents care for children who for some reason have lost their parents either temporarily or permanently.

The personalized love and care provided by foster parents has proved to be far more preferable to the antisocial environment of the institution.

As one foster parent put it: "the children may get the best of food, shelter and clothing in an institution, but not the love and emotional security we can give them. Our aim is to give the foster child as normal a life as possible."

The question is basically the philosophy of the Department of Public Welfare as well. But there has been a lack of understanding of the principles of foster parenthood among the general public, bordering occasionally on outright prejudice.

The department has recently launched a campaign to improve the public image of the foster parent, including the giving of long-service certificates of merit to foster parents throughout the province and explanation of the beneficial role foster parents play in the community by preparing parentless children with love and understanding for a meaningful place in society.

"Some foster parents may have started out for the benefit of extra money, but they ended up dedicated to the task of bringing up a child who might otherwise have no chance in life. Once the foster child becomes a sort of subadult member of the family and the foster parents are out of pocket on the agreement," a Departmental spokesman said.

The rates of payment by the department are adequate to cover the cost of boarding a child in the home. From infancy to 12 years the rate is $2.00 a day, from 12 to 16 years $2.50 a day and from 16 to 21 years $3.00 a day.

Additionally a clothing allowance is paid. Arrangements are made for spending money or Family Allowance. All medical and educational expenses are also paid.

Applying for a foster child is relatively easy. The prospective foster parent is required to fill in a brief questionnaire relating to the family's financial ability and the age and sex of other children, if any, in the home. Three references are also required.

Applicants are then visited in their own homes by a caseworker who makes sure that the foster child will have a good family life there. The caseworker checks on the mother's ability to handle children, her emotional stability and the way she organizes the home, among other things. The foster mother's role is crucial to the adjustment and happiness of the child as she will be with him most of the time, but it is seldom that a child will be placed in a home where there is no father.

After the child has been placed in the home, and this is done with due regard for the compatibility of the parents and children, the caseworker visits the home regularly to make sure that parents and child are adjusting to each other well and to help iron out the day to day problems that might crop up.

There is a continuing need for dedicated and mature people to act as foster parents. Some of the categories are:

- Foster parents who can remember their own troubled adolescence and can understand the problems of an adolescent boy or girl;

- Foster parents who have room in their hearts and homes for more than one more so that a family group can stay together;

- Foster parents who can find joy in helping a retarded or disabled child develop new capabilities and skills;

- Foster parents who will provide temporary homes for babies awaiting adoption;

- Foster parents who can accept a child who is not of their own race;

- Foster parents who can face the challenge of loving a child who has not yet learned to love.

The greatest need is for foster parents willing to take in children 12 years or older, and children of Metis or other mixed race origin.

Calgary Seed Fair

The Calgary Seed Fair opens, March 1st. The Seed Fair will coincide again this year with the world famous Calgary Bull Sale, and will be held in conjunction with the Alberta Youth Achievement Fair.

The Seed and Hay show provides classes for all grains in both pedigree and open categories; all forage seed, oil seed, potatoes, hay and silage. This is an agricultural fair and entries must represent substantial amounts of seed; hand picking of samples is not permitted. Entries are invited from all parts of Alberta and the Peace River block in B.C.

Like several other Calgary presentations, the Seed Fair is a combined effort of the Chamber of Commerce, The Calgary Exhibition and Stampede, the Alberta Department of Agriculture, Canada Department of Agriculture, the Alberta Department of Youth, and the Alberta Branch, Canadian Seed Growers' Association.

GLAUCOMA

"Glaucoma is one of the most baffling eye conditions we know," said W.J. Brown, Field Secretary, The Canadian National Institute for the Blind, in an interview for White Cane Week which the CNIB and the Canadian Council of the Blind sponsor annually, he explained that in Canada more than 100,000 people over 35 have the disease.

"Because the early stages of glaucoma do not produce any symptoms," Mr. Brown explained, "you can have the condition without knowing it." Well named, "The Sneak Thief of Sight," glaucoma destroys vision painlessly and causes about 12 percent of Canada's blindness.

Though the cause is unknown, doctors know what happens in the eye. The channels that carry away the normal fluids become narrow and are unable to remove the liquids at the normal rate. This causes pressure to build up which gradually kills the tiny nerves at the back of the eye and reduces sight. If left untreated, blindness will result.

"There is one ray of hope for the glaucoma patient," Mr. Brown said. "When diagnosed early, doctors usually prescribe drops which, used regularly, prevent the channels from closing further and permit the patient to see well."

Today the chances of early diagnosis are better than ever. Mr. Brown reported that more communities are now holding surveys to detect glaucoma before much damage is done. Eye doctors know more about it and many of them are making the necessary tests long before the patient reaches middle age. He mentioned a few of the symptoms that do occur in later stages—blurred vision—rings around lights—the fact that glasses, even new ones, do not seem to help—reduction of vision at the sides of the eyes.

"With vision so much a part of modern life," the Field Secretary observed, "your best White Cane Week resolution this year is to take a glaucoma test. Your job, your television, your automobile may be at stake."

Are Artificial Sweeteners Safe?

Since three large British retail chains banned the use of artificial sweeteners, based on cyclamate, in their private label foods, many consumers in other parts of the world seem to be alarmed. But several government health organizations feel there is no hazard if artificial sweeteners are consumed moderately.

The U.N. Food and Agricultural Organization considers average daily consumption to be safe if it does not exceed 50 mg./kg. of body weight. This means a person weighing 150 - 160 pounds should not consume more than 3 - 5 grams of cyclamate a day. The cyclamate manufacturer's claim that daily consumption is far below the safe amount.

They say a person would have to drink 8 - 10 bottles of low calorie pop and include other low calorie foods to get 5 grams. (a bottle of low calorie pop contains about 3 grams of cyclamate).

Most of the questions about cyclamates have come from animal studies. However from various reports written the general consensus seems to be that artificial sweeteners do not pose a health problem provided they are consumed in moderate amounts.

The Makepeace F.W.U.A. local met at Helen Arlison's home on Tues. Tickets for the Wheatland F.U.A. supper were distributed. Plans were made for the mop up of membership. ## ICE SAFETY

In Canada we are lucky. Every year we experience the wonderfully brisk and invigorating days of winter and early spring and enjoy the fun and pleasure and safety of snow and ice. We indulge in our favourite winter sports, some relatively safe, others extremely hazardous. We are for a few months creatures of snow and ice.

Two of the most popular reasonable pastimes, snowmobiling and ice fishing, can be dangerous unless tempered with caution. There are repeated reports of snowmobilers breaching through thin ice. One example of a close call, quoted by the participant - "My machine broke the thin ice and nearly went through but by accelerating fast, I jumped the broken area and landed on firm ice". More luck than good management; a poor hook to hang a life on.

Kiwitshing, also a popular sport, draws thousands of Canadians to ice covered lakes every weekend. Quite a few at their own peril.

Last year there were twenty-eight cases of drowning on ice-covered lakes across the country. Many of these cases were due to the victims not knowing local ice conditions before venturing beyond commonly used areas.

A. W. Thompson, Canadian Red Cross National Director of Water Safety, urges extreme caution where all ice sports are concerned. Know the terrain. Be particularly careful on larger lakes where cracks can open up suddenly, making ice travel very dangerous.

And, remember, the quantity of snow and temperatures that are not unpleasantly low always produces an ice situation that is not dependably safe.

Wise ice users, be they skaters, snowmobile operators, ice-fishermen or whatever, will double check ice conditions this winter.

Brainy Dinosaur Bones

The bones of perhaps the most intelligent dinosaur that ever lived have been discovered in the Alberta badlands.

Dr. Dale A. Russell, acting head of the Paleontology Division of the museum, identified some of the fossil bones of the ancient reptile Saurornithomimus, an eight-foot creature that roamed western Canada about 75 million years ago.

The museum scientist believes Saurornithomimus — meat-eating reptile — probably ate primitive mammals, including the ancestors of man, which were tiny shrew-like creatures at that time. Although this dinosaur did not have the intelligence of a dog or even a parrot (which is a relatively intelligent bird) it probably possessed that of chickens and other large ground birds.

Dr. Russell says the brain was "about seven times larger than any living reptile of comparable body weight". He believes Saurornithomimus weighed about 100 pounds.

Some of the bones uncovered this summer in Alberta belong to the "skull cap", a piece missing in two other specimens found previously — one in south Saskatchewan and the other in Alberta. Discovery of this cap showed the brain capacity to be much larger than dinosaur many times as large.

Scientists believe most dinosaurs were very stupid creatures with small brains. Finding the skull cap capable of holding a larger brain shows there was a tendency for dinosaurs to become intelligent, had they more time to evolve further.

Saurornithomimus had a thin skin and walked on two legs, with front limbs free to grasp objects. The legs and hind limbs show evidence of muscles were very powerfully developed. This feature, along with the proportions of the body elements of the hind limbs, indicates the animal must have been very swift. The hands were also extremely supple.

Its eyes were large, about twice the size of those of a human, giving it very keen vision. They faced rapidly forward, so that the animal must have also possessed stereoscopic vision.

Although fossils of this reptile are scarce, Dr. Russell says the creature may have been "as plentiful as foxes or coyotes are today". It was completely "terrestrial", living on plains where its hooves would leave tracks immediately covered after death and preserved. (Most large dinosaur fossils recovered by science died in swampy areas and eventually were covered by silt, which preserved them.)

Saurornithomimus lived in fairly recent times in terms of dinosaurs. Some of these huge creatures date back as far as 220 million years. All dinosaurs are believed to have died out about 65 million years ago. It was 65 million years later that the ancestors of man became recognizably human.

Dr. Russell says the discovery of the Alberta specimen "has enabled us to estimate the age of the dinosaur fossils." There are only three dinosaur fossils was found. It also demonstrates that Asian and American dinosaurs were very similar at that time.

"There probably was a connection between Asia and America through Alaska then," said the museum scientist.

Approximately 10,000 man days have been spent collecting dinosaur fossils in the area where the dinosaur was found, but in that time only portions of two specimens of Saurornithomimus have been discovered.

A fire meeting was held at Mr. J. Mong's Fri. night. It was an organizational meeting and two main captains were elected, Mr. Ken Hoff and Mr. Denis Lalonde. The people of Cluny should be thankful that these men are now very efficiently organized.

A meeting of the Cluny Alumni Assoc. was held at J. Mong's Fri. The date for the 2nd school reunion was set for July 30, 1959 in the form of a barbecue and cocktail dance. A second letter is being mailed on Jan. 29th with a two week deadline, as to whether you are able to attend. We trust the response will be more gratifying than the first letter sent on June 8th, 1958.

Cluny's first annual Snow Toboggan Rally will be held on Feb. 22nd. Watch for further notice and particulars. Our club will also be sponsoring Karen Korschak as Carnival Queen candidate for the Gleichen Ice Carnival Feb. 23rd. We enjoyed a good time at the Standard Club at our recent supper meeting. Damien Corbille won the trophy for the longest pleasant talk. Tickets for our Remington 7MM BDL rifle are going briskly. Be sure to get some soon! Don't forget our Charter Night March 14th. Ken Hoff

EARLY SPRING ICE BREAK UP

It is ironic and tragic, to say the least, that many individuals who, after enjoying a full winter season of ice sport, lose their lives due to conditions imposed by the breaking-up of the ice in early spring.

As winter wears its end and the first hints of spring bring the dangers of old and unstable ice. The structure of the ice changes as the warmer weather approaches and, unfortunately, the changes take place underneath the ice when it cannot be seen. Ice may look perfectly solid yet it may be so honeycombed that the slightest weight upon it will cause it to crumble.

Skaters should be particularly careful when the ice begins to break up. One cannot be too careful this time of year. Always skate in supervised areas, preferably shallow ponds or lakes in which the water is not more than waist deep.

At this season, children should have special attention with regard to their participation in ice sports. Parents and guardians should ensure their charges are under constant supervision when on the ice. Never let them skate alone or after dark unless the area is floodlit.

Many early spring heavy rains and there being many new basins such as swollen streams and water-filled ditches and excavations.

It is a wise skater who, during this season, always skates with a companion in case of an accident and who avoids congregating on the ice in large groups.

The Canadian Red Cross urges the great need for caution on ice in early spring.

Think in terms of ice safety!

Curiously enough, it is Benjamin Franklin, the great American statesman and inventor who established the first Canadian post offices in Montreal, Quebec, and Three Rivers.

The first postal service in the world came into being in 1710. It was the work of three thousand years before Christ. His couriers scurried their mail on foot, delivering important messages inscribed in clay.

The subject matter of Canadian stamps must illustrate the economic cultural life of the country, contribute to an awareness of traditions, accomplishments and history, or foster a spirit of international goodwill and understanding.

Post cards were first used in Canada in 1871.

Each Canadian received approximately 240 pieces of mail every year; this explains the title of booklet — "Canada 240" — published in 1960 by the Canada Post Office.

It was the Assyrians who invented the envelope. The idea came to them one day as they intercepted their secret messages, written on large, heavy, clay tablets. Cleverly, they constructed similarly large and heavy clay envelopes. The rumpled paper is a disgruntled Assyrian mailman inventing writing paper is unsubstantiated.

In earlier times the mail was delivered only once a year in the Arctic. Today, mail delivery takes place once a week in most of the Yukon and Northwest Territories.

The Canadian artist Samur-Cote, to be honoured by a postage stamp issued in March, 1960, was just finishing his work "Horse hauling logs" when a nearby friend heard his murmur "it's alive! it's alive! I can see the sparrows coming".

The daily routes that the letter carrier takes is officially called a "walk".

Each of the 134 nations which belongs to the Universal Postal Union retains the fees for mail leaving the country. The hypothesis is that for every country that sends a letter, it will pay for its international mailings than any other.

The title "Postmaster General", over 300 years old in Britain, is slated to disappear in 1960 when the British postal operation becomes a public corporation.

The symbol of the postal service in several European countries is the ancient curved horn which continues used to sound on their rounds, heralding their approach.

Herr Franz Melzer, a letter carrier from Bad Heilbrunn in bustling West Germany, recently inherited an ancient post horn on condition that he use it while making his rounds.

The Universal Postal Union had a membership of 134 countries, and is the largest of eight such postal unions.

Henry VII introduced the first public mail service with the appointment of Brian Tuke as "Master of the Posts". Tuke instructed his post offices to record the receipt and despatch times of mail and thus the system of postal marks began.

LET'S GET NEWSY

Mrs. Charlie Scott was taken to General Hospital last Sat. She has had flu and been ill at home since Christmas. Suffering a relapse now we do wish her a speedy recovery.

Mr. Alec Porteous was honored, a week late of his 90th birthday because of the severe weather. His daughters Dorothy Grant of Standard, Winnie McLaughlin of Lyalton and Jean Nelson entertained many old friends at the home of Mrs. Nelson. Alec is an old timer in our area and says it takes a good Scotsman to live to a ripe old age.

Mr. and Mrs. Ken Walker are enjoying warm weather in Arizona, away from our severe cold.

The crowd was not too well attended last Fri. night at the Benefit Dance for Donny Wegener. The weather man did not co-operate but many friends made contributions to the fund which will be a great help in covering the expenses for Donny. We hope he soon recovers from his infection and can return.

Miss Donna Koshowski and Mr. Robert Dorsey were united in marriage at a quiet ceremony in the St. Francis Church in Calgary Jan. 24th. A small reception with the family was held at the Beachcomber Restaurant following the ceremony. Congratulations Mr. and Mrs. Dorsey.

Sorry to report Mr. Claude Mackie, is in General Hospital having surgery.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Voermans and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hildahl left for car last week for Palm Springs to get away from our sub-zero weather.

Mrs. Dave Thomas returned home from hospital this week and will be having to rest for some time.

Congratulations to Miss Mary Thomas who has been appointed health nurse on the Indian Reserve at Gleichen.

Mr. Bert Giffen, nephew of Dr. Giffen spent the week and with the Giffen family while attending and assisting with the special youth service held last Sunday at the United Church.

Irene Giffen, Hazel Heckie, Lydia Slater and Micki Jones enjoyed curling at the Okotoka ladies bonspiel last week. They won second in the finals. Although very cold they reported a good time.

Congratulations to Miss Neville who recently celebrated her 83rd birthday. She was honored at the Church service and presented with a beautiful bouquet. She has given years of her life in service of the church.

Our sympathy to Mrs. Florence Morton upon the passing of her mother Mrs. Thurston who has been in the Owen hospital for some time. Florence and Norman attended the funeral in Owen last Monday.

Former residents of Strathmore will recall Mrs. A. A. Moore who was editor of the Strathmore Standard after the death of her husband from 1933 - 1947. She also edited and published the "Alberta Home and School News" for the first time here in Strathmore, with the help of Lester Jones who could run the old press.

Upon cleaning cupboards an old issue of the "Home and School" paper was found, dated Feb. 1935 and in it the obituary of Mrs. Moore. She was a fine publicly minded woman and supported the church, I.O.D.E., the Legion Ladies Auxiliary, politics, and the Home and School. She was loved and respected by all and her passing in 1955 after a few years of retirement in Calgary was felt by all.

For her work with the Home and School she was honored and this excerpt came from the same issue of the paper in 1935:

LEGION CURLERS

Congratulations to Jack Fawkes, Gladys Crellin, Irene Keeling and Willie Fawkes for being so successful in the Legion Zone Bonspiel which was held in Strathmore curling rink on February 2nd. Strathmore had entered two rinks and Rockyford one for these championships. The winning rink will be playing in the District Play-Offs in Oldsburg on February 15th and 16th. We wish them the best of luck.

DONNY'S DANCE

The benefit dance to help defray medical expenses for Donny Wegener was not very well attended owing to the sub-zero weather. The amount collected so far from the dance and donations left at businesses is in excess of $453.00, the organizers of the fund have opened a Trust Account at the Royal Bank Strathmore on Donny's behalf.

"Former Publisher Mrs. Moore Dies" Mrs. Alberta Mary Moore, publisher of the Strathmore Standard from 1933 until 1947 and a member of the committee which planned and published in 1946 the first "Home and School" (now Alberta Home and School News), died suddenly in Calgary in December. She was 84 years of age.

During her many years in Strathmore Mrs. Moore took an active part in community affairs and was a staunch supporter of Home and School. She was loved by all and was an inspiration to those who worked with her.

Mrs. Moore was replaced as publisher of the Strathmore Standard by her grandson, Mr. Charles MacLean, and more recently by another grandson, Mr. Hector MacLean, who now prints the Alberta Home and School News.

An Acknowledgment
A Memorial Donation in memory of Mrs. Alberta Moore of Strathmore who died who died recently in Calgary has been received from Mr. and Mrs. Ken Patridge of Camrose. Mrs. Moore was actively interested in Home and School and in young people. The donation goes to the Dr. Kerby Scholarship Fund which provides Scholarships for Grade 9 students in the Province. Our sincere thanks to the donors for this remembrance.

Mrs. Mary Freeman is spending the winter months in Medicine Hat with her daughter Mrs. Jack Oldham and family.

Loy Winstler who is fond of trees has volunteered to look after the young trees planted in the Westminster Sub division, according to George Riddan at Strathmore Council Tuesday night. Loy would like to see some cultivation and irrigation done around the trees. He will have some replanting to do as the town mower has chopped some of the trees down.

Recreation Meeting

The monies which will be allocated to the people of the County of Westland will be discussed at a County meeting on the 10th of Feb.

There are five divisions for these grants and they are averaged out in the following manner. Strathmore and Carleton Place 54% - Cluny and Gleichen 12% - Standard and Rosebud 18% - Husam and Dalum 18% - Rockyford and Leland 18%.

The upkeep and administration of the parks situated at Severn Creek, Namaka, and Wyndham will be maintained by the County, which will leave the grant money to be spent on a more local type of recreation.

Strathmore and Carleton will hold a policy meeting on Monday the 10th of Feb.

Proprietary Electors

The forthcoming School Plebiscite has a condition of voting which will eliminate a lot of would be voters.

Farmers who have made their farms into Limited Companies will not be entitled to a vote in this Plebiscite neither will any other persons who do not actually own and are assessed on property within the County boundaries.

This will probably cut the numbers of voters by half. It seems ironic that a farm which has three or four shareholders does not qualify to vote in this all important matter.

JUVENILE HOCKEY

In a league game against Triwood on Jan. 29th the score was Strathmore 4 Triwood 3. Scorers for Strathmore were Muldowney 2, Payne 1 and Lewis Bates 1. Assists went one each to Dave Deeg, Desmet, Cross and Gavin Bates. The Juveniles were short five regular players for this game and were helped out by Leonard Desmet at centre ice and Mason Cockin in goal. Both midwinters played well and their help was much appreciated.

In another league game on Sunday Feb. 2nd, Strathmore lost to B.R.C.A. by a 4 - 2 score. Strathmore goals went to Winter and Coldwell and assists went one each to Pepp, Dave Deeg, Cammert and Payne.

Driver Program

Fourteen Students from Standard and four from Cluny are enrolled in the second driver Education program in the County of Westland.

The cost per student is $45.00 and is paid by the student.

EDITORIAL

This week's "Standard" carries a number of letters from the interested readers on the subject of the "Composite High School," we have refrained from making any comments on the contents of the letters.

We would urge that when you feel the need to write to your paper and have your views appear in print, please try to be objective, attack views expressed but please leave out personalities.

Constructive criticism is the best medium for having your opinions heard and the most easily expressed in written English, but to be able to write sarcasm and satire takes the pens of masters at the language.

Therefore with regret we have not published all letters received, as some were not only scurrilous, but also libellous.

If your letters did not appear, it is because, it was either unsigned or not in the true spirit of debate.

LETTER TO EDITOR

The Strathmore Standard
Strathmore, Alberta

Dear Mr. Farrah:

Eye-sight is a precious thing, and it is as precious to the people in India as it is to people in the western world. Many children and adults have never known the light of day; they were born with congenital cataracts.

Operation Eyesight is a movement started by a group of doctors and business men in Calgary dedicated to restoring eyesight to these unfortunate individuals. They willingly give their time and money. People like Dr. and Mrs. E.A. Johnson, Dr. Gullison, Dr. Osenbury and A.T. Jenkins with these people, and it is fantastic the work accomplished with a few dollars made available to them.

The Lions of District 37E (which encompasses the County of Wheatland) through their District Governor and his cabinet have adopted a project to assist Operation Eyesight in a fund raising campaign.

Dr. Osenbury hopes to establish a lens grinding laboratory at Sompetta, so that they may make their own lenses or grind the thousands of old ones collected by the Lions and Boy Scouts of our district. This will require approximately $5,000 and is hoped to be in full operation by the end of 1969. As there have been over 20,000 pairs collected and $35,000 required, this is a bargain at four for a dollar.

Considering the cost of a cataract operation here, the cost of this project seems in India is approximately $10. Just imagine what a few dollars can do.

The following quotation is part of the story as told by Dr. Ben Gullison in an article he wrote about his visit to Sompetta. "Old men and women, each with a child or grandchild beside them; nursing mothers, with their eyes bandaged, and their babies at their breast lying asleep; many young folk in the prime of life lying beside holding either heads or hands; and quite a number of little babies, under the age of two, in their mothers arms, but with a wide distinctive head bandage indicating eye surgery."

The Lions Club of your district have organized a showing of slides and a documentary by A.T. Jenkins on the work of Operation Eyesight. Some already have been held, but there will be one held in Rockyford on Feb. 12th, at eight o'clock sponsored by the Lions of Rosebud, Standard and Rockyford. The public is heartily invited to attend this showing free of charge, and no soliciting will be done, also at Carstairs on March 4th.

This is a registered charitable organization and donations are Income Tax Deductible.

This project is separate and distinct from the C.N.L.B. canvases which should in no way be affected and should also be definitely supported. Contact your local Lions Club, or send your donation to Operation Eyesight Box 123, Calgary.

Yours truly,
G. L. Cammear
Lion's Information Chairman
District 37E

YOUTH RALLY UNITED CHURCH

On Sunday, February 2nd, at 11:00 a.m., 1 explorer, Brownies, Canadian Girls in Training, Cubs, Cadets and H.C. met at Strathmore United Church for the Annual Church Parade for youth groups. A total of over 250 people attended. The ladies choir, under direction of Mrs. Art Edwards, drew many favourable comments for their rendition of "God Gives His People Strength".

Ladies were members of H.C. Dale Hoenig, William Short, Brian Laycraft and Bruce Simpson. Joyce Stephenson, Laura Jackson and Janet Short greeted the people on behalf of H.C. The offering was received by Cubs Kevin Eaves, Patrick Eves, Chris Swan, Blaine Hallert, Ricky Colwell.

Cubs and Cadets placed their colours in the Church for the service. Kenny Peterson and Garth Seitz made up the Colour Party for Cubs and Dale Hanson and Bruce Simpson carried the Cadet flags.

A team of four Theology students from St. Stephen's College, University of Alberta, conducted the service in the Church. In charge of the team and preacher for the day was Mr. John (J.A.) Mr. Gordon Howie led the singing of modern hymns on the guitar. Mr. Don Anderson delivered the story Sermon for Children in the form of an action story. Mr. Bert Giffen conducted the service of worship. Assisting at the organ for some of the singing was Mrs. Bryce Dougan.

The service took a very different form from the usual with the emphasis upon changing trends in worship and the place of modern music in services with a dialogue type of approach to prayer and other parts of worship.

Following the service in the Church about 160 people were served dinner in the Church Hall. The U.C.W. took charge of this part under the direction of President Mrs. Jerome Hanson and arrangements by Mrs. Roy Yoder and Mrs. Bert Martin and with the help of a great many other ladies.

During the dinner the Tour Team met the people for questions and discussions in small groups which could be described as a "Coffee House" atmosphere. This was a bit new to some people but enjoyed greatly by the young people.

During the evening about 20 members of H.C. and friends gathered at the manse as guests of Janet Short and enjoyed a wonderful evening of folk music, discussions on Church related vocations and many other topics with the Tour Team giving leadership.

At long last we have a bit of a relief from the past few weeks of "deep freeze". People out here were beginning to wonder whether those astronaut or cosmonaut had invaded the "Happy Hunting Grounds" of the Chinook Indians, with the resulting penalty of no chinooks. The moderation of the last few days it appears that spirits of these ancient Chinook Indians haven't put us on their list of the forgotten tribes of the land. The farmers are especially glad with even a slight improvement in temperature. Feeding animals in such severe cold gets to be a real chore.

Despite the cold a number of folks have managed to take in some events. Miss Sharlene Creelman and a friend, Miss Sheila Johnson, also Gerald Wilson took in "Teen Week end" at Jericon Bible College, three hills, Jan. 24, 25 and 26.

The Wervin Wilson family were fortunate enough to attend the concert presented by the Korcan Orphan Choir in the Jubilee Auditorium. They found this a special musical treat. Most of us, had to be content with hearing these orphans on the radio and couldn't get any money at all they have learned to offer the world even when in their trying times.

Congratulations to the Clark Edwards rink on winning first in the B-I went into the Massey-Harris Curl-Rama held in Rockyford, Jan. 24, 25, and 26. These lucky winners each won a white curling sweater making it well worth driving in that lakimo weather. The rink consisted of Skip - Clark Edwards, third - Hugo Stolt, second - Ken Georgesen and lead - Terry Burke.

We wish to extend congratulations to Miss Charlotte Stolt on being recommended for her English 33 (meaning that her instructor recommended her for a pass, on the merits of her excellent work during the semester, and she didn't have to write the final departmental exam in English 33). Charlotte attends Drumheller Academic Vocational High School and has begun her second semester there. Also, congratulations to Charlotte on being one of five winners in an essay contest at the same school shortly before Christmas. It is nice to see such an outstanding student in our community. Keep up the good work, Charlotte.

If anyone in our district is fortunate enough to see one of those U.F.O.'s, be sure to contact us and let a get Rosebud on the map as well as Big Valley or Crossfield!

Mrs. Ada Petersen has returned to the farm after being in Edmonton since before Christmas. Son Alfred and his daughters and a friend, Susan Allen, brought Mrs. Petersen back to the farm on Jan. 18th. Mrs. Petersen tells me that while in Edmonton she enjoyed participating in the sport of snow cruising. She is 81 years old but still young at heart.

Mrs. and Mrs. Rod Jamison of Calgary were guests of Rod's sister and brother-in-law, Carol and Don Ostergard in Dalum the week end of Jan. 18th.

The Hon. Gordon Taylor held his annual pre-sessional meeting at the Dalum Hall on Jan. 22nd. About 15 people attended. Among the subjects discussed at the meeting were, car insurance, taxes on farm buildings, legislation pertaining to motorized toboggans, abandoned cemeteries, and Alberta Government Telephones.

Also on the afternoon of Jan. 22nd the regular meeting of the Lutheran Church Women was held at the church. The program for the next 12 months was set up for this organization. The L.C.W. is planning to prepare baby layettes for Durcan projects. Contributions of new or good used baby clothes would be welcomed by the ladies. Donations could be left at the church or with any member of L.C.W.

Despite very cold weather a good turn out of members of the Congregation of Bethlehem Lutheran Church attended the pot luck supper and annual meeting in the church parlors on Jan. 23rd. With the month of January behind us we hope that the winter weather from now on will be a bit more moderate.

The January 8th meeting of the Beynon Country-side Club was held at the home of Stella Jackson. The new officers elected for the coming year were: President Marilyn Turner, vice president Sonja Fastrup, secretary Lila Fallesen, hospital convener, Annette Jorgensen. The post of treasurer was not filled but will be at a later day. The club members will once again make a wool rug which will be raffled. The sale prize was won by Jeanette Broast.

It was an anxious week for Grade 12 students who were writing final semester examinations. School was very busy with uncertainty under the severe winter conditions.

Mrs. and Mrs. Svend Anderson were in Edmonton on Jan. 25th and 26th visiting son Richard, and his fiancée Sheri Stokolo.

Despite the very cold weather quite a number of the Dalum people attended the two day short course in Drumheller on Jan. 28th and 29th. This series of lectures and demonstrations is planned and organized by the Drumheller Agricultural Society and the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

There will be a bridal shower in the Bethlehem Church basement on Saturday Feb. 15th at 2 p.m. honoring Mrs. Fred Mirbach (nee Barbara Andersen). Everyone is welcome to attend. For anyone interested in the community wedding gift for Barbara and Fred you may contact Erna Boe, Agnes Hansen or Phyllis Burakov.

Interest has been shown in a Dalum bonspiel. There are lists up at John's Corner Service or the Drumheller Curling rink for anyone interested in a two game bonspiel on Saturday evening Feb. 22nd.

Allan Burakov and his rink left Drumheller last Friday to compete in the T.P.C. High School Curling playdowns. Mr. and Mrs. Burakov left Strathmore to witness the events at Banff.

The Lutheran Church of Our Savior was the scene of a quiet winter wedding when Barbara Yvonne, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Svend Andersen of Dalum was united in Holy Matrimony to Frederick H. Mirbach, elder son of Mr. and Mrs. E. Mirbach of Havelton, Alberta, Pastor Ronald Nelson officiated and the organ was Mrs. Marvaylon.

The bride, given in marriage by her father was lovely in a short white silk shimmering dress, in a line style with cathedral lace at the collar and cuffs. Her flower arrangement was a bouquet of sweetheart roses.

Her attendant Miss Katherine Oresak of Drumheller was attired in a pink linen dress, with white accessories and she carried white carnations.

Best man was Richard Mirbach, brother of the groom.

Guests were seated by their seats by Richard Andersen, brother of the bride.

Later a reception for the immediate families was held at the Trade Winds Motor Hotel. Asst. Ostergard, god father of the bride proposed the toast to the bride, to which the groom responded.

Following the reception Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Heater, cousin of the bride, entertained the bridal party and guests at their home.

Mrs. and Mrs. Fredrick Mirbach will reside in Calgary, where they are both employed. Open house will be held in honor of the bridal couple on Sunday February 16th at the home of the brides parents Mr. and Mrs. A. Svend Andersen, commencing at 2:00 p.m. Everyone is welcome.

Congratulations to Barbara and Fred and best wishes for much future happiness from all your Dalum friends.

COUNTY COUNCIL

Minutes of the meeting of the County Council of the County of Westland No. 16, held at the County Office, Strathmore, on Tuesday, January 14th, 1969, commencing at 8:00 A.M., with the following present: REEVE - E. Cammatt, Councillors - J. Bohinger, E. Detmer, M. Gregory, J. MacArthur, A. Phillips, R. Thurston, Secretary-Treasurer - F. Martin.

MINUTES: Moved, "That the minutes of the December 11th, 1968, County Council meeting be adopted as read."

Carried

AGRICULTURE ADVISORY BOARD: Mr. A. Edwards, D.A., attended the County meeting and brought the Council up-to-date regarding the establishment of an Agricultural Advisory Board. Mr. Edwards indicated that he has set this Board up on a County basis to assist him and the Alberta Department of Agriculture in identifying problems facing farmers and thereby he feels that this Board will assist the Department of Extension in establishing plans and priorities.

The County Agricultural Committee has indicated its support on this project, and will work closely with District Agriculturist, Mr. Edwards, and the newly appointed Agricultural Advisory Board.

In conclusion Reeve Cammatt thanked Mr. Edwards on behalf of the Council for his attendance at the meeting and the information presented which will serve to keep the Council informed of this important matter.

CONSTRUCTION REPORT: Cammatt reported that the gravel crew, started on December 1st, and commenced operations again on January 6th. The County has two cats with dozers ready to go into operation if required for snow removal.

He's no snapper, but there's a man who knows a lot about when your wife cooks your morning bacon isn't he?

He also knows about other housekeeping chores - such as when your wife does the laundry or turns up the heat.

He knows this because it's his job to see that the gas for your burners - transported sometimes hundreds of miles from the gas fields - is ready before your appliances are turned on.

The man who knows isn't really a busby. He's a highly trained man in charge of obtaining large quantities of gas from many sources. He must direct its flow through hundreds of miles of pipelines to communities throughout Alberta.

He, and other "dispatchers" like him at key locations on Alberta's gas transmission system, must see that thousands of gas customers get all the gas they want - regardless of the amount, the time or weather conditions.

To accomplish this, he estimates the demand for gas and the time it is needed in each community. Then he issues orders to maintain just the right gas pressures to deliver the right amount of gas to each community.

To help with his job, the chief has a crew of highly trained assistants.

They keep in constant touch with gas sources in the production fields, the company's compressor stations, points of delivery, underground storage fields, weather stations, regulator stations and customers.

It's a 24-hour-a-day job. Nights, weekends and holidays, trained men are on the job to provide natural gas. And each man has the ability to act in an emergency.

So you can see why the chief dispatches is so important. He's the man who knows just how much gas you need - and when you need it. You can count on natural gas for round-the-clock, round-the-year service.

Published by Canadian Western Natural Gas Company Limited, Serving All Alberta Communities with Natural Gas

CROWFOOT

A.C.W. NEWS

By D.W. and H.J.

Dear Mr. Farhan:

For your CANDID COMMENTS Column:

The plan for the new Composite High School as proposed by the School Committee includes:

1. Location
2. Building system
3. Building plan - capital cost financed by the Foundation Program Fund
4. Proposed subjects offered
5. Any other details relating to the over-all plan.

If we defeat this proposal on any one point, the whole plan is scrapped. We then start over with a new plan - re-submit it to Edmonton and it takes its turn at the bottom of the list. Many more schools will be built elsewhere before they can consider our second plan. We still could have another community of the county opposing the second plan - then where do we go? In the meantime our present school buildings are over crowded, which creates a fire hazard and other disadvantages. We build temporary or portable classrooms at our own local tax expense (about one mill per one portable classroom). As time goes by we will have a similar school located at Strathmore built one piece at a time at our own increased taxes.

The system in Calgary is very similar to the one proposed by our School Committee. High Schools are centralized in the city now. Many students ride the city transit at their own expenses up to one and three-quarter hours morning and night.

When a family has children ready for high school they look for the best school that is within reach. The County is hauling students by station wagon from north of Hussar into Strathmore so they can get the subjects that they require. We have the students which the mill rate must give schooling, so operational expenses are still the same.

Therefore, from the point of view of the tax mill rate in the County of Westland, I think the plan for the Composite High School as submitted by the School Committee is the best we will get. A person whose income is affected by increased taxes.

Editor, Strathmore Standard
Strathmore, Alberta.

Dear Mr. Farhan:

Some views were expressed in your paper last week that cannot go unmentioned. Our county council did a fine job in presenting their plan for a new county high school. Democratic principles were followed by them, and will continue to be followed by them and the taxpayers if a plebiscite is called for. Your writers views however, imply that anyone who not believe as he does is flatly wrong. His reasons states that because this is the only course the council has presently provided, he must vote for it or fail. Our county has many schools operating and will continue to do so even if the plebiscite fails.

Further, your writer of last week writes with the assumption that we only object to centralization in location. Even if this were so, many feel the objection is valid, especially those in the east who will not be served by the new school because of its location. True, this is a thinly populated area, but the taxpayers there are paying their share, and are paying proportionally higher taxes than the remainder of the county. Education is more than a large high school. Surely your correspondents will agree with the new education recommendations stressing spiritual and emotional values. This atmosphere is probably better provided in small schools, so let us not be guilty of galling education only to the highest economic level possible as your writer did.

Down also with your writers' coffee shop gossip to "I can't have it, you can't". We don't need such petty gossip in our county. We also live in the county, and have never heard such statements.

May we also refer to the idea that Strathmore is already the county seat. It is mighty poor reason for the writer's what some believe to be two office and shop by making a third mistake. This seems a good point. Correspondent, that you are guilty of the small town politics you are accusing others of.

Now Mr. Farhan, we have used over 350 words so we will sum it up by stating: WE WILL VOTE, NOT BECAUSE WE HAVE TO, BUT BECAUSE WE WANT TO, AND NOT NECESSARILY THE WAY YOUR CORRESPONDENTS WANT TO BUT AS WE SEE IT, AND WITHOUT HIS JUDGEMENT. THIS IS DEMOCRACY, THE VOTE IS SECRET, AND DON'T YOU, MR. CORRESPONDENT, GET IT.

Parents of '73 graduates.

A short meeting of the A.C.W. was held prior to the Annual meeting on February 5th with eleven members present. The President brought discussion forward on the St. Patrick's tea to be held on March 15th and decided to have a Bake Sale and Bazaar table and to serve tea.

Arrangements were made for several delegates to attend the Diocese and Annual meeting on March 11th and 12th. The meeting was closed with the Grace by Miss Neville. The members then moved to join the Annual Meeting in the Church Hall.

Shower VICKI STOTT For

A small but lovely shower was held for a bride - elect, Vicki Stott in the dining room of the Community Hall in Standard. Seated at the head table with Vicki were her mother and her sister Bonnie and several close friends. The decorations for the affair were a group of Scottish and English flowers. Vicki dressed in bright plaid kilt. The program was M.C.'d by Ivis Fraser and consisted of an appropriate reading kindly done by Maryanne Black, two lovely songs by Miss Elder, who was her own accompanist. Rosella Nerland, a family friend, gave a lovely tribute to the bride, and last but not least was a song sung by three small girls, Judy Elder, Anne Marie Bach and Linda Trach under the direction and accompaniment by Betty Charsen. Marion Nelson with a few well chosen words presented the gift to the bride on behalf of the committee. After a tasty lunch Vicki graciously thanked all those present and invited them to attend their wedding dance in the Meadowbrook Hall on Saturday evening.

STABILITY OF MARKETS

Disenchantment with the performance of traditional marketing systems has led Canadian farm producers to develop new ones. Stability of the industry to adjust production to market needs, and stability of producers in prevent importation of competing products has become of many.

The need for some form of market control and some form of orderly production is being expressed through formation of marketing boards. Boards and commissions have been organized for such commodities as eggs, turkeys, live fruit and hops in various parts of Canada. In order to achieve stability in the market place, producers are prepared to accept certain controls and restrictions.
Success of any marketing board or commission depends on its ability to influence the supply of the product being marketed. Most board or commission actions are being set up provisionally with expressed intention of testing as national responsibility.

Without detracting one bit from the genuine need for market stability for Canadian agricultural products (that need has been established), and without suggesting that provincially based boards or commissions cannot improve the producers' position, we see some dangers. The dangers begin when a control body achieves Canadian-wide responsibility. This position will already be reached in effect—based on the history of production by a producer, plus several other combinations.
Thus a fairly traditional pattern of quotas by regions is established, and producers in those regions or areas begin to feel that the percentage of production allotted is rightfully theirs, and should not be interfered with.

Now in the beginning the production quotas are established according to history, which usually reflects comparative advantage for areas in high production. But comparative advantage moves, either through changes in supply of raw material, freight rates, new processes or markets.

by a social hour, on Friday, Feb. 7th.

Feb. 7th and 8th, in the Trade Winds Motor Hotel, Calgary. Mr. Fred Biblow, along with non fellow National agents, took in this workshop and reports a very good time. Gordon and Howard Biblow accompanied their father to the city and, in their estimation, nothing but Stampede Wrestling at the Victoria Pavilion could be the highlight of that trip.

Then there was the Rosebud farmer who was missing none of his cattle during the last ever full moon and date but all to no avail. Upon going to the stable on another errand he discovered all the horses sheltered behind the stable.
If you're missing any animal friends be sure to check the barn first!

HOW TO ### TREAT BURNS

Burns hurt — and sometimes they're serious.

What do you do about a burn?

Most people slap on some greasy substance — butter or vaseline.

Wrong, says St. John Ambulance.

Where the skin has not been broken, immersion in cold water or the application of a cold wet cloth will relieve the pain.

Where the skin has been broken, infection is a hazard. Don't apply any greasy substance. These remedies have only one value in reducing pain and greatly complicate later treatment.

For a serious burn remove or cut away clothing over the burned area but don't try to pull off clothing which is stuck. Cover the burned area with a clean dressing and bandage securely.

If medical aid is near, speed is more important than perfect band-aging.

In the case of burns by corrosive chemicals, flush the part thoroughly with water and apply normal treatment for burns.

SYMPATHETIC HEARING

EDMONTON (Special) — A special delegation from central Alberta farmers came away from a meeting with members of the Alberta cabinet one day last week with the feeling that one of the best exceptions away from government leaders. "We were mighty pleased with the response I got. I don't think we could have asked for a better hearing," said Gerry Good, president of the Alberta Weather Modification Co-op.

The group, associated with hail suppression and increased rainfall programs in central Alberta, placed before the government results of 15 years of efforts in weather modifying and appeal for "tangible recognition" and a flow of government funds in the largest private enterprise project of its kind anywhere in the world.

The delegation met the cabinet Feb. 5th and pointed out 1,600 farmers spent $1,400,000 since 1950 and now have something to show for it in reduced incidence of crop-destroying hail in the project area. The project covers more than 2,000,000 acres in parts of the counties of Wetland and Mountain View and the municipal districts of Rocky View and Kneebill and the city of Calgary.

The area takes in an area 13 miles west of Delburne, north to the town line of Three Hills, east to the Red Deer River near Drumheller, and south to the Bow River on the Blackfoot reserve.

"It is because of the results we have achieved that we believe the government of this province should provide some kind of recognition to what we are doing. We request that Alberta scientists are quick to quote what is happening in hail suppression in places like Russia — without giving an evaluation of what is taking place in this province," said Mr. Good. The AWMC head was accompanied by Bob Fisher of Drabury, Tom Cumming of Crossfield, Don Boone of Acme and Ralph Thiede of Strathmore — all directors of the Co-op.

Chairman of the cabinet group, meeting the farmers was Hon. A. R. Patric, minister of industries and tourism and chairman of the advisory committee to the Research Council of Alberta.

The weather modification group pointed out that while it had received no government funds, the government has given the Research Council and the Alberta Hall studies group $750,000 in the project area.

Mr. Good said his group also wants permission to use the Alberta Hall studies group weather radar at Fenhold which the taxpayers paid for. Following the meeting with cabinet, Mr. Good said the annual annual Co-op meeting will be held in Calgary, Feb. 22nd at 1:00 p.m. at the York Hotel.

the same time for "examination of hail storms, hail stones and other meteorological data." While it lauded the work of the scientists engaged in the project, the Co-op suggested the government should also participate financially in applied research and development such as the Co-op is doing.

The Co-op has carried out a cloud seeding program to dissipate the force of vicious hail storms which came out of the mountains and are regarded to be the second worst in the entire world.

Mr. Good suggested that Alberta could adopt some of the philosophy of the State of Colorado, whose co-ordinator of natural resources said it is not our desire to sit back for years and watch continual research without applying present sound knowledge. It is our duty to urge and request that operational programs be immediately established. There is now on record more than 20 years of high-level scientific support and acknowledgement that operational programs are crucially increased natural precipitation within sound and important economic ranges.

Mr. Good told the cabinet there are many "negative" factors which have affected the work of hail suppression in Alberta. "There has been a minimum of co-operation and recognition from the government and its research agency, there has been little money for proper education and public relations some hail has fallen in our project and this has made it difficult for some to understand why hail suppression should be attempted by all."

The president termed the Co-op's report a "milestone in the advancement of the science of cloud seeding to reduce hail damage. He said that hail has been reduced in the project and offered several figures to back up his point.

The Co-op suggested the Alberta government would be justified in making a grant from its tax-supported Alberta agricultural research trust fund to apply its methods over a wider area than the Co-op has been able to do.

Said the Co-op's brief: We have existed without such government support, have fought adverse criticism, have struggled for financial support and know beyond a shadow of a doubt hail damage has been sharply reduced.

The Co-op has also asked the government to appoint a Co-op member to the Alberta Hall Insurance Board to "represent the special interest engaged in commercial weather modification and to give special consideration to having the board reduce the premium rates in the project area."

Mr. Good said his group also wants permission to use the Alberta Hall studies group weather radar at Fenhold which the taxpayers paid for. Following the meeting with cabinet, Mr. Good said the annual annual Co-op meeting will be held in Calgary, Feb. 22nd at 1:00 p.m. at the York Hotel.

HOMEMAKERS COLUMN

By Catherine Young Baker

PERMANENT PRESS PRESERVATION today makes garments and household linens are made of permanent press fabrics. Linens which may require special care and stain care. Fire — treat regular stainer with liquid detergent. Grease or oil stain — use permanent press. Should be treated with liquid detergent and then with solvent. The detergent prevents solvent rings. Wash in warm water. Rinse in cold water. Dry on low heat. Remove the garment from dryer. Hang on a clothesline. Squeeze garment immediately. Pressing — defeat the purpose of permanent press. Make it work for you. Press and make it work for you.

COLD WATER DETERGENTS: Many people have used the cold water detergent and claim their clothes are just as clean as those washed in hot water.

But while cold water detergents may cut fading and shrinking in the family wash, they won't kill bacteria.

Tests with one family wash showed 20,000 bacteria per square inch survived in cold water washes compared to 600 in a hot water wash. The addition of chlorine bleach in the wash cycle reduced bacterial count to 40 or less per square inch regardless of water temperatures. However, chlorine bleach is not suitable for use with every type of wash load.

I think the presence of bacteria in clean clothes is a significant item to consider when selecting cold or hot water detergents.

BIRDRAID THREATS

Ottawa-based scientists seeking ways to clear airport areas of birds which can cause plane crashes have stumbled on a side-effect of radar on living tissue which one researcher calls "very alarming". Radar is a form of electromagnetic radiation, like microwave signals or television transmissions.

The February issue of Maclean's Magazine reports that scientists found they could get rid of troublesome birds by bombarding them with a burst of "slightly thermal" radar. In laboratory tests, it caused a bird to keel over with one wing paralyzed.

The radar beam used interacts with the nervous system and induces an electric current in the tissue which disorients the bird. A human would feel heat, though no one knows quite what happens when an intense radar beam falls on living tissue.

But in laboratory tests this "slightly thermal" radar beam knocked out insects and disrupted their reproductive cycle so that they produced "some quite monstrous things — offspring with very little relationship to the adult."

On the face of it, there is little cause for alarm. The "slightly thermal" bird-ray is four times the U.S. — established "safety" maximum, and by using the U.S. — maximum as a yardstick most people are highly unlikely to be subjected to a potentially harmful radar beam.

But then there's the problem of the Russians. They recently set their own safe maximum for exposure to radar waves. Their scientists, without giving reasons, decided that the U.S. scientists were wrong. They said that the safe level was exactly one-tenth of the U.S. level.

Since today's communications explosion involves constant and proliferating electronic signals, a National Research Council scientist in Ottawa was prompted to tell Maclean's: "I wouldn't want people to get into a panic over this, but we ourselves are very alarmed."

GLEICHEN LIONS

The regular supper meeting of the gleichen Lions' Club was held in the gleichen School on the evening of January 13th. Guests in attendance were Deputy District Governor Bill Fields of Carleton and Bill Arbuthnot of the Calgary South West Club and District Governor Leigh Williams.

The matter of having a Department of Education sponsored course in some business field was left to the Club Directors for further consideration.

Having noticed some of the attractive plans that other clubs have designed to represent their areas, the gleichen Club has decided to sponsor a competition to try to come up with a suitable design to represent our club.

Any one wishing to submit such a design should submit it to the Publicity and Bulletin Committee. Tickets for the Feb. 14th - 15th draw for the Color T.V. are starting to move well now that the curfew season is in full swing but there are still plenty left so don't miss your chance. The draw will be held on February 24th.

We would like to extend our thanks to the gleichen Gymkhana Club for the use of their facility at the Arena. It sure makes it easier to tell what is going on.

We would like to extend our regrets to the gleichen Lions' Club regarding their shift at the dangerous game of broomball. We're willing to play you anytime, chaps, if you want to learn the finer points of this exciting sports activity. Include a Nixed Bonspiel to be held Saturday, Feb. 8th.

Work is progressing well at the Arena with most of the inside work done although there is still a need for outside seating to be built. At the time of the meeting, only six of the original 1,000 copies of the gleichen Call were left and thus venture can be counted a very successful and worthwhile one.

The meeting concluded with an address from the District Governor on the topic, "What Does Lions International Do For Me?" The various ways in which dues were spent were outlined. On January 27th, a luncheon meeting was held with Mr. Archie Wilson and Mr. Art Jenkins as guests. Mr. Jenkins made a slide and tape presentation of Operation Lighthouse in India.

On the entertainment scene, plans were heard for a Ladies' Night on March 23rd to consist of a raffle, entertainment and dancing at Meadowbrook Hall. Plans were also heard for an Ice Carnival and Queen Contest to be held later on.

Facts and figures regarding Rural Fire Protection were heard at a recent public meeting and the club continues to investigate the possibilities.

It was reported that the Provincial Museum and Archives are interested in the gleichen Call for resale and the History Book Committee and the United Church Women's Committee will investigate further.

CANADIAN WESTERN NATIONAL GAS COMPANY LTD.

Town of Strathmore, Strathmore, Alberta.

Attention: Mr. J. A. Thomas
Secretary - Treasurer

Dear Sir:

We acknowledge your letter of January 27th, 1969 with regard to the B.T.U. content of the natural gas supplied to Strathmore. I wish to assure you that we keep a constant check on our supplier of natural gas and the B.T.U. content has not changed during the past year. The last analysis was made approximately ten days ago and the B.T.U. content was 946 at 14.4 and 60 degrees Dry which is within 2 B.T.U.'s of previous samples taken during the past year.

I do not need to advise you that we have been having abnormal weather conditions during the last six weeks, and the constant complaint of everyone is the difficulty in keeping warm. With a prolonged cold spell such as we are experiencing, walls of all building structures have become saturated with cold, the cold emanating from glass and any minor cracks around doors and windows in of course much more noticeable in this type of weather. The concern of the residents of Strathmore is not common to your area only. Similar questions have been raised both in the city and other towns which we serve. I have also heard it mentioned that those persons burning fuel oil, propane, etc. are wondering if their fuel is producing as much heat as it usually.

In conclusion I assure you there has been no change in the B.T.U. Content of the natural gas being supplied to Strathmore.

Yours very truly,

K. W. Mitchell,
Customer Service & Utilization.

By Henry F. Heald

OTTAWA - The new standing orders - Parliament's rules of procedure - adopted by the Commons just before recessing for the Christmas holidays, put a lot more power in the hands of the Commons. Now the back bench M.P.s, for whom the Commons meetings are the only forum for meaningful debate, are having to fight to keep an efficiency-bent government from eroding their legislative powers. Under the old system, a bill was introduced in the Commons, fought over loud and long on second reading to get the principle of the bill accepted and then studied clause by clause in committee-of-the-whole in the Commons chamber. The only people outside of the 244 M.P.s who came into the Commons in the process were a couple of departmental officials who whispered information to their minister's ear while he sat in the clause-by-clause session. By that time third reading was formally a foregone conclusion.

Now second reading is a sort of information debate (although the opposition are free to raise a storm over it if they wish) and the meat of the discussion takes place in a small committee room where not more than 30 M.P.s can dig into the matter under fairly loose rules of procedure. Then, if the opposition are not satisfied with the results, they can dig their heels in when the bill comes back into the Commons for third reading.

The question which has arisen under the new wide-open rules under which a committee operates when it is investigating some contentious issue such as the auditor-general's report or the price of drugs, also apply when the committee is legislating. In studying a government bill, four farm bills were the first items on the order paper when the House resumed after Christmas, so the standing committee on agriculture was the first to bite into legislation under the new rules.

The first indication that the government had its eye on the clock was a suggestion by the chairman, Bruce Beir (L.-Peel-Dufferin-Simcoe) that they adopt a motion giving the committee permission to proceed without a quorum provided no votes were taken. A quorum for the 30-member committee is 15.

"Not so fast," cut in Stanley Korchiak, a Tory farmer from the Saskatchewan constituency of Nechemie. With the committee system assumed that quorums would not be hard to raise. His view had a number of supporters and the idea was quickly dropped.

Round two was an attempt by Agriculture Minister H.A. Olson to dissuade the committee from calling witnesses. The government lost that one too. The battle focussed on a request from the Canadian Agricultural Chemicals Association to appear before the committee to raise some objections to a proposed act to regulate the control of pesticides.

Mr. Olson agreed that the committee had the authority to call witnesses, but made it clear that he thought the invitation would be setting a dangerous and time-consuming precedent. He reminded the committee they were legislating not investigating, that time was important in the Commons. The committee was on hand to answer questions and that the study was an extension of the former Commons procedure of committee-of-the-whole.

All Gleaners (NDP-Saskatoon-Biggar) brought this up to a head by moving a formal resolution that the association be invited to appear and state their case. It was the immediate support of the Conservatives and the Creditists.

The Liberals on the committee were on the griddle. Mr. Olson was obviously passing along the word from the cabinet, "Keep the bills moving. Don't rock the boat." Government House Leader Donald S. MacDonald, official drover of government legislation, ducked in and out of the meeting a few times. Yet the majority of the Liberal M.P.s seemed to feel that Mr. Olson's idea was well taken. When the vote was taken they all put up their hands to carry it unanimously.

Check up one victory for democracy.

Did you know that the Indian Religion teaches that there is a hole in the P.R. turn west of Sand Hills or sometimes known as the Happy Hunting Grounds. The Indian Religion teaches that you pay for your sins with this earth.

Think in terms of ice-safety! Ice can be hazardous, however, there is a simple way to tell if it is safe; it should be at least four inches thick. To determine thickness, push a hole in the ice with an ice saw to shore and measure. Bear in mind the thickness may change as you move further out. Check ice carefully in early winter and springtime.

The importance of ice thickness as a safety factor cannot be exaggerated. Remember, ice thickness of up to two inches is definitely dangerous and ice of one inch or less thickness is very risky. For absolute safety always ensure the ice is at least four inches thick.

THE ALBERTA SERVICE CORPS

The Alberta Service Corps, a program of the Alberta Department of Youth, will accept applications from young people willing to work on community service projects this summer or for a full year. Summer volunteers are active in the program from May through to the end of August. More than 50 young people will be selected to work in teams of from two to ten members. For a $10.00 a day, plus expenses, and an educational bursary at the end of the summer's assignment, Corps members will work in communities and institutions assisting in the development of head-start programs, recreation programs and general youth activities.

A one week training session is given to all recruits to enable them to work more effectively with people and adjust to whatever local conditions they find. This training session will take place the first week in May.

More than 60 young people have already been involved over the past two years in many different types of activities. The program is designed to provide an opportunity for young people to work for young people, aged eighteen years or over, for the benefit of others and at the same time give an opportunity for concerned young people to be confronted with the realistic problems of people and communities.

During the past two years, Corps workers have worked on projects at Fort Chipewyan, Slave Lake, Kikino, Fort McKay, Alberta Creek, Jossard, Wabasca, Elizabeth Colony, Fluvant Lake, Edmonton, Calgary, the Alberta Hospital Edmonton, the Alberta Hospital Ponoka, and the Alberta Training Institute for Girls. Anyone over the age of eighteen with a strong desire to serve people and society may apply to join the Alberta Service Corps, by writing immediately to Edward Monma, Acting Supervisor, Alberta Service Corps, 26th Floor, C.W. Tower, Edmonton T5C 1P6.

LACK OF MONEY, NOT APATHY A BLAMED FOR HOLDUP IN GRAIN DRYING

Accusations by government officials that farmers are apathetic about drying their grain and damp grain have been termed "unacceptable" by the President of the Farmer's Union of Alberta. Farmers simply haven't got the cash they need to do the job, says Paul Babey.

Estimates of cost have ranged as high as twenty-cents per bushel for drying grain that has an extremely high moisture content.

Mr. Babey agrees that the grain must be dried now to avoid serious losses to both individuals and the economy as a whole. He says: "There is a very real danger of severe losses by spoilage of the out-of-condition grain as soon as warmer weather arrives."

"We are going to need substantial amounts of grain 4 and 5 when in position for export to our Asian customers during the spring and summer months; and, obviously, we can only accomplish this by intensive cashing out on making use of all drying facilities."

The FUA president says cash must be made available to farmers to cover the cost of drying grain.

A joint federal-provincial program to provide grants would make it possible to get on with storage of grain he says.

Mr. Babey also suggests payment for on-farm drying. A bill to provide for cash advances for grain drying to a maximum of $600, now before the House of Commons, would not solve the problem.

Discovery of a barley high in lysine in combination with high protein content is jointly announced by the Swedish Seed Association, Svalof, Sweden, and the U.S. Department of Agriculture. They report that the amount of the amino acid lysine in the grain, as well as the total protein, is a variety now called Hipsley are 20 to 30 percent higher than that of commonly grown varieties.

Lysine is one of the amino acids that make up the proteins of all plants and animals, and it is the amino acid usually in shortest supply in cereal grains. The enhanced lysine content now possible is especially important for meeting the needs of people in many parts of the world who diet lack animal protein, as well as for feeding non-ruminant livestock, such as swine and poultry.

In addition, methionine, another limiting amino acid, is higher. The new variety is not adapted for growing in the United States, but it is believed that most of the desirable characteristics of this barley can be transferred into good adapted local varieties.

problem even if it were in effect now, he states. He predicted that the advances would not be available in time to help solve the problem in any case.

Mr. Babey says that when cash is made available to them, farmers should organize drying programs at the local and county levels. He suggests such programs should focus on elevator points where grain could be used most efficiently. He says he has already contacted the Alberta Wheat Pool and United Grain Growers asking them to assist farmers in establishing drying programs.

DR. MILLER HEADS VETERINARIANS
Dr. Rick Miller of Vegreville, new President of the Alberta Veterinary Medical Association, said he had been during the weekend that his Association will proceed with plans for a prepaid veterinary services scheme.
Dr. Miller, who took over the top post from Dr. Hugh Vance of Edmonton at their annual meeting in Red Deer, said they hoped a pilot project would be established in the Peace River country in the near future and that this would lead to other areas in Alberta accepting the principle of Veterinary Services Incorporated.
It is visualized by the Association that V.S.I. would operate in a similar manner to M.S.I. in human medicine. This would allow the veterinarian to be of greater economic benefit to livestockmen in preventing outbreaks of disease instead of attempting to contain and cure a disease once it was established in a herd.
The A.V.M.A. is expanding its continuing education program to meet the requirements of present and future years. The Association feels that continuing education is an integral part of a veterinarian's responsibility because half of our present knowledge becomes obsolete every five years.
The veterinarians group is co-operating with the Western College of Veterinary Medicine in Saskatoon, the University of Calgary and the University of Alberta in presenting programs for individuals and groups. These involve individual study programs in six to ten to three day short courses for groups of veterinarians.

EDITORIAL

The news of the tragic accident on No. 1 Highway this week involving a freight train and claiming the lives of four young women should not be allowed to go unchallenged.

The accident was caused by poor visibility due to dense fog, but how it happened is one thing, why it happened is another.

The very fact that freight trains cross highways should make it mandatory for them to have adequate illumination the full length of the freight car.

Reflectors of some type should be adequate if placed upon the sides of the railway cars, but these days of such practices as Joseph Little would think something could be done.

The use of red lights as a warning system one that should be reviewed, they are seen on the rear end of every car and truck, on the bellies of landing aircraft, every hot-end stand and all filling stations, so much so, that the significance of the red light no longer has the impact it should, on the traveller.

The use of another color could be considered perhaps a blue light should be used for hazardous which are at the discretion of the traveller. At least Railway Companies that spend millions of dollars on revamping their public image, could do a service by lighting up their freight cars and saving lives too.

SPEECH FROM THE THRONE

While the speech from the throne dealt with agriculture more than it has in past years, it was explicit in wishing to be done to solve some of the most immediate problems facing the industry says Paul Babey, President of the Farmers' Union of Alberta.

Many farmers find themselves on the brink of financial disaster, and are waiting anxiously to hear of specific legislation or programs designed to help them work their way out of this situation, according to the FUA head.

"We hope the promise of action on farm management activities means that farmers will be assisted in their efforts to become more effective in the market place through the establishment of producer bargaining power," he says.

An extension program aimed at encouraging farmers in dry lands to hold on to their land of the mark. Farmers want to dry their grain, but they can't afford to. The only answer in this case is capital grants to help meet the cost," he adds.

Mr. Babey says the FUA is pleased with the change of the name of Department of Welfare to the Department of Social Development, and hopes it indicates a move toward implementation of modern concepts so that people are able to get out of a welfare program rather than be trapped by it.

After the government's decision to stay out of Medicare in 1969 he says:

"We are disappointed that the government has decided to stay out of Medicare. The people of Alberta will be paying for it in any case, and it doesn't make sense for Albertans to be paying for Medicare for some other part of Canada, and not enjoying it themselves."

Mr. Babey says his organization welcomes the announcement of pollution control legislation. He says he hopes it will be strong enough to safeguard both the health and property rights of Albertans.

"A major disappointment however is the omission of taxation as a subject of the speech from the throne," he says.

"Along with many other groups, we have been asking the government to set up a Royal Commission to study the tax structure in Alberta and make recommendations for change. We are most disappointed that the government has not done this," he states.

"We were also anticipating relief from what we feel is an unjust tax on farm fuel. We have pointed out repeatedly that we are the only group which cannot pass on to the consumer the added cost to our operations," says Mr. Babey.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Huntley received word of their daughter Glenda, that she is on her way to Australia where she plans to do some skiing. She will also be touring in the surrounding area.

TOWN OF STRATHMORE COUNCIL MEETING

TOWN OF STRATHMORE Council Meeting held February 4, 1969 was attended by the following present: Mayor Martin in the Chair, and Councillors: Hallett, Stock, McKee, VanWesley, Riddon, Kusie, Thomas, Secretary and Paul Finnelly, Town Foreman.

The minutes of the previous meeting held January 10, 1969 were read and approved. Carried.
2 - Way Radios: All business arising from these minutes was discussed, which included discussion of the efficiency of the newly installed 2-Way Radios. The receiver set in the office is very noisy, with too much interference. It was decided to ask Dick Stollery if the reception of this unit could be improved.

Keys: It was decided to obtain a third set of keys for the Police Car, which will be retained in the Town Office at all times.
FINANCIAL REPORT: The Financial Report was read and adopted into the minutes. Carried.
Accounts Payable: The accounts were approved for payment. Carried.

Two accounts in the amounts of $626.18 from Cam Guard Equipment, and from the Gas Company in the amount of $32.71 were not approved at this time, the first account being for the cost of the 2-way radio, which is not working too efficiently, the latter being for a fuel bill for a vehicle registered who is not registered with the town.

Dog Pound: Discussion was given to the methods of better construction of pens in which to hold impounded dogs. The existing pens, made of wood have proven inadequate to retain these dogs. Committee Reports: Councillor Stock reported for Public Works, stating snow removal and garbage were the only major jobs at present. Councillor Stock reported for the Fire and Police Departments. He reported one Resident was most unhappy about his dog being impounded, which report resulted in lengthy discussion on the subject of dogs running at large.

Councillor Hallett reported for the Water and Sewer Systems, both of which are giving no trouble. He stated the Town water supply had been shut off for a few minutes on Monday, February 3, 1969 to effect repairs on a water line on private property. He also reported the fuel supply to the old Town Office had been shut off because of frozen water pipes and a broken water closet. The instructions to the Gas Company for shutting off the gas had been given by an official of the Gas Company, who had been testing the building. He informed council that he had requested Associated Engineering to make a new consolidated plan of Strathmore, showing the locations of all water mains, valves, manholes, depths, building grades and other necessary information. He further stated that in the near future, Strathmore would be in need of an additional water supply, and council should investigate all possible sources for same this year, and get estimates of the cost. Additional sewer facilities will also be required.

Hallett moved that Associated Engineering be asked to compile and submit to council, an estimated cost of a preliminary survey regarding future additional water supply, storage and distribution. Carried.

Fireman's Room: Councillor Hallett questioned the advisability of renting the Fireman's Room in the Town Hall to Don Maier, Chartered Accountant, as it may perhaps be in competition with private enterprise. Carried.

Calgary Regional Planning Comm.: A letter from Calgary Regional Planning Commission, asking council's opinion on a change of name of the commission was received. The change being from the present name to the Bow River Regional Planning Commission. It was moved that the present name, Calgary Regional Planning Commission be maintained. Carried.
Associated Engineering to make a contour survey of the Westmount Subdivision, as requested by Calgary Regional Planning Commission. ### Lesner Better Quality Pork Expected

There has been a lot of discussion about the new grading system for Pork. This new grading system which came into effect on December 30, 1968 will have long range benefits for consumers. Gradually within the next few years you'll be able to buy leaner, better quality pork. The new system initiated by the pork industry is based on a predicted lean content of the hog carcass. The leaner the hog, the better the grade, and the better the price. The price incentive will be hoped encourage producers to raise leaner animals. However, a program of selection and breeding takes time.

The change was deemed necessary in order to improve the quality of Canadian pork and maintain its position in the consumers shopping cart. The consumption of pork has increased from only 33.7 to 53.7 pounds per person in the past 7 years while beef has increased in the same period of time from 70.0 pounds per person a year to 84.0 pounds in 1967. One of the reasons pork has increased so slightly is because of its fat, which consumers refuse to purchase. But the industry is now trying to correct this fault.

Chances are you will never notice a change in pork because it will happen so gradually. The only way you could see the improvement is to compare a roast you buy today with one you might buy three years from now.

OTTAWA - Based on early trends the Trudeau era of Canadian government will probably be known as the Age of Debate.

The only excuse one needs these days for voicing the most irrational, irrelevant or immoral of views is that he is taking part in a debate. Prime Minister Trudeau has apparently decided that Canada is one big political science seminar where everyone can speak off to his heart's content.

Whether Mr. Trudeau intended it that way when he took office is an open question. He put his new team to work with a hard-nosed statement about cabinet secrecy and it looked for a spell as though we were in for a period of businesslike administration. But Eric Kierans, about as businesslike a cabinet minister as one could find anywhere, upset the applicant.

Mr. Trudeau needed Mr. Kierans in his cabinet to put the post office on a paying basis and to convert it into a comprehensive communications department including jurisdiction over satellites. Mr. Kierans' views on foreign and defence matters were well known and he was likely to be intimidated by a threat of cabinet secrecy. When he started making public speeches about his personal views Mr. Trudeau either had to bounce him from the cabinet or find an excuse. So he did.

Mr. Kierans was just stimulating debate. Defence Minister L. Casadeu apparently decided if Mr. Kierans could "stimulate debate" by suggesting Canada put NATO and NORAD, then he could also provide some stimulation by defending Canada's NATO and NORAD roles.

On that basis External Affairs Minister Michel Sharp decided to drop the hint that diplomatic relations with Taiwan may be dropped as a means of opening doors for establishing relations with Red China, even though his predecessor in the post, the prime minister and our U.N. ambassador all claimed Canada stood firm for a two-China policy.

Seminars are great sport for independently-wealthy university professors, but they don't put meat and potatoes on the table for the masses. So when the federal government said lets get together and talk about language rights, the provinces said lets get together and talk about money.

All the premiers were not as blunt about it as the Prairie provinces. B.C.'s Premier Bennett said it was the impulsive idea of a constitutional review which level of government has jurisdiction over what. The obvious next step is who pays for it. John S. Smith was more gentlemanly about it. He noted that Canada was founded partially on sentiment and could only as long as the sentiment remained. But he explained that some of the items placed under provincial jurisdiction by the BNA Act were small pieces in 1867 but are expensive items in 1968.

Language rights are important for Quebec's Premier Parrrand because he has to fight to keep Quebec clearly in the forefront as the homeland of French-Canadian culture, in any case Quebec was the place clarified its opposition to federal control of the purse strings.

Some of the lack of provincial interest in the federal-provincial debating society may stem from the growing realization that decisions are made without any apparent reference to the provinces. While a foreign policy review is in full swing Prime Minister Trudeau flies to Rome to pave the way for establishing a mission in the Vatican. And the external affairs department was unable to squelch rumors that preliminary contacts with the Peking regime are already taking place. Government departments are already implementing Mr.

Trudeau's official language bill while the legislation is still before Parliament and the tax collectors are kicking us for the 2 per cent social development tax. Finance Minister Benson has even introduced the Bill in the Commons.

Regarding financial matters there is a justifiable provincial concern as they see the federal stranglehold tightening on the national economy. There can be much satisfaction in doing nothing on a provincial government whose only role is to beg Ottawa for the money to pay for federally-imposed programs.

GLEICHEN and DISTRICT CENTENNIAL ARENA FINANCIAL REPORT

The completion of the fine arena at Gleichen is a truly remarkable feat accomplished through tremendous community spirit, splendid cooperation and lots of good old hard work. Total involvement of everyone and every organization in the area - through fund raising projects, drives, donations, work bees, promotion, and determination - enables us all to proudly say "our arena".

After 50 years of hockey, the well known Gleichen Glaxos (from two day mite teams through all levels to intermediate) now have first class facilities - one of the finest in the South for a town of its size.

Though the Arena is being used to capacity for hockey, figure skating and community skating (some of the stars of the great Glaxos teams of the 20's and 30's have even been out) it is the feeling of the Arena Board that the Official opening will be more meaningful and significant when the "disorder of activity" has been made way for the "orderliness of efficiency". The ceremony is therefore being planned for next season when the seating has been more developed and there will be more time for arranging for celebrities.

Following is a financial statement of the Arena Society to Dec. 31st, 1968. (This statement does not include expenditures by the Lions Club for the dressing room area.)

Today You Drive A Total Energy Plant - Tomorrow You May Live in One!

Natural gas has taken on a new job today. It's being used as the total source of energy for commercial buildings, industrial plants, apartment houses, schools and shopping centers, hotels and motels in cities across North America.

How?
By providing energy to power a simple, self-contained system that supplies heating, cooling, steam, hot water and even electricity.

The system is like your car. A single source of power - provides energy to power a variety of appliances to operate "appliances" like radio and cigarette lighter, waste heat provides warmth in winter, and of course, there is energy to drive the wheels. All of this energy comes from a re-circulating source.

The same is true of natural gas "total energy" packages.

At the heart of the system is an engine, like the one in your car, or a gas turbine similar to the aircraft jet engine. In either case, natural gas is the source of power.

A generator, connected to the drive shaft of the engine, produces electricity.

This has been known for years as on-site power generation.

The total energy concept goes a step further. Like your car, it puts to work normally wasted heat energy from the engine to pre-heat the heat for the building. And, when summer comes this same waste heat cools the building in an absorption cooling system.

The total energy package has still another job. Industrial plants use the captured heat to process petroleum products and sulphur, to dry pulp coatings, brinks and even hay. But this is just a start. There are infinite applications where this total energy unit can provide "free" heat for process everywhere - from home to the hospital.

By supplying heating, cooling and electricity, total energy packages covering a wide range of needs provide substantial savings and here in Alberta where we have an abundance of low-cost natural gas we are using more and more "total energy" plants going into service.

ARDENODE NEWS

Sympathy of the Community goes out to the Norman Morton family on the death of her mother recently.

We were very sorry to hear of the death of Mrs. Angela Hermanson. She had been a member of our Good Neighbor Club since the beginning last year and will be greatly missed by all members. Sympathy is extended to all her family.

Quite a number of boys and girls in the district have been down with various illnesses. We hope all are able to be back at school by now.

Glen Groves is now employed at Bladen Motors in Strathmore. He had the misfortune to have his car stolen in Calgary last Thursday.

Good luck to district ladies in the Carleton Place beginning Thursday.

Thought for the week:—
What keeps most of us financially here is having to face and foot our bills at the same time.

STRATHMORE MIDGET HOCKEY

Strathmore Midgets played Taber in Lethbridge on Feb. 15th and were defeated 9 to 5. The score as we saw it didn't really represent the game as I am satisfied that Strathmore had as much or more of the play than Taber. However the breaks when capitalizing on repeat goals. Taber got their first goal 16 seconds after the drop of the puck. The first period ended in a 4-1 score for Taber. Strathmore had a little better in the second period, it ended 7 to 3. However in the third period Strathmore came to life and held Taber to a 1-0 score. No doubt Strathmore had several chances to close the gap, one hitting the goal post and another the top bar. It no doubt was the luckiest game for Strathmore this season and kept the fans on edge through out the game, when both goal keepers were called on to make some outstanding saves. The score may make it look like it was a dull game but it certainly was very exciting as the teams roared from end to end at a lightning speed with several goal mouth pile ups. Taber goals by B. Conrad 3 goals, R. Adomovitz 2 goals, 1 assist, C. Emmburg 1 goal. Strathmore goals Demit 4 goals, C. Dweg 1 goal. Assist B. Stephenson 3, Demit 1. Strathmore fans still feel they have a chance to over come this 4 goal lead and they are asking you to come out and support them in the second game on Feb. 23rd at 3:30 P.M. at Strathmore. See you all there.

Strathmore Midgets played Bassano Feb. 17th winning by a score of 11 to 1. Bassano had only eleven players which was probably some bearing on the score, as two changes in hockey is not sufficient if the boys are playing wide open. It was quite noticeable that Bassano boys were tiring. Terry Dreg played well in Strathmore nets and probably robbed Bassano from scoring on several occasions. Point getters were B. Nada or Bassano. Strathmore were Goria Demit 4, C. Dweg 3, R. Dreg 1, R. Weper 1, Knight 1, Cock 1, Stephenson 1, Assata Tucker 2, Demit 3, C. Dweg 2, Stephenson 2, and Knight 1.

FIBERGLASS DRAPES

With Spring cleaning just around the corner, you may be thinking of sprucing up your living room with new draperies. I have had many enquiries concerning fiberglass drapes.

One of the biggest advantages of fiberglass is it's hand washability. Do not wring, rub or squeeze fiberglass draperies, but rinse thoroughly and hang on rods to dry. They should not be put in a dryer or dry cleaned. No ironing is necessary as the wrinkles will smooth right out.

Ordinary fiberglass has poor draping qualities. The weave of some fiberglass fabrics may also cause them to sag. Fiberglass fabric is rather hard to handle for sewing as it is prickly and frays quite readily.

If fiberglass is used in draw draperies, they should be hung with the rod against venetian blinds, rods or window sills as the rubbing will cause threads to break and cuts will appear in your draperies.

Beta Fiberglass - Beta fiberglass is a newer fabric which has a softer drape and hand. Beta fiberglass drapes are also less likely to cut due to abrasion. Because of these features I would search for Beta fiberglass rather than the plain fiberglass.

Milium lining drapes. Milium is a trademark for a lining fabric coated with aluminum - Milium has been used extensively in linings for winter coats and more recently has been used for lining drapes.

Milium lining fabric will offer warmth in the winter and coolness in summer. You may consider using a Milium lining for draperies. It is a wonderful insulating lot of sunlight. A Milium lining will also provide some warmth on windows which are quite drafty. Milium is not too durable and requires dry cleaning.

If you want trees for planting this year check the list of trees still available at the Extension Office in Strathmore.

SEED GERMINATION - Mr. Mackie of the Plant Protection Division was in the office last week. He reported that oats and barley germination reports from some areas were running between 60 and 70% germination. Mr. Lee Tiede, Manager of the Strathmore Seed Station, has some results on local samples of oats and barley.

Farmers would be wise to check the germination of the grain they plan to use for seed as soon as possible.

The cold weather in January and the late fall has delayed farmers getting their grain cleaned.

Seed Plants will be hard pressed to clean all the seed this year. It will help though to book your grain for cleaning now.

Annual Meeting Cluny Rural Fire Association

The Cluny Rural Fire Protection Association held its first general meeting on Feb. 10th. Dave Bigelow as Chairman gave the Board of Directors report by reviewing activities over the past year and since its incorporation in April of 1964. Noting that the Fire Truck had responded to nine calls. He gave thanks to the Membership as a whole and to the Board for their support in organizing the Association and a very special mention to Paul Gibeau board member who had undertaken to look after and equip the Fire Truck to place it into operation. Clem Corbelli Secretary gave a report on his meetings with the County of Wheatland towards County wide fire protection, also an explanation of the Association By-Laws. A very favourable financial statement was read by the Treasurer Paul Gibeau who also gave a report on the Fire Truck and its equipment. Deputy Fire Chief J. Hoag reported on the organization of the Fire Brigade. John Rialty took the chair for the election of officers. Dave Bigelow, Paul Gibeau, Clem Corbelli, Allan Konechuh, Ernie Waisken, Ray Stewart were returned to office with Paul Agakov elected to fill the vacancy left when P. Ries Past Chairman moved to Calgary. New business brought many items to discussion. It was moved by the membership that the Association in cooperation with the Village of Cluny look into the purchase of a Tanker to supplement the Fire Truck in areas where water was not readily available. Past experience showed this could be an advantage. Although the Association financial position was good the Membership felt that a due per member per year would provide a reserve for depreciation and new equipment. The motion was passed that the Association have a yearly due of Ten dollars. After adjournment the elected Board of Directors met to fill the various positions. Allan Konechuh was elected Chairman, Dave Bigelow Vice-Chairman, Paul Gibeau Treasurer, Clem Corbelli Secretary.

GOOD DEED

Miss Linda Boesenkoil who is only 7 years old has taken it upon herself to see that the bench (which has been donated by the O.R.P. and is situated half-way between the Senior Citizens Home and Town) is kept clean and free of dirt. A note of thanks has been extended by the ladies of the O.R.P. to Linda for this "well-thought out and carried through, regardless of weather, Good Deed."

HOME & SCHOOL ASSOCIATION

The Strathmore Home and School Association held a meeting on Monday night Feb. 26th in the School Auditorium with approximately 30 members present. Madame President, Mrs. Blanche Christensen, opened the meeting with O Canada, followed by the Secretary, Mrs. Betty Selgeisen reading the minutes of the executive meeting. A motion was made and adopted for the Home and School to cancel the Drama Festival to be held in the Samuel Crowther School on April 19th. The drama festival will consist of 4 days, three during the day and three in the evening. A cold buffet will be served with lunch in the evening for the performers. Further information will be available as a later date. It was also decided to raffie an Easter Ham the day before school closes and the proceeds from this will go to the Library.

The president then turned the meeting over to Mrs. M. Moon, who introduced our school librarian, Mrs. Blanche Christensen for her instructive talk on the "How and Why" of the Library. The members moved to the library where Mrs. Selgeisen with the help of students, Darcy Morgan, Darcy Preaker, Grade VI, Wayne Morrison, Debbie Fredericks, Grade VI and Karen Pettiford, Donald Drake Grade IV, showed how a child could go to the library with only slight information on a subject that he was interested in and within minutes find the book with the help of a very efficient cataloguing system maintained by the Librarian Mrs. Selgeisen. The evening closed with a pleasant social hour over coffee in the Home Economic's room.

A beautiful display of figure skating was then held when Frank Nawasod and Susie Zands of Calgary exhibited their talents. Sally Bacon also skated for the crowd and Mrs. Ferguson tells us she has been receiving instructions for less than six months. This last from Bassano shows real talent.

Sixteen heats of races followed with an enormous number of contestants ranging in age from four years right up to high school kids both boys and girls.

GLEICHEN ICE CARNIVAL

At about 1:30 on Sunday afternoon, Gleichen's new Arena started the first sign of the first carnival when the crowd of people started pouring in and parking attendants were getting busy. At about the same time a team of Calgary skaters arrived and gave the existing crowd a pre-carnival show with their warm up. Kids in costumes seemed to come from everywhere by the score.

Right on schedule the carnival announcer Vern Hoff requested the people stand for O'Canada and then turned the mike over to Mayor Ed Ferguson for a word of good luck and pre-performance congratulations.

Queen crowning ceremonies followed when contestants, Bonnie Stott, Ann-Marie Vule, Janice Hall, Helen Hayes and Karen Konechuh were called and appeared in their finest form. The 1964 Carnival Queen, Sandra Demetrichuk took the mike and said a word of thanks and appreciation for being chosen last year's Queen and wished each of the new contestants a last bit of luck before she opened the sealed envelope for the results. The Cluny Lions Club's candidate, Karen Konechuh was named the Queen and took her place on the far robe draped throne. Helen Hayes, sponsored by the Gleichen Lions and Janice Hall of the Hockey Association were named Ladies in Waiting to Queen. Karen was crowned with a word of congratulations by out going Queen Sandra and then thanked her sponsor and every one for buying tickets on her to make her win possible. Remaining contestants Bonnie Stott of the 4-H Club and Ann-Marie Vule of the Figure Skating Club took their place aside the Ladies in Waiting for pictures.

In costume judging many prizes were awarded after some real tough decisions by the judges. The pre-school group saw prizes go to Tod Beward, Lindsey Wilson, Wade Beward and Bonnie Ferguson for originality. Prizes for comic costumes went to Kevin Wilson, Shanna Maynard, Scot Henderson and Allan Bolinger. Allan and Tod Savre won a special prize for a team outfit for their twin mini costumes. The next age group went as follows: Original to Ann Hoff, Sharon Savre, and Craig Faryna. Comical to Wade Faryna and Brian Saunders. Fancy to Marry Savre and Diana Vule. Nine and over group prizes went to Judy Campa, Linda Campa, and Allison Saunders for originality; Karen McBean, Wood Royal, and Karen Saunders for comical and Randy Woods for fancy. In group sculpture, presentations were made to Mr. (Mr.?) Clifford and Lady Vi Warner, for their formal dress at the carnival. Don Murray and Anita Clifford for their costume and to the Hipsters A-Go-Go who presented good costumes and musical selections. If we could find out who they are we would likely invite them back for next year.

The annual hockey game of the year took place when the "Hippies" of the Strathmore were defeated by a score of 9 - 2. Stars for the Mon's were Olive Hayes and Eileen Gooch with one goal each and Jean McBean won the goalie award.

The last of nine goals was scored by Mrs. Sharon Ferguson's figure skating class then put on a display for the crowd.

GLEICHEN CALLS

Your local paper this week has devoted a lot of space to Gleichen and area, but that is the Community which submitted the news this week, of course they are entitled to do so. We at "The Standard" would far rather print local news and write up events, such as weddings and funerals, then fill our columns with "Press Releases".

The only way we can achieve this is through your cooperation. Please cooperate let us know your happenings and allow us to live up to our motto "Bringing News of your friends to your homes."

At this time of year, many of us are wondering how we will manage to pay our income tax and just how much it will amount to.
The lucky guy with a steady job needs only to consult his T4 slips and estimate his returns, but so many farmers and business men are self employed and bookkeeping is a miserable chore for many.

It would be a good idea to start the school children off in this with a thorough knowledge of, not only bookkeeping, but how to file an income tax form without having to take March 21.

What a wonderful asset this would be in later life, no matter whether the child grows up to be a housewife or a professional man. This knowledge would be invaluable at least once a year!

STRATHMORE MIDGET HOCKEY

Strathmore Midgets won the second game of the provincial play offs 6 - 7, but lost the series 10 to 13. No doubt it was one of the best games of the season in the Strathmore Arena, also the best crowd of the season, your support was certainly appreciated. Strathmore got the 1st goal, 1st period, Taber 1st goal, 1st period, Strathmore went ahead again at 18:59. Second period Taber went ahead on two fast goals, however, Strathmore the back strapping goal, 1st period, Taber got 1 more goal and Strathmore scored again ending the second period, leading Taber 6 - 4. In the 3rd period Strathmore scored again narrowing the goals down to 1. Taber again came back getting a goal at 14:43 Strathmore scored again coming to within a goal in the series. However Taber came back strong getting two goals at the dying moments of the game as Strathmore was playing wide open trying to get the tying goal.

Both goals played well stopping shots that looked like sure goals. At first a fans point of view and the chatter in the arena it no doubt was a crowd pleasing game. Also a vote of thanks to the referees they did a good job. There were 24 penalties handed out. Taber getting 12, Strathmore getting 12. Point getters for Taber were: Olson 3 goals, 1 assist, Miller 2 goals, 1 assist, Conrad 2 goals, Adamowicz 3 assists, Cock 2 goals, Desmet 3 goals, 3 assists, Cock 2 goals, 1 assist, 1 goal, 2 assists, Knight 1 goal, Colwell 1 goal, 1 assist, Stephenson 1 assist.

Well boys, we lost the series but we are proud of your gallant effort, trying to tie the series. After the games Mr. and Mrs. Stephenson hosted the players and parents to a most enjoyable Chinese supper. A special vote of thanks to you for your generous hospitality.

Gleichen Hockey News

by Ron Suave

Hockey action was led off last week when the Gunner Basano whitewashed their Husar counterparts by 14 - 1 on Tuesday night. Gleichen's Sherbertoff started by finding the mark four times.

Thursday night saw Pee Wee play when another scorching score saw Strathmore down Gleichen 12 - 4. Willson from the visitors showed his form again by scoring a well earned double hat - trick.

Saturday saw seven Mite games in a fast moving and well organized tournament. Game number one gave Gleichen a look at the top when they trounced Standard to the tune of 12 - 0. Game two provided good close action when Basano edged over Strathmore 3 - 0, for the second shut out game in succession. In the third clash, Rockyford topped Arrowwood 6 - 0 to put themselves in the top of the round. In the first game of the top round action, Gleichen was put off action by Basano in a 4 - 0 decision which kept up the one sided action of the day with the fourth shut out game.

In the back of the competition Standard put out Arrowwood in a close 6 - 4 well played and exciting game. Final play in the front half saw Basano win the third and final Gleichen minor tournament when they put Rockyford down 6 - 1. Job well done and all teams concerned will be looking for Gleichen's trophies next year. In the final game of the day Strathmore wiped out Standard 9 - 0 for their second disastrous defeat of the day.

Sunday action played the Gunner Juniors against the local Seniors when a scheduled Calgary team planned to back out of action. The end of regulation time saw a 7 - 7 tie which forced the game into a hard fought and exciting overtime when the Juniors number 4, Brown, from Burns scored at the 6:15 mark. The Seniors say the season is at arms over and they are determined to lick these kids so keep your eyes and ears open for more of these real hockey games.

I believe there were more games last week but this is all the reports I received. Sorry if I missed any but come on coaches, back-up and get your reports in.

ROSEBUD

by Mrs. F. Biblow

Having received several inquiries about our reference to the Chinook Indians in an earlier column (Jan. 1969) we wish to reply in this column to the benefit of all concerned. The origin of the word chinook, which is so commonly used, is with these Chinook Indians who held the Columbia River and adjacent territory for many, many years their number being estimated at 16,000 in 1803. Within the next 50 yrs. they decreased drastically (from disease) and in the early 1900's numbered perhaps 200-300 known under different names on several reservations.

The word chinook was first used as astoria, Oregon to represent a warm, moist wind blowing off the Pacific Ocean because it came from the direction of the Chinook camp near the mouth of the Columbia River. With this in mind many of us in the Rosebud area, during the prolonged and unusually cold spell this past Dec. and Jan., were beginning to wonder whether the astronauts or Communists had invaded the Happy Hunting Grounds of these Chinook Indians and they, being offended by the intrusion of their territory, refused to dance the Chinook Dance or whatever is necessary for one of our welcome chinooks (thus making us one of their "foreign" tribes of Israel). Our reference for information on Chinook Indians was Encyclopaedia Britannica, Volume 5, 1967 Edition, University of Chicago.

Farmers have at long last been hauling grain to elevators in Rosebud, railway cars are being loaded, and prospects for selling more grain are better all because Hon. Gordon Taylor has been instrumental in obtaining railway bonuses at Rosebud. Several farmers approached Mr. Taylor at his recent meeting in Rosebud Hall and the minister certainly got prompt action. Perhaps he may even be able to get some of the Canadian box cars back from their long vacation in the U.S.I.

The four teachers at Severn Creek School, Mr. J. Plett, principal, Mrs. H. Bastard, Mrs. E. Watson, and Mrs. H. Wier, attended the two day Teachers Convention in Calgary on Feb. 13th and 14th.

A rink of Rosebud ladies, Skip - Ruth Burke, third - Leona Stolz, second - Janice Burke and lead Melia Kasmussen curled in the Heiseker Ladies Bonspiel and came home with the prize large bowl, for the largest end laid Feb. 3 - 7. Last week skip - Ruth Burke, Third - Elsie Martin of Heiseker, second - Leona Stolz, and lead Melia Kasmussen won pillow cases as second prize in the third event of the Acme Ladies Bonspiel. These ladies also won the largest end (6 rocks) at this 'spiel' receiving letter openers. Congratulations ladies!

A rink consisting of Skip - Clark Edwards, third - Hugo Stolz, second - Ken Georgesen and Terry Burke lead took third prize in the fourth event in the Heiseker Bonspiel at Rockford last week in the same bonspiel the Bill Watson rink with Jim Clark as third, Mervin Clark second and Ralph Coler as lead won fourth place in the fourth event. Congratulations, too, to the men.

Mr. Allan McKinnon, Mr. Don Turner and some men from Standard took their power toboggans out on the Rockies on Sun. Feb. 15 and enjoyed some thrills in these wide open spaces. They say this is "the most" for that kind of sport.

Powder puff hockey was the next item on the agenda when the Gummer Girls were defeated 3-1 by their Arrowwood counterparts. I am sure the fans are awaiting much more of this kind of action.

The crowd then thrilled to the excitement of Chuck - wagon racing when some grade races displayed some real danger and speed. Lion Pros. Harvey Saave defeated Legion Pros. George Walker. Arrowwood's Mayor defeated Gleichmen Mayor Ed Ferguson when Ed's horse fell into the rigging and broke the traces. Clancy School Principal Bill Anderson was defeated by Gleichmen's Art Fry when one of his wheel horses fell with a hind foot caught in the harness and was drag part way around the track. However he was freed and we are glad to report that all wagons finished the races with no loss of life.

or injury to either men or horses. Many old fans wondered why Gooch and Wilson were not entered.

COUNTY COUNCIL

Minutes of the meeting of the County Council of the County of Wheatland No. 16, held at the County Office, Strathmore, on Monday, February 24, 1969, commencing at 9:00 A.M. with the following present: Reeve - E. Cammiser, Councilors - E. Bollinger, E. Desnoes, M. Gregory, M. Phillips, R. Thurston, Secretary-Treasurer - F. Martin, Absent - J. MacArthur.

MINUTES: Moved, "That the minutes of the 14th, 1969, County Council meeting be adopted as read."

REGIONAL ROAD MEETING: Moved, "That the report of Cammiser and Gregory on the February 21, 1969 regional road study meeting be accepted."

FINANCIAL STATEMENT: Moved, "That the following financial statement for the month ending January 31st, 1969, be accepted:"

SCHOOL COMMITTEE REPRESENTATIVES: At the convention held by the Association of Municipal Districts and Counties in Calgary in November, 1968 it was suggested that legislation may be introduced to increase town and village representation on County School Committees. It was indicated that each town and village should have a representative on the County School Committee. In the case of the County of Wheatland this would make a thirteen member school committee. Moved, "That the County of Wheatland No. 16 write to the Government of Alberta opposing any legislation which would increase town and village representation on County School Committees as it feels School Committees would become entirely too cumbersome and unwieldy, and furthermore the County of Wheatland feels such increase in representation is not warranted especially considering the percentage of contributions received from the towns and villages towards school operating costs."

SCHOOL DEBENTURE VOTING: Moved, "That the County of Wheatland No. 16 request the Government of Alberta, to amend the School Act so that in case of voting on school debenture by-laws a corporation or private company would be entitled to a vote along similar provisions as Section 56 of the Municipal Election Act."

BY-LAW 69-3: Providing for the purchase of a 1969 Chevrolet 42 Passenger School Bus from Bluebird Bus Company for the cash amount of $7,303.00.

Thurston - Moved first reading of By-Law 69-3 and the first reading was carried.
Phillips - Moved second reading of By-Law 69-3 and the second reading was carried.

Bollinger - By the unanimous consent of all present, Bollinger moved third reading of By-Law 69-3 and the third reading was carried.

POUNDKEEPER - A. GEERAERT: Moved, "That the County of Wheatland No. 16 appoint Mr. A.E. Geeraert as poundkeeper and that a pound be established on the S.E. of 26-26-24-W4."

BRIDGE PROGRAM: Moved, "That the County of Wheatland No. 16 approve the 1969 Bridge program to include the following: New Bridge - File 7943 W/SW of 23-26-23-4; New Bridge - File 70399 W/SW of 26-25-26-4; New Bridge - File 9279 W/SW of 26-25-24-4; Widening and Repairs File 1944 S/E of 15-24-21-4; File 1382 S/E of 17-24-20-4; Culverts - File 7196 W/SW of 24-27-19-4; File 73096 S/E of 25-24-26-4; File 72979 S/E of 23-26-23-4."

RECREATION: A delegation comprised of the following: V. Hoff, G. Kroon, J. Stewart, R.

Kunw and Roy Downey attended the meeting and recommended to Council that the County grant and County expenditures for recreation be distributed through the Urban Recreation Boards on the following basis: (Percentages of the total): Carlsbad - Strathmore - 54%, Hussar - Delum - 18%, Rosebud - Standard - 12%, Rockyford - Level Land - 18%, Cluny - Gleichen - 12%. It is planned that one member of the Council would be on each Urban Recreation Board and, therefore, the five councilors involved would form the County Recreation Board. This would then establish liaison between the Urban Recreation Boards and the County Council. A by-law along these lines will be considered for the next County Council meeting.

EMERGENCY PLANNING: Mr. L. Jones of the Emergency Measures Organization attended the meeting together with Mr. D.E. Thomas, County of Wheatland co-ordinator. Mr. Jones had prepared plans for setting up an emergency government headquarters to operate in the County of Wheatland during a wartime emergency. Council will study his outline of the organization functions and responsibilities of the Municipal Emergency Government Headquarters with the view to implementing such a plan at the next County meeting.

SUBDIVISION SE-22-22-26-4: Moved, "That the County of Wheatland No. 16 approve the 40 acre subdivision from the SE of 22-22-26-W4th."

BUILDING PERMIT: Moved, "That the County of Wheatland No. 16 approve a building permit for the Alberta Wheat Pool to construct a fertilizer shed on the C.P.R. right-of-way at Carlsbad."

UNLOADING OF FERTILIZER: Moved, "That the County of Wheatland No. 16 hold no objection to Uphaw Fertilizer Company Ltd. unloading anhydrous ammonia from the railroad at Lyle, Rosebud, Carlsbad and Strathmore provided this

PAYSHEETS & ACCOUNTS: Moved, "That all paysheets and accounts as approved by the Finance Committee be paid."

COURT OF REVISION: Moved, "That the County of Wheatland 1969 Court of Revision be held on Monday, April 14th, 1969."

ADJOURN: Moved, "That the meeting adjourn."

A LETTER

303 - 1st Avenue
Edmonton, B.C.
Feb. 26 - 1969

His Worship,
The Mayor,
Strathmore, Alberta.

Dear Sir:

I am of the first family that ever lived in the new City of Strathmore. My father, James Smith, was the Section Foreman at old Strathmore at the bottom of the Hill by the Old Stock Corral and the Lake 4 miles East of the present site of Strathmore when the C.P.R. moved the old section house to the new Strathmore we moved with it and the new Stock Yards. We left there in 1904.
Before that we had a small Box Car station to house the Telegraph operator and the Telegraph Instruments.

I have been retired for some years now and am a widower my good wife having passed away on July 6th, 1964 and I would like to get a small Cabin about 2 or 3 rooms where I could be in a position to meet my old time friends and where they could come to visit me, when convenient to do so. I am a member of the Southern Pioneers and Old Timers association, I am in good health a veteran of World War one.

If I could rent or buy such a place cheap, I would be quite happy if you could put me in contact with some one who has such a place to rent or sell cheap, I would be very pleased indeed.

Thanking you in anticipation of an early and favorable reply, I am sir your obedient servant,
Fred G. Smith

REV. FR. FLANAGAN PARISH PRIEST ACCEPTS NEW POST IN CALGARY

A Parish social evening was held recently in the Parish Hall of Sacred Heart Church.
The farewell occasion was held in honor of Fr. Flanagan, who, as Parish Priest for the past year, had accepted a position with a new parish in Calgary.
The high esteem in which Fr. Flanagan was held during his stay within the Parish, was well shown by the large gathering assembled in the hall.
The occasion took the form of a card party, sing song, Parish presentations, and best wishes, closing with a delightful lunch.

Mr. Lou Lauwerysen, in an able and witty manner, gave a presentation in the name of the Parish.

Mr. Harry Van Wesel, in the name of Fr. Gibbons Council K. of C., gave a presentation, mentioning the fact that Fr. Flanagan would be missed as Council Chaplain, and Mrs. Irene Klemm in the name of Strathmore C.W.M.A., capably gave a presentation also, M.C. for the evening was Mr.
Archibald.

Card winners were: Court Whit High Lady -
Mrs. Irene Klemm; Court Whit High Man -
Mr. Albert Demit, in bridge - winner, Mr. Tuffy
Ramsey. The travelling prize was won by Margaret Godfrey, and the lucky chair prize by Mr. Raymond Van Bavel. The sing song was led by Mrs. Mary Hendricks at the piano.

After presentations, Fr. Flanagan gave his thanks to all present, mentioning his pleasure at having formed many fine friendships during the time that he was in the Strathmore area, and his regret upon leaving.

At the close of the evening, personal best wishes were then individually offered by those present, upon his acceptance to a larger, and more challenging position within the Calgary Diocese.

HOMEMAKER COLUMN

by Catherine Young D.H.E.

RAPID MIX YEAST - Does it work?
I have just tried the new rapid mix yeast yet I made a delicious Christmas Stollen with it and found it very convenient to use. I have heard comments from some of the "doy's" like it as well as the old yeast. Some people just haven't had very good luck with this new yeast. Let's examine it more closely.

First of all the mixing method differs from the older type. You add the yeast to 1/3 of the flour in the recipe and all other dry ingredients (sugar, salt). Add the liquid (including water that was formerly used to dissolve yeast) and the margi-arine. (The liquid should be warmed first). Beat 2 minutes. Add remaining flour. Knead & proceed as usual.

Sound simple doesn't it? A flop may be due to:
(1) Heating liquid and margarine to a high temperature. Yeast is killed at 130 degrees F.
Best results are obtained when liquid temperature is 104 - 113 degrees F.

(2) Failure to include water that was formerly used to dissolve yeast.

(3) Using unpasteurized milk. It should be scalded to destroy the enzymes that cause "gummy" bread, then cooled and used as directed.

(4) Insufficient beating. You can beat it for 10 minutes.

The rumor is that rapid mix yeast is here to stay and the "old" yeast will be with drawn from the market.
For those who can't get used to the new method, they can dissolve the yeast the conventional way:
(1) Dissolve yeast in warm water (104 - 113 deg. F)
(2) Add lukewarm milk, then margarine.
(3) Gradually stir in dry ingredients.
(4) Proceed with kneading, rising and baking as directed.

future sales of Domestic Water to non-residents would be made at the discretion of the Councillor in charge of that Department. Hallett further asked for information regarding policy on graves in the cemetery being opened by Town employees.

Councillor VanWesell reported for all recent events occurring in the Welfare Department.

Councillor Hallett reported for Town Property, leaving one application for permission to move a house into Strathmore.

Councillor Kusky informed Council that a Joint meeting of the Strathmore and Carleton Place Recreation Boards had been held on February 10,

CORRESPONDENCE: All correspondence was lowing: From the Department of Public Welfare, confirming the appointment of Councillor Van-Wesell as Strathmore's Chief Welfare Officer.

ESTATE TAXATION UNBLESSED

Will the firm be paid to say taxes when the bread winner dies? This is a question faced by family members throughout the country and a question which generated considerable interest at the United Co-operators of Ontario annual meeting this month.

Special presentations and discussions on "Farm Estate Planning" were organized by personnel of Co-operators Insurance Association of Ontario in part of UCOO's 1969 Showweek '69. Purpose of the program was to make farm people more aware of the need for estate planning and the services that are available through co-operative channels.

Finance Minister Bennett's budget, brought down last October, contains an approach to estate and gift taxation that demands the careful attention of farm families and needs all citizens of the family farm to be preserved. Transfer between family members can be charged from the duty but transfer beyond this to the immediate family could create real problems.

Prudent capital requirements for land and equipment must accompany a high price tag which is inadvisable in an operating unit. A sudden demand for a substantial part of the capital involved could easily mean the end of that family farm.

Gleichen Hockey News

By Ron Savie

The hockey season in Gleichen was rather quiet last week with only four games played, however, the action was of a superior quality. An early game of exhibition Pee-Wee hockey played Gleichen against Bassem on Thursday.

At the end of the first period, the crowd knew they were in for a good game, the score standing at 4-4 and no penalties had been assessed. The second period of the game and Gleichen found the mark twice at the helm to score the first two goals.

Chay's cove. Third period action saw Chay back to the mark with only two goals for Gleichen. Final score 8-8 and the fans are begging for more hot hockey action like this. Friday last the Gleichen ice quiet when the Bassemans traveled to Brooks for a 7-4 defeat in the second straight defeat in play off action. They went out of contention with a 15-20 game, total point defeat. The Midgits went

HIGHER SHRINKAGE ON DAMPS

The following memorandum was issued on January 20th, by the Board of Grain Commissioners for Canada. It outlines an additional shrinkage allowance for high moisture wheat, oats and barley purchased and dried at country elevators. All producers concerned should be familiar with the regulation.

"To encourage compliance to provide drying facilities at country elevators, particularly where there is still ample storage space in elevators and to enable country elevators to handle the increased demand for grain, the Board of Grain Commissioners has provided for additional shrinkage allowance."

Where a country elevator licensee has drying facilities at the country elevator and where the licensee is drying grain for his own account, the grain must have been purchased and sold in accordance with the Canadian Wheat Board price list.

To take account of the shrinkage on excessively high moisture grain dried at country elevators, the Board has allowed to deduct an additional one-half of one percent shrinkage for each one-half percent of moisture in excess of 14.5 and 14.0 percent additional shrinkage allowance applies only to that grain dried at the country elevator for company account. For this type of transaction, the Board has provided an additional "Elevator Dried" and show the present original moisture and percent shrinkage on the bottom right-hand side of the ticket, e.g., "Elevator Dried, 22 percent, 4 percent."

Grain Dried for Return to the Farm

For grain dried at the country elevator for customer account for return to the farm, an interim elevator receipt or graded storage receipt should be used to record weight and moisture, and other required information. Charges for this drying service will be by agreement between the owner of the grain and the elevator company or the customer driver operator."

HOW TO STOP BLEEDING

REMEDIES

How do you stop bleeding?

With a superficial cut or wound, normal clotting will probably stop bleeding without much attention.

With serious bleeding, St. John Ambulance recommends that you apply firm pressure directly on the wound. If sufficient pressure is applied, bleeding will always be controlled. It is best to apply pressure through a thick compress or dressing bandaged to the wound. However, if bleeding is profuse and no dressing is available, don't delay—press directly on your bare hand. If a foreign body is stuck fast in the wound, don't try to remove it—apply pressure around the wound.

It will also help to get the patient lying or sitting down, with the wound held elevated above the level of the heart.

to Hanna to be put out of play off action with a sickening defeat of 15-1 in one game. No second game to be played.

The Poe went entered into what appears to be a fast play off on Sat. afternoon when Hanna defeated them by a 15-3 score on Gleichen. Ron Simons entered into to get a good pace for the local boys by scoring four of the five goals for Gleichen. Coach Eric Rissever reports they are to go to Hanna this coming week and the fans at home wish them all of the luck in the world.

Fans saw a real rough, fast, and hard hitting Juvenile action on Saturday night when the Gunners met the Strathmore team for the first game of a two game series. The 1:00 match of the first period, Goldwell from Strathmore started the score board working when he slipped the first shot-in-net of the game past Gleichen net minder Barr. The Gunners then took the spot light when Adair, Marquardt, and Brown peppered in one a place to put the score at 3-1 at the end of the first period. In the second period Marquardt, Goldmidt, Kank and Singsard scored for Gleichen, while Papp was the scorer of Strathmore's only other goal. The second period proved to be a little better hockey with only five of the game's twenty-four penalties handed out. If stars would have been picked, I am sure Marquardt would have received first when he returned in the third period to put in the final shot of the game to get himself a well deserved hat-trick. My congratulations to Mrs. Adair, who will do well.

Final score, Gleichen 5, Strathmore 2. The two teams met again in Strathmore on Monday night when the Gunners defeated the Strathmore team by a 15-2 score. The game was a much closer but less hard fought hockey game.

Gunners Juvenile coach Mac Murray tells me his team will come against the father of a series between Taber and Ft. McLeod. That series will be played this week with both for an announcement of more play off action at our Gleichen Arena when Gleichen meets those Southern fellows, likely this week end.

ROSEBUD NEWS

By Mrs. F. Bihlow

The Mel Larsen spent another of their many visits with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Cook, on Feb. 22nd week. Had a chat with Mel and Dorothy at the house, they were as cheerful and happy as ever and doing quite well in Red Deer.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Taggart, Karen and Cameron spent Feb. 14th week end with Grandpa, Mr. Hals Nelson, and Larry on the farm.

Larry Nielsen and Gordon Bihlow drove to Standard for the basketball game between the Standard School Girls and the C.K.X.L. The Mugs and found it to be an evening of laughs and entertaining games. The boys were especially thrilled to see some of the (most) radio announcers which, according to 99% of the teen-agers, couldn't be anyone but C.K.X.L. staff.

Mr. Bob Comstock and Mr. Frank Patterson attended a Training Course for Cub and Scout leaders in the Standard Lutheran Church on Feb. 15.

Two student nurses who died after going through the ice in a walk north of two ice fishermen drowned in Northern Saskatchewan when their snowmobile broke through the ice.

These are but a few of the most recent Canadian winter drownings emphasizing the need for great care when walking, skating, or snowmobiling on snow-covered areas in which ice can be unsafe even in the dead of winter.

The danger of winter drownings has increased sharply with the appearance of tens of thousands of snowmobiles on Canada's slopes and from-over bodies of water. The speed and weight of the machines make it an absolute must that snowmobilers either know their terrain beforehand or make sure they find out the neighborhood winter pitfalls from local residents.

If not — possible disaster. A year ago in Minnesota, a fat man took his two sons and three daughters on a fishing and skating expedition with their snowmobile.

Returning after dark over Pelican Lake, ice which was a foot thick in spots, the vehicle sank in open water and all were drowned.

The problems of the unknown are even greater in Canada than in the U.S. because there are fewer marked snowmobile lanes. Still, many of the same things are very little about the dangers both inside the areas where they are enjoying themselves, and dangers which are not often common knowledge among the area residents.

If you do go through the ice, remember to resist the temptation to grasp the edge of the ice and climb out. You will reach only in your weight breaking off another chunk of ice and you going under again.

Extend your arms forward over the unbroken surface, all the while kicking your legs as hard as you can. This doesn't guarantee that you'll be propelled onto solid ice the first time but is the best method of achieving the first big gulp getting your chest on the ice which will permit you to quit or roll to safety.

COMPOSITE POOL ELEVATOR OPENED AT CARSELAND

Carceland farmers and their friends were entertained recently by the Alberta Wheat Pool, during the opening of the new pool elevator there. Pool Delegate John Brander of Langdon, Traveling Superintendent Art Christensen of Strathmore and Carceland Agent Bob Telford, were hosts for the day.

The new pool elevator at Carceland is a fully modern structure with capacity of 113,000 bushels of grain. It is powered by seven electric motors which range in size from three to 20 horsepower. They supply power to handling grain at the rate of 5,000 bushels per hour; run the transfer conveyor units and from storage bins; power the hydraulic unloading belt, the dust collection system and the grain box-car mover. Weigh scales in the new plant can handle up to 50 tons.

The new elevator at Carceland is one of those built as part of the Pool's continuing program of providing better service to the farming community.

COUNTY COUNCIL TO BORROW FUNDS FOR HIGH SCHOOL

The County will apply to the Local Authorities Board for permission to borrow $657,045.00 to build the proposed Comstock High School at Carceland.

The High School will stand on 15 acres of land on the West side of Wheatland Avenue. The materials used will be masonry and there will be twenty-five actual classrooms.

The improved facilities for students should enable any teenager attending the school to have an education comparable with students in the Cities.

ROYALS WHIP FLYERS

The goalkeepers must take a lot of credit, Gene Grant played goal for Strathmore and only two shots out of dozens got past him into the Royals net.

The Royals go to Didsbury on Wed. 12th. Game starts 8:30 p.m. The team is looking like champs and need your vote.

Sunday March 16th will see Didsbury play at Strathmore and the Royals hope you will attend. Spectator participation is most important to a winning team so come along and keep the Royals winning.

Goal Scorers for the Royals were as follows: L. Wilson & D. McDonald 2, J. Zuhly 2, D. Young 2, R. Lyons 1, R. Dames 1 and L. Phillips 1.

EDITORIAL

The Annual Meetings of Townships and Villages will be held during the next few weeks and they are often, not very well attended. The men and women who are elected to run our civic affairs, have a tough job, and the Annual Meetings are the places to go if you are of the opinion that the Civic Affairs in your area are not being run properly.

Financial Statements will be available and councillors will be able to justify expenses incurred during the year.

Boards may also be delivered at these meetings, if you are so inclined.

But if you wish to show an interest in local affairs and expenditures, turn out and you may, realize how much work is done by your councillors.

MANAGER TRANSFER

Don and Ella Nichol will be leaving Strathmore as a precaution to themselves.

Don will take over the North Edmonton Branch of The Royal Bank of Canada, this branch is a much larger one than Strathmore's having over fifteen people on the staff.

Don and Ella have been in Strathmore for 7 years and will leave many friends behind. Don was born and raised in Strathmore, Ella is also a local girl being raised in Strathmore.

There is absolutely no truth in the rumour that all debts will be written off, because of this transfer, we had heard this as an establishment, custom, like coffee and donuts, but we were wrong. Shame ain't it.

The following is a summary of facts that every rate payer should be aware of regarding the Composite High School building program.

PROPOSAL - The County Committee, after careful study, has proposed building a Composite High School in Strathmore to upgrade the High School program and overcome crowded facilities in the County of Wheatland.

WHAT WILL IT COST? - The proposed school would cost $700,000, complete, or approximately $16.00 per sq. ft. of floor space.

HOW WILL THE HIGH SCHOOL BE PAID FOR? - Federal Indian Affairs Contribution - $349,800.

LETTER to the EDITOR

County of Wheatland Debutures - $457,045. The School Foundation Program will reimburse the County for the yearly principal and interest to cover the debentures.

WHAT IS THE SCHOOL FOUNDATION PROGRAM? - All Counties, M.D.s, Cities, Towns and Villages are assessed and pay into the Provincial School Foundation Fund yearly. This money is used to equalize the tax burden - including the financing of School Building programs as approved. Wheatland has paid into the program for 9 years and had assistance to build two Auditoriums and two or three Class

ADVANTAGES OF BUILDING THE PROPOSED H.S.

(1) - No direct increase in taxes for Construction of the facilities.

(2) - Would release space in existing over crowded schools allowing for upgrading of Elementary and High School programs.

(3) - A broader high school program could be offered to County High School students - credits in the program could be earned. Over 35 students are now going outside Wheatland to get the desired high school program.

(4) - Taxes will increase only slightly to cover the operation of the Composite H.S. (estimate is 1 to 2 mills) - but much less than alternatives.

(5) - Education in the County would be upgraded to "very good" for the least possible direct cost to County ratepayers.

(6) - Students will have a good selection of educational programs available to them - and still be able to live at home. Some of our students boarding in Calgary have to ride a bus (2 transfers) for 4 1/2 hours to get to their Composite School.

(7) - With good facilities we can attract the top teachers.

WHAT ARE THE ALTERNATIVES?

(1) - Pay all high school students an adequate maintenance allowance so that their high school education outside the County, and discontinue providing H.S. training in all County schools.

(2) - Continue to operate as is - providing limited programs, crowded facilities and facilities reduction in enrollment as students voluntarily go elsewhere.

(3) - Build additional space in Strathmore, Standard and Hazzard so that the present program can be provided adequately. This building expansion would be costlier because of higher building costs and limited Building Assistance for small projects. Because our proposals would have to be met by our rate payers, a 5 to 15 mill increase would likely be necessary for several years.

MORE ALTERNATIVES:

(1) - If the proposed Composite H.S. plan is turned down and the temporary accommodations are used with approval of the County Council, of getting a Composite High School would drop to almost "Nil".

(2) - To prepare to meet the present plan would cause the County of Wheatland to lose priority for Government Assistance. Any new proposal would have to take its turn at the end of the long list of school projects already on the drawing board.

(3) - The alternative to the Composite H.S. would cost the rate payer more money if adequate education for our children is to be provided.

The Wheatland Citizens Committee

His background includes serving as a parish pastor in both the United and Lutheran Churches. He has taught at Union Theological Seminary, Swarthmore College and Garrett Theological Seminary in the United States. A native Canadian, he returned to this country in 1966 to assume the presidency of Luther Theological Seminary at the University of Saskatchewan. A prolific writer on Church renewal, Dr. Norden has written five books and contributed articles to over 50 journals. He has been the guest lecturer to some 75 colleges and seminars on the North American continent. Since his return to Canada, he has lectured frequently to most of the major denominations across Canada.

As well as discussing the basic issue of the Church for today, the conference will feature some of the new forms the Church is taking. On Sunday evening, a group of United Church youth called the Hill-wingers will be presenting a half-hour concert. This group has cut several records of Christian folk songs. On Monday evening, the Magic Fire, a musical group from the Drumheller Penitentiary will be taking part in the program. As part of their rehabilitation, these young men have appeared at several youth gatherings in the Drumheller area. Pastor Bill Stal, well-known song leader from Calgary will share with a youth choir from Strathmore United Church Tuesday evening.

The ecumenical conference is open to everyone. There are changes and adjustments in our society today which affect everyone. The Church, by its very nature and calling, is seen as both a stabilizing force and a developer of new patterns to face an adjusting era. But to do this, the Church must analyze its role amid the challenges. The conference will allow opportunities for everyone to evaluate and share concerns and needs. During an informal coffee hour, discussion will be held in smaller groups to voice these concerns. For the Church to be a serving Church, it must first become a listening Church.

This is the first time in our county that all of the Churches have come together. Along with the evening sessions, a Youth Gathering is being planned by the youth of Standard for Saturday and Sunday. All the area youth groups as well as several from Calgary will be participating in this. An afternoon informal tea with Dr. Norden will be held for all women at Nazareth Lutheran Church on Tuesday at 2:30 p.m. The entire conference is designed to bring our county closer together as we become acquainted in our common bond - the Church of Christ. The anticipation is that 300 people will be participating in this conference from our many Churches.

By Henry F. Meuld

OTTAWA — "Our commitment to regional equality and cultural diversity is clear and irrevocable. You will find it in the record of our party of a century, and in my own record. Let us be perfectly clear, if there is any Canadian who would divide this country further, I am not his leader. And this is not his party."

That was the nub of Robert L. Stanfield's declaration on the subject of the annual meeting of the Progressive Conservative Party in Ottawa recently. The successful dissection of the Conservative party's "two-nation" theory during the 1968 election campaign had not dented Bob Stanfield from his determined view that Canada can only be a strong whole when the natural diversity of its various parts is recognized and respected.

It was a rousing speech from a man whose trademark is dullness. It was a statesmanlike speech in the field of gathering where partisanship would be more customary fare.

He warned that the country is in danger of withdrawing to its separate parts as regional loyalties are revived and the names of Canada receded. The genius of confederation was in founding a country in which the regions could be both united and unique. "And we will retain our unity only if we respect the unique character and contribution of each of the parts of Canada."

"Let us be quite clear that national unity does not mean uniting most of Canada against part of it," he said.

"A constitution, after all, is an arrangement of a way to live together, it assumes and requires a deeper agreement — a will to live together."

Just in case anyone might think he was being an alarmist, Bob Stanfield said there was no sudden new threat to survival, but there was the danger that Canada would "unravel."

"What is alarming is that the old threats continue, and become gradually more insidious. If this country dies, it will not be by some violent convulsion, but by a kind of cancer that gradually destroys our will to live together."

He said there is an urgent need for reconciliation not between regions and cultures and languages, but among generations and between rich and poor.

Then he came to the root of the problem as far as the Conservative Party is concerned: "If we are to reconcile this country, we first must represent it." Representation is what the party lacks. The sad tale was clearly spelled out in the report of Malcolm Wickham, the national director.

In the 1968 election the party took 37.3 per cent of the popular vote. By last year it was down to 35.3 per cent. In terms of percentage of seats in Parliament it was a drastic drop from 44 per cent in 1962 to 27 per cent in 1968. The urban-rural split tells a more accurate story. Last year the Conservatives got only 23.3 per cent of the urban vote and 36.1 per cent of the rural vote.

The 1968 election was fought with new electoral districts and with trend to urbanization more of those districts are in urban areas. It is a trend that will naturally continue. The next redistribution of electoral boundaries, in 10 or 15 years, will reduce even further the number of rural ridings.

Mr. Stanfield is well aware that the real challenge of his leadership is to break the farm-fish orientation of his party and present policies that will appeal to the new, young urban voters. His problem begins right in his Parliamentary caucus. Tory MPs can launch magnificent attacks on government agricultural fisheries policies but the punch weakens when they tackle things like housing, re-training, international affairs and other items that are of concern to people in the large metropolitan complexes.

It is hard for a prairie farmer, representing other prairie farmers, to understand the city dweller's interests but, unless they can bridge that gap, the Conservatives are doomed to steadily reducing place of the political action.

CHEADLE LIONS BONSPIEL

Cheadle Lions held a mixed Bonspiel last Saturday. The three rinks tied with 30 points and the Skips threw one rock each. Garry Fry threw first and apparently he had lost his "Wim & Wigour" for his rock didn't make the deadline. Herb Cheadle landed his rock on the red, but George Jackson displaying the calm poise of one of our Bonspiel's eligible bachelors won with a good shot to the button.

The Bonspiel was a great success and Cheadle Lions plan to repeat the effort next year.

LETTER to the EDITOR

Standard, Alta.
March 24, 1969

Dear Mr. Editor,
Strathmore Standard

There has undoubtedly been a great deal of confusion and misunderstanding over the statement regarding school financing as published in the Strathmore Standard, March 19/69 under the "Annual County Meeting" headline. — Quote — "School Board can spend $100,000 without a plebiscite and will do so if necessary, such money would come directly from municipal revenues" end Quote.

The matter of school financing was dealt with at length by a number of interested taxpayers, with the Hon. Gordon Taylor, during his recent visit to Strathmore. Mr. Taylor strongly indicated that in the event of the forthcoming school plebiscite being defeated there is no reason to believe that money required to build needed classrooms to any of our existing schools as an alternative programme, could not be obtained from the School Foundation Programme as has been done in the past.

After having approached two of our County School Committee members on the subject it became evident that they too realize that any reasonable alternative school building programme in our county can and would be financed through the Foundation Programme. Why then is the above "Quote" used as a potential threat to taxpayers? It is also reasonable to assume that the Indian Affairs Branch would be willing to enter into an alternative plan with the county in the event that the forthcoming plebiscite is defeated. Already several councillors have given this point some thought.

It was also interesting to note that Mr. Taylor strongly suggested a "go slow" policy in our proposed school centralization plans, for two reasons. 1. The rapidly changing and diversified teaching methods etc. that a small centralized school could not obtain or afford. 2. The rapid decrease in population does not warrant large expenditures on further school construction that will undoubtedly prove over adequate in a few years.

After listening to the Principal of Ernest Manning Composite School, Calgary, address the group in Standard 6 weeks ago it became instantly obvious that in order to give rural children comparable education opportunities with city children we must look to the cities where category "A" schools exist and will always be available, plan all the other desired educational facilities, and no doubt is being given some consideration by taxpayers. At least, at this particular stage, it looks as though the small high-school still has its place and the proposed Centralized School Plan will not give us adequate value for the monies spent.

The Strathmore Standard
STRATHMORE, Alberta

Dear Mr. Parham:

On behalf of the Directors of the Alberta Tuberculosis and Respiratory Disease Association, I wish to extend our sincere thanks to the Strathmore Standard for their assistance in publicizing the Christmas Seal Campaign in the Calgary area.

We wish to report that returns in the current campaign stand at approximately $79,000.00. This is short of our objective, but we are pleased that nearly 105,000 Albertans, not including employee groups, have contributed to the campaign.

We are proud of the confidence displayed by the public in our Association. To merit this support, we must seek by every effort in our power, to develop both talent and ability to meet the emerging problems that health measures demand in our society.

Yours sincerely,
R. Borstad, President

Standard

Over the week end of Mar. 15-16 the Standard Luther League held a very successful youth gathering. Saturday afternoon 12 Leaguers from Calgary were billeted in various homes. On Sat. evening a "coffee house" was held in the Church parlors. Two interesting things were shown, followed by music and dancing. On Sun. afternoon more leaguers from Calgary and youth from the surrounding communities enjoyed hobnobbing and the "needle in the haystack" contest. At 5:00 a turkey banquet was served by the local leaguers to almost 150 young people. Following this they were entertained by the Bowens-Swingers and then the highlight of the week end, a very interesting talk by Dr. Nielsen. The Luther League would like to thank all those who helped to make this week end such a tremendous success, especially Leann Jorgensen, who convened the banquet, and did so much work organizing and preparing the meal, and to the entire committee. Dr. Nielsen's visit in the Community was most inspiring, and a large number of people from

The Strathmore Standard Wednesday March 26, 3 surrounding districts as well as local came to hear him.

Recognizing the need for the solution of the many problems that presently face the agricultural producers of Canada, the Federal Gov't. has called the Canadian Agricultural Congress, in Ottawa, March 24-27. Four hundred delegates have been invited to attend. One hundred and sixty-five will be from farm leaders — and the balance, gov't. civil servants, sociologists and economists, and agri-business. Mrs. C. Nielsen has been invited as a delegate from the Alberta delegates.

Mrs. Nielsen has had a busy winter, having covered from Milk River to the Peace River country, including the Farm Safety Conference in Banff most recently.

We are very sorry to hear that Mrs. Merba Lauren sustained painful injuries last Thursday afternoon, when she accidentally fell in an opening in the floor of the Vernon Larsen home that is under construction. We wish you a quick and complete recovery.

How do you build a telephone company?

We started out with a desire to fill a particular community and business need, to provide Albertans with the best possible telephone service at the lowest possible cost. Our province needed a system of modern telephones to aid its prospering economy. Of course we had to obtain the physical necessities for the system: cable, switching equipment, microwave towers, and the phone that hangs on your wall or sits on your desk. Then we had to find people to fit all these things into place. Technicians, engineers, girls who know how to smile with their voices. Today we're an organization of 6,500 people, an investment of 420 million dollars, an integrated communications service that adds 85 million dollars of gross revenue to Alberta's economy yearly. We met every challenge — provided every type of communication service you needed. Now, we're looking to the future — carrying out a continuing program of research and development that will continue to provide Albertans with the finest possible communications service. We know our reason for being in business. YOU!

Rosebud Dorcas Group

The Rosebud Dorcas Group met March 3rd at the home of Mrs. R. Zern. Guest speaker was Mrs. Ben Dauchaine (Frieda) missionary on furthur from Chad, Africa. She gave a very interesting talk on the roll of a missionary's wife. In listening to this very able speaker we were reminded of the Lord's work in Loma's capital city of Chad, where Frieda kept the mission station running smoothly through downs of unexpected guests, disease and many interesting situations - some created by the placing of French and U.S. embassies there. Devotions were closed in prayer.

Roll call was a six inch knitted square for our Afghan. The ladies selected remnant pieces to take home to make into shirts, dresses, pyjamas and play clothes for missionary children. Since these clothes are often river washed and, if ironed, coal irons are used, trim should not be of nylon material. Simple styles with flat buttons are most serviceable. Dresses without waistlines fit longer for Africa. No sleeves are needed on dresses or shirts. Shirts may be made to order. Ladies who have a report on cards and parcels delivered to Three Hills. Mrs. Hanson can use scripture text cards.

Ruth Hudson and Marjorie Clark responded on the church cleaning. Mrs. Madge agreed to take the next turn.

Work was done on cards and bandages. Mrs. Zern and Darlene served a tasty lunch.

Congratulations to a John Martin, one of Rosebud's earliest pioneers, who was presented with the Fifty Year Jewel by Dr. Collett at the Masonic Banquet in Rockyford on March 6th.

Mr. and Mrs. Reece Kenney have now returned from their winter holiday in Arizona. U.S. They certainly chose the right winter to get away from the cold.

I.C.W. Notes

The Assembly meeting of United Church Women was held in the Social Room on March 13th with 13 members present.

Duffield's plans discussed. It was stated that representatives, especially Unit leaders were requested to attend. Christian Unit leaders were requested to attend Christian Education Committee meetings. President Mrs. Freda Hanson stated the combined Sunshine and Mary Martha Units had united and the unit would retain the name as Mary Martha with all efforts combined.

Rev. Horsden of the Lutheran Seminary of Saskatoon is conducting a series of meetings in Standard Mar. 16, 17, and 18th. Everyone is invited to attend these meetings and especially the Catholic Youth Groups and all Jr. Choir is taking part in these meetings.

A resume of the Presbyterial meeting in Calgary on Feb. 11th was given by Mayme Martin. Mrs. Laycraft requested any who desired the "Observer" to get in touch with her before the end of the month.

Program was under the direction of Mrs. Laycraft when she read an article from the Observer entitled "Change in the Church." Followed by a prayer.

A representative for Camp Kewler was requested. Mrs. Hagen has been very faithful for the past number of years and feels she will be unable to carry on this season.

Senior Ladies met on March 20th at 2:00 P.M. at the home of Mrs. Ekse with 12 members and one visitor present. Mrs. Washburn was welcomed as a member having transferred from the Sunshine Unit. Easter tea discussed. Roll Call: Favorite T.V. Programs. Devotional given by Mrs. Washburn entitled "Faith".

Mrs. Washburn reported on the United Church Industries. A service center to help rehabilitate alcoholics where you could take broken articles to be repaired and also good used clothing. These were repaired and resold and money used to help these unfortunate people.

Program continued Mrs. Caldwell then took over and a hymn "Take Time to be Holy" was sung with accompaniment by Mrs. Caldwell with her mandolin. Political discussion then took place, a poem by Mrs. Caldwell recited and an article on China, all proved very interesting.

Mrs. Neil adjourned the meeting and Mrs. Ekse served delicious refreshments.

Namaka Unit met on March 20th at the home of Mrs. Schumann with 10 members and two visitors. Most of the ladies reported they attended at least one session of the meetings held in Standard and which they enjoyed very much. The Eastern tea was discussed and on a suggestion from this unit, it was decided to suggest to the social convener that no bake sale goods would be sold prior to the tea, thus allowing more of our visitors to have a selection of the baking. Mrs. Hanson reported there would be a speaker at the tea as well as the painting by the Art class. The Dutch auction was given by Mrs. Freda Hanson and won by Mrs. Ruth Watson.

Devotional was given by Mrs. Watson. "Family Life in China" and was most informative and interesting.

Mary Martha Unit met at the home of Mrs. G. Riddison with 11 members present. Easter tea discussed. Mrs. Martin reported that all U.C.W. members were requested to donate to the bake table and asked various members to help at the table. Devotional was given by Unit leader Mrs. Short. Charity and Help — Mar. 7, 11-12.

This unit had made 11 visits and more are planned as the weather becomes better.

A film "The Professor and the Angel" was shown by Mrs. Short and we divided into groups and discussed various aspects of the film and then reported our findings.

Chinese session was donated by Mrs. Martin and won by Mrs. Hammer and Mrs. Teare — this was a success and they divided it.

Glenwood Unit were hostesses to the members of the Senior Unit on the evening of March 19th at the home of Mrs. Art Eeles.

Mrs. Federal our president welcomed the members of the Senior Unit and also the visitors. The Devotional "A Creed for all Christians", which was on the Lord's Prayer was given by Mrs. Caldwell. This was a deeply inspiring devotional, and all the ladies then sang "Count Your Blessings".

After a brief business meeting the Ladies then bought new Easter bonnets and wore them for the balance of the evening. Mrs. Caldwell was the Queen of the Evening in a stunning bird-cage creation by Mrs. Ray.

The Glenwood Unit entertained with Charades, and either they were good actresses or the Senior Ladies were much too clever, but they were excellent at guessing.

The evening concluded with a lovely lunch served by some of the members of the Glenwood Unit.

NO MORE OVER CLEANING
If you are in the market for a new range, one of the features you may choose is a self cleaning oven.

How it Works — When the oven control is set for cleaning, the temperature rises to 800°-1000° degrees and the oven door is automatically locked shut.

The soil is burned up and at the end of the 2 to 3 hours cleaning cycle a fine white ash is all that's left of the soil.

The self cleaning range gets no hotter on the outside than a conventional one because of all the insulation. With the additional insulation, however, the aim of the oven is often reduced. Filters and screens remove the smoke and odors but not the heat. You may wish to vent the range in order to get rid of this extra heat.

CUBS COLLECT $90.00

The Annual Father and Son Cubs Bake Sale realized $90.00 for the Strathmore Pack. The rules to enter are, No Mixes, No Mothers and 10 Mess.

The Fathers and Sons have to mix the cake, and clean up after cooking.

The colour schemes were most decorative, with lots of icing to hide the hoochie's.

The winning cake was made by Cub Ward Davies, his entry was an Easter Bunny cake, Ward explained the first idea was to have the Bunny Cake face up, but as the face turned out a mess it was reiced and a tail stuck on "The Beauty of Cake Bunnies is that once you have the outline you can make em coming or going."

The Cubs were to thank Frank Gockx for giving his time in succouring the cakes.

EASTER

HIS RESURRECTION

There was His Life
His vicarious Crucifixion,
Then, Praise our God,
His glorious Resurrection!

There was His call,
there was His cure,
For all men's insurrection.
Our "Lord's Last Supper"
His second swift Ascension.

Sure for us, His Godly Intercession.
He was alive, He is alive,
He will live on, Forever.

So now To Day, He gives true love
To light our life and way.
He gave His all, forgave our sin.

On the Cross of Calvary,
He asks that we His servants be To live with Him — Eternally!

— A.K. Hebbes,

ROYALS HOCKEY LEAGUE WINNERS

LET'S GET NEWSY

Mr. Curtis, the manager of the Co-op Store will be moving into the home formerly owned by Mr. Braden. The Co-op have purchased the house so there will be no problem in having a place for the manager to live.

Mr. Braden will be living in Calgary now with his daughter Mrs. Wilson.

Congratulations to Rev. John Marlor who with nine other Anglican Clergymen will have a month's retraining course in England under the leadership of outstanding Anglican theological teachers. Rev. Marlor will leave April 25th for a month in England where he will visit relatives as well as attend the retraining and exchanging of ideas and problems with other ministers. We are sure he will come back with an enrichment of faith and new ideas to bring to his parish.

An Easter Concert "Victory Divine" will be presented at the Easter Sunday Service in the United Church by the choir. Much time and effort has gone into this project with Mrs. Dougan the able director. Everyone is welcome to attend.

Every church should be filled on Easter Sunday as all people need to renew their faith as new life comes to all nature in the spring of the year.

The Royal Bank staff held a party Mon. night honoring their manager Don Nichol who will soon leave for Edmonton. As a parting gift they presented Don with an attaché bag with their good wishes.

The new manager Mr. H.G. Gulliver from Alx will arrive this week to become acquainted with the staff and district.

Many Strathmore friends and relatives attended the party held in Namaka Friday, night to honor Mr. and Mrs. W. Fawkes on the occasion of their Golden Wedding Anniversary.

Dr. Bradley has purchased the home formerly owned by Don Nichol. They will shortly take possession of it and Mr. and Mrs. Farren and family will move to the apartment above the Strathmore Standard Office. They are making an addition at the back and when this is completed they will be very close to their work.

Mrs. Marlor has been in hospital having treatment for an infected throat. We hope she will soon be better and regain her speaking voice.

SWIMMING POOL GRANT REPAID

The Strathmore Lions Club who built new swimming pool dressing rooms completed them with a $4000.00 grant from the town council. This is now repaid. Thanks to the Walkerton we were allowed to pay this grant back. We would like to thank the town council for their financial help.

The Strathmore Lions Club are making plans for the 1969 summer swimming season. We are getting quotes on repairs to the pool basin. We are also asking for quotes on a new basin to be placed inside the present pool. Our filtering equipment is outdated and may have to be replaced.

To plan for improvements we are budgeting for $5,000.00 from another WALKER TRUST on October 18th or 19th. Other business done by the Lions was the confirmation that we hold another Mother's Day dinner.

FAWKES SILVER WEDDING

A huge crowd attended the 50th Wedding Anniversary celebration of a very popular and well known couple of the Strathmore and Namaka districts, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Fawkes on March 28th at the Namaka Community Hall.

At 6:00 P.M. over 100 relatives and friends sat down to a delicious Turkey Dinner. Afterwards everyone enjoyed a social hour chatting with folks they had not met for many years.

A varied programme and dancing followed to the music supplied by Rachael Flowers, Mabel Bourgeois, Roy Downey, Chas. Watson and Ray Newell. A highlight of this was a mock wedding with Jack Hartell as bride, Connie Blackley as groom, Jack Warrack as bridesmaid, Regula Kearns as best man, Alka Darnen as flower girl and Allie Downey as the preacher, Jack Caldwell was a squeal. All acted professionally. He read Congratulatory telegrams, citations and letters from Prime Minister Trudeau, Leader of the opposition B.L. Stanfield, Lt. Gen. G. MacEwan, Premier H. Strom, Gov. Gen. McInchmer, M.L.A. Gordon Taylor and Stanley S. Shumacher N.C. for fullness.

Charles called on Alex Peterson, a close family friend, to make the presentation on behalf of the community and friends of a lovely set of ironstone dishes and stainless steel flatware, Alex wished them many more years of health and happiness.

William Fawkes Jr. presented his parents with a dishwasher from members of the family in appreciation for all their kindnesses throughout the years.

Jim Harwood, a long time friend of the Fawkes' spoke of the olden days when they were young and even before they were married.

The crowd enthusiastically sang "For They Are Jolly Good Fellows" and rendered 4 lusty cheers. Billy thanked everyone for their kind remarks and expressed his sincere thanks to everyone for the lovely gifts and all who helped to make their anniversary such a happy one. Maggie also expressed her thanks to each and all.

LUTHERAN FESTIVAL CHOIR

Of the many worship services held in our County during Holy Week, one of the most impressive was held at Gleichen. The Lutheran Festival Chorus, under the direction of Mr. Richard Langfeld, led the worshippers with the singing of the "Passion Mass" by Franz Schubert. The five traditional parts of the mass - the Kyrie, Gloria, Credo, Sanctus and Agnus Dei, were sung with feeling and warmth. The height of performance was reached in the singing of the Sanctus with three soloists singing against the background of the choir the traditional words, "Holy, holy, holy; Lord God of hosts." Despite some occasional problems, the performance of the mass with the richness and feeling that Schubert intended. Accompanied by Robert Foot, soloists, choir and director presented a musical worship that was indeed a worship.

This 35 voice choir, sponsored in a combined effort by the Gleichen United Church and Wheatland Lutheran Parish, was formed in 1967 as part of the Lutheran Reformation Festival. The chorus is made up primarily of volunteer members from all of the Lutheran Churches in Calgary. Their primary purpose is to interpret good Christian music to the city of Calgary and surrounding area. Twice they have participated in services of worship in St. Mary's Cathedral in Calgary. Sometimes in May they will be performing in concert at the Jubilee Auditorium in Calgary.

Liturgy for the worship service was Rev. Luther Abrahamson, Rev. Bill Toner of Gleichen United brought the Maundy Thursday meditation and led the closing prayer.

USE OF RESOURCES TO FIGHT FIRES

By A.H. Bridges, Alberta Fire Commissioner

Canada has boundless resources — that is, materials, manpower and technical know how to build fire safe homes, commercial, industrial assembly and institutional buildings. But the will to use these resources wisely for fire protection is quite often lacking. It seems there is always been competition for the use of resources and it often happens that the various essential needs for fire safety, including automatic sprinkler protection, automatic fire detection and other approved fire protection equipment, are repeatedly set aside in favour of other values in current demand. We observe that even when developing fire points clearly to lack of built-in fire protection, it does not always result that proper fire protection by design and engineering will be included when the building is replaced. Our traditional fire and easy though often dangerous attitude to life and property fire safety seems to continue year by year to produce a high fire wast record in Canada. Last year, according to present estimates, 65,767 fires took 390 lives and destroyed $157,500,000 worth of property. It must be said that a proportional amount of this fire destruction in Canada occurred in Alberta.

without increasing fixed expenses is by using fertilizer. The return on investment is excellent.

2 High Moisture

Fortunately, the lack of moisture will not be a problem this Spring. In most places there is already sufficient moisture in the ground to produce a fair crop. If Shell Fertilizer were added now, you could virtually be sure of a bumper crop. You could be sure of increasing your yield and your profit margin, with a small, short term investment in fertilizer.

3 Drying Charges

Last fall's wet harvest may have increased your production cost. You may have had to pay for grain drying equipment or grain drying service. The increased yield that you will get by using Shell Fertilizer now.

$5.00 will be given to U.N.E.S.C.O. Coupon No. 390 to help those less fortunate than we are.

Theme of the conference was "Challenges of Yesterday and Today." The far reaching success of any conference is getting together of a good speaker and topics of every day life.

Kathryn Haberfield spoke to us as our Constituency Convener. One of the main purposes of the W.I. is education of its members, it has been defined as a Rural Women's University, she urged the Ladies to attend conferences and educational meetings, also that we try to impress on the farming husbands the importance of protecting their ears from high pitched tractor noises. Constituency Conference will be at Nightengale May 28th, a Wednesday.

BLACKFOOT BAND VOICES HIGH SCHOOL OPINION

George Fox

This is the first of a four-part series of the opinions and suggestions the parents on the Blackfoot Reserve regarding the proposed centralized High School for Wheatland County. These are not necessarily the views of your reporter but is an effort to indicate the feelings of those involved. This week's article presents the views of those in the West end area of the Reserve, the next two will bring those of the Glenchee and Cluny areas and the last article will be a general summary. During the past few weeks you reporter has interviewed various authorities on the Reserve and they were all in favour of having this report in the papers. You may not agree with all of the opinions but nevertheless this will give you an idea of the general feelings of the parents on the Reserve.

The survey is based on four questions which several people off the Reserve have been asking. The questions were: 1. Are you in favour of the proposed High School centralization within the Wheatland County? 2. Are you in favour of having Indian Residential Schools on the Reserve? 3. What do you think of integration into the white schools? 4. Do you attend Home and School Meetings?

According to the survey of the West end (Namaka) regarding the first question there is a strong feeling among the parents that if this proposed High School could compete with the city schools in the courses offered and quality of teachers then they are for it. The wishes of the parents, with the exception of one family who strongly disagreed, was that they would be in favour of having the school in Strathmore. One of the other reasons given is that they prefer to have their children at home until they are ready for University or Vocational School.

Answers in question 2 regarding Residential Schools on the Reserve showed the feeling that there is still a great need for these kinds of schools for the Indian children who cannot compete with the non-Indian students. The other reasons are to assist the unfortunate children on the Reserve in the line of broken homes, poor, and orphan.

The question - What do you think of integration into the white schools? - was answered as follows. Most of the parents felt we cannot continue to isolate ourselves and therefore if a student can fit into an integrated school he will have a better chance when he is finished school. They feel that there is not a real integration in a true sense but nevertheless are in favour of it.

Regarding Home and School meetings the feeling was that there are too many activities on the Reserve which seem to conflict with the meeting dates. Some of the parents used to attend but no longer do so. Some of the women were interested in attending if they had a way of getting there. It seems that the men are just not interested.

EDITORIAL

We all have to visit the city to use Doctors and Dentists and most of us have the feeling that we are visiting royalty.

Why is it that these people have such a hold upon us? Probably we have some deep seated fear that is a carry over from the ancient Wizardry Witch Doctors and Medicine Men.

Not one of us would do business with any person who was two and three hours late for an appointment, every appointment unless he happens to be a doctor.

These amazing people continue to hold us in thrall and the fees they charge, and the astounding manner they adopt.

It is quite normal after a three hour wait to be ushered in to sit feet by eight hour pen, and wait another half hour for the doctor. Five minutes after you have taken off your clothes you are on your way home, with medical farewells "Come and see me again in six weeks."

What will happen when we get Medicare and our friends the doctors also become quasi servants in any bodied sense.

The only way to break through this uncivility by Doctors and Dentists is for every person to insist in a campaign to walk out of their consulting rooms after an appointment is more than one hour over due.

It is only good that they are overbooked, no other form of business would dare treat their customers in such a nonchalant manner.

LEGISLATIVE REPORT

by Tony Cox CFRN

The Blair Report, a comprehensive, detailed examination of Alberta's mental health services has revealed serious inadequacies in the present system.

It suggests mental health services in the province should be completely re-organized.

Dr. W.R.N. Blair, head of the department of psychology at the University of Calgary feels the first line of attack must go to the recruitment, training and maintenance of the necessary personnel to make mental health services work.

The report was commissioned last year after Premier Ernest Manning announced a White Paper of Human Resources Development.

In his report, Dr. Blair said the public must not blame legislators for the crowded, antiquated mental health services in Alberta. "If you want to point the finger, point it at yourself, above all," he declared to reporters. "All Albertans have to blame for the present state of mental health care in the province," he added.

Dr. Blair's target was the system, not the "hard-working people who staff mental institutions". He recommended admission practices in mental hospitals be changed.

Attempts should be made to treat the mentally disturbed in active treatment hospitals making optimum use of the family physician in consultation with a trained psychiatrist rather than focusing on the mental hospital, he said.

Dr. Blair was most emphatic that the province should not build any more mental hospitals, now or in the foreseeable future. He realized the need for such institutions as Oliver and Ponoka as back-up hospitals to ensure the active-treatment centres don't become plagued.

Other recommendations included:

- Increased use of psychiatric units in general hospitals, out-patient departments, and guidance clinics.
- More community involvement in the treatment of the mentally-ill.
- A need for improved pupil personnel services in schools, especially in rural areas.

- Increased incentives to enhance the status of the family physician.
- More facilities other than active treatment mental hospitals for confused aged.
- Co-ordination of existing services to prevent duplication.
- Decrease the number of patients in mental institutions.

Dr. Blair said Albertans can learn from the programs launched years ago in Saskatchewan where populations of mental institutions were cut by 50 percent in 10 years.

Seeking assistance from the communications media to support and spread his message for an aggressive active case system, Dr. Blair said "forget your sceptic and piddling ratings and push mental health".

The 340-page report drew praise from Premier Harry Stroom as he pledged that his government would make an immediate start implementing its recommendations on a progressive basis.

There were five other significant happenings in the House last week.

The Big Horn Dam hearing closed after five days of testimony with the Opposition Conservatives charging that the government was hiding some facts by not allowing Agriculture Minister Henry Rupp to be a witness stand. Premier Stroom said there was no precedent in Canada where a cabinet minister had to testify concerning government policy. He dismissed the Tory accusation as "political smokescreen".

As predicted two weeks ago, the proposed redistribution formula will increase the number of Legislative seats to 75 from 65 with Edmonton gaining five new seats, Calgary four and Lethbridge one.

Details of the proposed provincial college system were announced. It proposes a provincial college commission to co-ordinate existing public junior colleges, ensure a new junior college for Edmonton, and states that the government will assume a large, financial obligation in the college system, likely $23,000,000 by 1972 with $60,000,000 in capital expenditures over the next five years.

Assurances were given that grain would move over the Alberta Resources Railway to the West Coast at lower rates than those charged by the Northern Alberta Railway.

P. C.'s TO HOLD ANNUAL MEETING

The Progressive Conservative Association of Crowfoot will hold its 1969 Annual meeting in Bassano on Monday, the 21st of April at 2:00 P.M. This meeting is open to the public and is an opportunity for all constituents to hear a report from their Member of Parliament. Because of the long distances many constituents must travel it was decided to hold the meeting in the afternoon. This is an important meeting and everyone is urged to attend. It is hoped that there will be a good attendance of young people, including teen-agers who may have a vote at the next election and who should now be making themselves familiar with the many problems of our Country.

The Progressive Conservative Party of Canada will hold a Policy Meeting before October 30, 1969, and 3 delegates and 3 alternate delegates from Crowfoot Constituency will be elected at this meeting.

The election of officers of this Association for 1969 will take place and every area of the Constituency should be represented on this Executive. 16 delegates from Crowfoot Constituency to the 1969 convention of the Progressive Conservative Association of Alberta, to be held in Edmonton 21-23 November, 1969 will be elected at this meeting. Members in the Association, which are $2.00 each, will be available at the meeting.

SCHOOL MINUT

MINUTES of the County of Wheatland No. 16 School Commission Meeting held at the County Office, Strathmore, on Tuesday, April 15, 1969 commencing at 10:00 A.M. with the following present: Chairman - E. M. Phillips, Members - E. Bollinger, E. Cammash, E. Detmer, E. Ferguson, M. Gregory, C. Madson, J. MacArthur, Mrs. L. Martin, R. Thurston, Supt. of Schools - M. Holman, Sec. Treasurer - F. Martin.

MINUTES Moved, "That the March 10th, 1969 minutes be corrected by recording it was Sharon Kangas that was engaged as teacher for the Husaar School instead of the reported Katherine Kangas and that following this correction the minutes be adopted as read."

PARA-PROP. HELP & SPORTS PROGRAMS: Moved, "That consideration on a policy of para-professional help and also an increase in the sports fund allocation be tabled." Carried
ZONE 5 ASTA: Moved, "That the report of Thurston and Bollinger on the March 28th, 1969 Zone 5 ASTA meeting be accepted." Carried
VOTING ON BY-LAW 69-4: Moved, "That Geo. W. Burns of Gleichen, Alberta be appointed returning officer for the voting on By-Law 69-4."

Carried Moved, "That the poll on By-Law 69-4 be held on Wednesday, May 7th, 1969 with voting tickets place from 9:00 A.M. to 7:00 P.M." Carried Moved, "That the returning officer shall sum up the votes of the poll at the County of Wheatland Office, Strathmore."

CLUNY-GRADE 9: A group of Cluny parents in conjunction with the Cluny Home & School Association comprising the following attended the meeting: Mr. Peter Faerka (Spokesman) Mr. E. Gibeau, Mr. L. Konechuk, Mr. A. Konechuk, Mr. Yule, Mr. F. Dew, Mrs. F. Dew, Mr. D. Cornsall, Mrs. G. Yule, Mrs. M.J. Konechuk, Mrs. F. Michael, Mrs. A. Cornsall Jr.

The delegation heard rumors that Grade Nine would not be taught in Cluny again this coming school year. As there were only four Grade nine students in 1968-1969 no objections were voiced when the County bused these 4 to Gleichen in 1968-1969 thereby resulting in a total class of 26 at Gleichen.

Commencing September 1, 1969 there will be 10 Grade nine students at Cluny and the delegation felt these should be educated at Cluny and as a result the Cluny School staff should be increased by one over 1968-1969.

If these 10 were bused to Gleichen and combined with the present Gleichen class of 16 it would result in a class of from 26-30 for 1969-1970. The delegation feels the students get a better education in a small class.

Bussing in 1968-1969 was not too satisfactory and even if the County paid special buses on for 1969-1970 it will still mean long routes for these students and expensive bus costs.

In conclusion they would like Grade nine taught in their own school.

The School Committee will review the situation and forward a decision later.

HUSAR - GRADE XII: The following persons from the Husaar community attended the meeting: J.J. Armstrong, Jim Treacy, Jack Treacy, L. M. Clark Jr., Claude Barendt, G. Woulton, E. Kneason, Donna Treacy, Mr. and Mrs. Soren Nelson and K. Larsen.

Basically Jack Armstrong acted as spokesman for this group. As there will be approximately 100 for students to take Grade XII at Husaar in September 1969 the delegation is of the opinion that Grade XII should be taught at Husaar and that effective October 1st, 1969 one additional teacher be placed on the Husaar staff over the 1968-69 year.

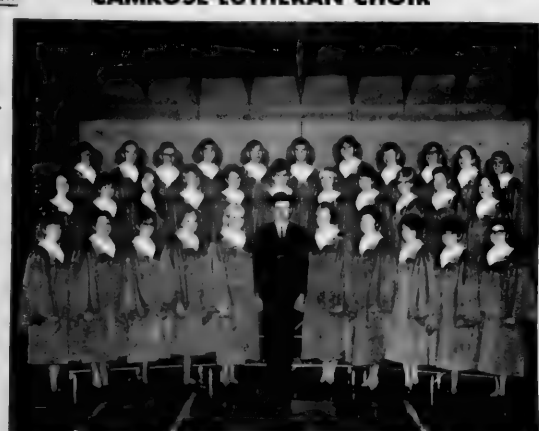

Reference was made to a meeting which took place on the Husaar school. The delegation expressed their group and personal views to the School Committee and personally to a number of members of the committee.

CAMROSE LUTHERAN CHOIR

The Camrose Lutheran College Choir will present a concert at Strathmore Lutheran Church, Standard on Sunday, April 27, at 7:00 p.m. The choir is under the direction of Mr. Daw Knudson. Camrose Lutheran College is a co-educational residential school, situated in Camrose, offering programs in High School, Grades 11 and 12, on an approved eight - month program, and the first two years of university in its Junior College Department.

WHOOOPER UPPER DAY

What is Whooper-Upper Day? It is a day when all residents of Strathmore and District regardless of race, color, creed or affiliation, can get together in a mood of comradeship and festivity all pull toward a common end - the appreciation of our community. The origin of Whooper-Upper Day was in 1964 when the Town Council and the Chamber of Commerce decided to welcome the trail riders from Medicine Hat on their way to the Calgary Stampede. Trail riders have ceased but, Whooper-Upper Day continues. Thus, in 1966, Memorial Day, Whooper-Upper Day was born. We now know it, evolved, simply as a spontaneous desire on the part of the residents of the area to enjoy a holiday. This celebration has been set as the first Monday in August which has since been declared a day of merit.

The daylong festivities begin with a free chuck wagon breakfast at the Memorial Hall. This is followed by a parade of floats, bicycles, horses, equipment and individuals displaying whatsoever their tastes or fancies dictate them to produce. From this parade the emigrants to the stampede grounds in the park where a rodeo features some of the best bucking stock and meanest bulls in the country. A fine group of professional riders vie for the accolades of the crowd as they pit their talents against the ornery critters. Following these thrilling events, a barbecue is held at the camp kitchen in Lambert Park. The day winds up where it started, at the Memorial Hall, where a coffee klatch is a full day of merriment. This is Whooper-Upper Day - Strathmore style!

To sponsor such a day requires the cooperation of the whole community. The local merchants donate the ingredients for the free chuck wagon breakfast - sausages, bacon, flap jacks and coffee served with the help of the Rockyfollies Lions to the strains of a Western band and managed by the Canadian Legion. The parade is a literal hodge-podge of imagination displaying the enthusiasm of the community. The rodeo features outstanding bucking stock and the abilities of the Footfills Cowboy Association. During these infidel activities the local Lions Club operate games of chance and children's rides. The gates for these grounds activities are ably controlled by the Knights of Columbus. The barbecue exhibits the talents of members of the local Elks Club and the evening dance is handled by the local branch of the Royal Canadian Legion. Wended throughout all of these activities are numbers of local residents who are doing their bit for the community with no affiliation to any organization involved.

The day originated with a non-profit theme and, as such, all profits have been returned to the grounds. From a beginning of nothing, Community now has corals, chaises, bleachers and facilities for handling the crowds at the gate. All profits will continue to improve the park and playground facilities. Truly we are coming of age.

The Legion, Lions and Elks Clubs receive 75% of the proceeds from their enterprises with 25% being turned over to the Whooper-Upper Committee for expenses. The Knights of Columbus donate their services for the betterment of the community with no monetary consideration.

The Whooper-Upper Committee was formed with two representatives from each participating organization as well as those interested citizens who strive to make a success of this day. This committee continues to be formed in this way. The Whooper-Upper Committee is grateful to the men, women and organizations of the community who donate their time and energy to ensure a successful day. This year's Annual Whooper-Upper Day is on Monday August 4th. Reserve it on your calendar now and join us in a day of true fellowship.

ALFALFA CUTTING PRACTICES

BY DR. H.R. HAUGA
D.V.M., M.S., D.M.S. (Landscape)
A standard recommendation for alfalfa cutting is to cut the alfalfa at approximately the 1/3 to 1/2 bloom stage, at the stage when the alfalfa is in full bloom.

selection of alfalfa, make use of many factors. This recommendation should not be written into the rule book and then forgotten. It may pay to re-evaluate its significance occasionally and to examine the effects of cutting earlier or later.

There is certainly nothing made or secret about the alfalfa figure. It has been advanced because a fairly satisfactory balance between forage yield and forage quality can generally be achieved at this point. The total dry matter increases steadily from the time growth begins in the spring or after a crop is cut until the plants are in full bloom. The dry matter of alfalfa is a steady decline in forage quality. One of the best indicators of this is the decline in protein content. Hay or forage the drier or less appear may contain as much as 50 per cent protein, whereas alfalfa 1-1/2 to 2-1/2 months old may contain as little as 10 per cent. The dry matter of the alfalfa also drops markedly as the crop matures.

FEWER SHIPMENTS SEEN

Prospects for grain traffic on the Great Lakes St. Lawrence system this year are in some circles as the bleakest in memory. The annual times in a Montreal story says movements are expected to be down more than 60 percent from 1968, and notes that a number of allied industries could feel the effect.

The St. Lawrence Seaway season got underway last week (Great Lakes navigation officially opened April 11th) with shipping companies offering to carry wheat from the Lakehead to the St. Lawrence for eight cents a bushel. This is five cents cheaper than the heavy grain traffic year of the early 60's and only half of what it cost to ship the same amount to Montreal in 1958.

The poor outlook for grain movements is not without effect on port and terminal elevator operators. There have been made by the National Harbours Board for authorization to handle more U.S. grain - a privilege granted by U.S. commercial vessels in the lower Gulf. Says F.T., at this stage it is difficult to see how public elevation will benefit it.

The poor outlook for grain movements is not without effect on port and terminal elevator operators. There have been made by the National Harbours Board for authorization to handle more U.S. grain - a privilege granted by U.S. commercial vessels in the lower Gulf. Says F.T., at this stage it is difficult to see how public elevation will benefit it.

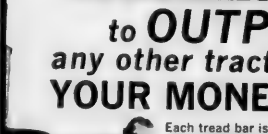

Last year the five main grain-exporting ports on the St. Lawrence shipped 155 million bushels overseas. Two years earlier they had moved 37 million bushels. There is currently little reason to expect that this season's grain traffic will exceed that of 1968. The situation could see some St. Lawrence elevator operators wanting out of their investment.

STANDARD

By Mrs. D.N.

Murray Sanderson is back at school, after spending most of his holidays in Itasca hospital suffering from pneumonia.

Mrs. and Mr. Ray Adair of Rainbow Lakes spent a few days at home. While they were here 1st and 2nd daughter visited with her folks and the boys.

Mrs. Ole Fredrickson gave a most interesting and informative talk to the Sociology Class on Thursday. She outlined Farm Problems as pictured at the Agriculture Congress held in Ottawa in March at which she was a delegate.

Sorry that Ian Grant was stepped on by a horse breaking two bones in his foot, and is now wearing a cast.

Many of our young girls participated in the Husar - Standard 4-H Sewing Club Achievement Night held in Husar Monday. The leaders of this worthwhile project are to be commended for the tremendous job they are doing in teaching these girls not only how to sew professionally, but also the value and charm which they gain. Carmen Lynn and Amy Rasmussen gave their Public Speaking Talks. Joanne Enveloeden, as Junior Public Speaking Leader, gave an Impromptu Talk. Deb Fraser made the very fine tribute to her mother, Charlotte Jensen won the best modelling prize and Susan Larsen a trophy for best Project Book. Congratulations to these and to all who took part.

Mrs. Marianne Bach underwent surgery in Calgary General Hospital last week. Our best wishes for a quick recovery.

MONDAY MAY 7th IS THE DAY FOR IMPORTANT DECISIONS WHICH WILL HAVE A PROFOUND EFFECT ON THE FUTURE OF OUR RURAL ENVIRONMENT.

THE SCHOOL PLEBISCITE WILL BE HELD AND THE PEOPLE HAVE THE RESPONSIBILITY OF THEIR CHILDREN'S EDUCATION IN THEIR HANDS.

WHAT WILL BE THE OUTCOME OF THIS PLEBISCITE CALLED A "DECISION" BY THE PEOPLE.

IF THE PROPOSED GRADE A HIGH SCHOOL IS VOTED OUT THEN CERTAIN FACTS WITHIN THE COUNTY WILL HAVE WON THE LONG DRAWN OUT BATTLE.

WHAT WILL THIS ACHIEVE APART FROM A PERSONAL FEELING OF SATISFACTION TO THE OPPOSED INDIVIDUALS.

THE CALAMITY OF A VOTE WHICH VOTED "NO" WILL BE A DRASTIC TAX HIKE FORCED UPON THE RATEPAYERS OF THE COUNTY OF WESTLAND NO. 16.

THIS WILL BE BROUGHT ABOUT BY THE NEED FOR A SCHOOL IN STRATHMORE WHICH WILL BE BUILT WITH OUT VERY MUCH AID FROM PROVINCIAL GOVERNMENT.

WORSE THAN A TAX HIKE WILL BE THE FACT THAT EVEN WHEN THE INFERIOR TYPE SCHOOL HAS BEEN ERECTED OUR YOUNGSTERS WILL NOT BE ABLE TO TAKE THE RANGE OF SUBJECTS, THAT OTHER STUDENTS ENJOY.

OVER THE RIVER IN VULCAN COUNTY THEY HAD A SIMILAR SET OF CIRCUMSTANCES TO OURS.

THOSE VULCAN RATEPAYERS VOTED YES AND THE BITTERLY OPOSED SECTION OF THE COMMUNITY ARE TODAY STAINCH SUPPORTERS OF THE HIGH SCHOOL.

PERHAPS THIS HAPPY SITUATION COULD DEVELOP IN OUR COUNTY WHEN THE PLEBISCITE ON MAY 7th GOES IN WITH A RESOUNDING YES.

BLACKFOOT BAND VOICES HIGH SCHOOL OPINION

This week's report combines the second and third of a four-part series of those interviewed in the Blackfoot and Cluny districts as to the Reserve, regarding the proposed Centralized High School for Westland County. The questions asked were the same as in previous survey.

The questions were: 1. Are you in favour of the proposed High School centralization within the Westland County? 2. Are you in favour of having Indian Residential Schools on the Reserve? 3. What do you think of integration into the white schools? 4. Do you attend Home School Meetings? In the Cluny area the first question was answered this way.

The parents are in favour of a centralized High School within the Westland County. Their opinions were divided in three ways. One-third of the parents favoured a school on the Blackfoot Reserve, but one-third of the parents suggested to have the school in Cluny. While the other one-third were in favour of a school in Strathmore. Those that were in favour of a school on the Blackfoot Reserve felt the white students should integrate into the Reserve for a change. The parents that suggested Cluny did so because it was closer to the Reserve. Strathmore was the final choice, because some parents felt that this was the ideal location for such a school. Your reporter only interviewed some of the authorities in the Cluny area, but in turn were willing to speak for the parents.

The reason for this was due to insufficient time of the Newspaper schedule for publication. It seems that in this area they are not in favour of a Centralized High School for the Westland County, but a strong feeling for a High School on the Blackfoot Reserve with now - Indian students attending. Cluny parents felt there was still a need for Residential schools for the unfortunate and slow learners.

The opinion in the Cluny area was a strong feeling that there is still a need for Residential schools on the Reserve. The reasons given was that the children feel at home in studying in their own Indian School.

The parents in the Cluny district answered question 3 as follows. The parents are in favour of an integrated school, now parents felt that integration was coming anyway and that it was proper to keep pace with the times.

Although a few parents are feeling that their children are not integrating, not for racial reasons, but for material reasons. In Cluny it seems they have doubts about integration, but a few were in favour of the idea. Question 4 seems to vary in many ways in both areas. Some parents do attend Home and School meetings. While others just don't seem to find time to attend a meeting. A suggestion was made that maybe we should have a separate Home and School meeting on the Reserve with the teachers attending these meetings or have some of the regular Home and School meetings held on the Blackfoot Reserve.

HUSSAR HAPPENINGS

Hussar formed a Recreation Board and had a meeting where it was suggested that all Clubs in Hussar form under one Fund and get along. But how can they when on Club destroys another. Such an incident occurred on April 1st, when a group of fire-hay phantoms set the Laborers Golf course a-buzz for the second time as well as causing considerable damage to the Hussar and a young Assistant's Corolla and other property.

No support was received from the Town Council pertaining to the passing of a Bylaw existing that there is to be no grass burning down on Park Road and vandalism.

LETTER to the EDITOR

TO THE RATEPAYERS OF STRATHMORE.

On Wednesday, May 7, 1969 you will have the opportunity to vote on the plebiscite for the composite senior high school.

We believe the School Committee of the County of Wheatland have come up with an excellent plan. A plan designed to upgrade the quality of education for the senior high school and at the same time alleviate the desperate overcrowding of the elementary grades.

If the plebiscite is defeated, there will be no quality of education. The School Committee will be faced with expensive piece-meal alterations and additions, the cost of which could amount to an added seven to eight million on town taxes alone to pay the increased school requirements.

The Town Council urges you to get out and vote and to vote YES. You owe it to the children and to yourselves.

Anyone wishing a ride to the poll may phone 382-3244 or 382-3133.

Re: Plebiscite May 7th on the proposal to build a Composite High School in Strathmore.

Let there be no doubt that May 7th is a crucial day in the life of the County of Wheatland, in the midst of disagreements, disputes, sectional rivalries and regional divisions, let us not lose sight of the one primary goal of this vital plebiscite. The entire question boils down to one simple central issue: What is best for the students of the County? All other issues are secondary. We have to ask ourselves if, under the present system, our students are receiving the standard of education to which they are entitled. ALL children in Alberta, rural or urban shall have equal educational opportunities. Do the County Senior High Schools offer equal educational opportunities? The obvious answer is "No".

Information from all sources point up the fact that our present system is outdated and inadequate. Our children are not getting their rightful opportunity for scholastic preparation needed for post-secondary advancement. Neutral specialists keep telling us that "What is best is clear?" It is a sad fact of modern life that the small high school has become obsolete. No one is to blame for this; it is another victim of a rapidly changing society. The increased demands of modern society have made the schools with limited curricula inadequate. There was a time when they served the needs very well; time has passed them by. Now when students need a chance to choose from a full credit curriculum they are restricted in their opportunities for the future. They are being denied the basic rights offered to students in larger centres; plainly they are getting the short end of the stick. It is obvious that a Composite High School with Full credit courses offered to an adequate number of students taught by teacher-specialist in classes of reasonable size is the only solution.

Thorough studies were made in regard to location and the town of Strathmore was found to be the most generally advantageous in the County. Strathmore's position near the city and the University, on a main highway, the undisputed centre of population and growth, all make it the most logical choice.

All the steps laid down by the Dept. of Education have been followed to the letter and have been approved by the Government. The funds have been allocated. All that is needed is the permission of the rate-payer voter. Surely we have never been more ready for the great leap forward! The Foundation Plan of equalized assessment was set up to aid areas such as ours in upgrading education. Now it is our turn to take advantage of this assistance. This is our Golden Opportunity! Let us not miss it!

There is a significant social bonus to this Composite High School. It is a welcome victim of a rapidly changing society. The increased demands of modern society have made the schools with limited curricula inadequate. There was a time when they served the needs very well; time has passed them by. Now when students need a chance to choose from a full credit curriculum they are restricted in their opportunities for the future. They are being denied the basic rights offered to students in larger centres; plainly they are getting the short end of the stick. It is obvious that a Composite High School with

It is easy to assess the advantages of a Composite High School. What if the plebiscite is rejected? Bluntly, it would be along step backward, the harm would be felt and paid for a long time to come. For one thing our taxes would balloon. As an example, take a look at the Strathmore school; present facilities are so critically overcrowded in the elementary section that added rooms are an absolute must to meet even current needs.

The additions necessary may not meet with Government approval and if they do not, the cost of expansion will come out of increased taxation. County, towns and villages will be paying through the nose.

If these secondary measures are taken, are they not merely stopgap efforts? What will be solved?

Has the educational system been upgraded? Not a thing will have changed. The opportunity of a lifetime is within our grasp on May 7th. Let us take advantage of it. Let the county children take advantage of it. The county, the children and society will benefit. If the plebiscite fails we will be back where we started with nothing to show for it. Afterwards we will be older, quite a bit poorer, maybe a little wiser but our children will not be one bit better off. To reject the proposed school is to swim against the stream of progress. It will take time to start over on another plan, the county will be put on the bottom of the pile for applications of statement of need, the Federal funds allocated will be lost. Our children will be denied a fair education.

The issue before you is clear cut. Vote "YES" for the Composite High School; it will indicate your concern for the best possible education for ALL our children. Vote "NO" and it will reflect the fact that you cannot share our concern for the quality of County education. Your vote cannot be interpreted any other way.

Please vote and vote "YES" on May 7th.

Wheatland Citizens Committee.

A good thing always gets around

You've probably heard the word from your friends and neighbors: UFA farm delivery trucks are on the move ... on the move ensuring that your storage tanks are full. Service is one of the good things about UFA that Alberta farmers are talking about. This dependable service and the knowledge of your own UFA oil agent are basic to United Farmers' sound business reputation. That's getting around, too.

Last year an impressive list of Alberta farmers earned a 12 cent dividend on their petroleum purchases from UFA. We hope you were one of them. Have you heard the word? Then call or see .....

The Busiest Busybody

He's no snooper, but there's a man who knows a lot about when your wife cooks your morning bacon and eggs.

He also knows about other housekeeping habits - such as when your wife does the laundry or turns up the heat.

He knows this because it's his job to see that the gas for your burners - untrapped sometimes hundreds of miles from production fields - is ready before your appliance is turned on.

The man who knows isn't really a busybody. He's a highly trained man in charge of obtaining huge quantities of gas from many sources. He must direct its flow through hundreds of miles of pipelines to communities throughout Alberta.

He, and other "dispatchers" like him at key positions on Alberta's gas transmission systems, must see that thousands of gas customers get all the gas they want - regardless of the amount, the time or weather.

To accomplish this, he estimates the demand for gas and the time it is needed in each community. Then he issues orders to maintain just the right gas pressure to deliver the right amount of gas to each community.

To help with his job, the chief has a crew of highly trained assistants.

They keep in constant touch with gas sources in the production fields, the company's compressor stations, points of delivery, underground storage fields, weather stations, regulator stations and more.

It's a 24-hour-a-day job. Nights, weekends and holidays, trained men are on the job to provide natural gas. And each man has the ability to act in an emergency.

So you can see why the chief dispatcher knows a lot about your household habits. Because he knows just how much gas you need - and when you need it. You can count on natural gas for round-the-clock, round-the-year service.

BLACKFOOT BAND VOICES HIGH SCHOOL OPINION

This concludes the series of articles of opinions of some of the Blackfoot Citizens regarding the proposed centralized High School for Wheatland County.

The questions were: 1. Are you in favour of the proposed High School Centralization within the Wheatland County? 2. Are you in favour of having Indian Residential Schools on the Reserve. 3. What do you think of integration into the white schools? 4. Do you attend Home and School Meetings?

The general summary of those parents on the Reserve interviewed is as follows—

The opinions of the citizens of the Reserve throughout the Wheatland County on the Blackfoot Reserve is as follows. It seems that the first question is answered in this way. The majority of the parents seem to be in favour of a Centralized High School. This proposed plan seems to meet their approval in the line of Education for their children. Many of the parents are in favour of having this school in Strathmore. This location seems to meet their approval in many ways.

Then again the second suggestion in answer to the first question was that some parents are not in favour of a Centralized High School. Some parents acrossely feel that a High School on the Reserve would be their wishes, with non-Indian students attending.

A few parents were in favour of a Centralized High School in Gleichen. The town of Gleichen was chosen because it is about the centre of the Blackfoot Reserve.

It seems that the majority of parents are not in favour of Indian Residential Schools for all Indian children, but a feeling was that there is still a need for these schools for some unfortunate children. This is the feeling of most of the parents around Gleichen and Nakama Areas, but in the County district their idea is different. They prefer to keep the Indian Residential School, which seems to meet the parent's approval.

In this survey I discovered that all the Indian parents are in favour of integration. There isn't one parent that was against integration. They answered in this way, integration isn't just sharing the same classroom, or reading out of the same book, but accepting each other as human beings regardless of what colour, race or creed, this is true down to earth integration.

The final question regarding Home and School meetings is a very difficult question to answer. The answers given vary in many ways. The problem here seems that there is no communication. Maybe this matter should be studied more seriously in many ways.

We hope that these series of articles published in our local paper will give you some idea of the feelings of the Indian parents on the Blackfoot Reserve. Many of the Indian parents are concerned about the education for their children in spite of many obstacles in the way. We hope that the results of the school plebiscite will be for the good of our High School Students.

Fire fighters battled to control a serious fire in Riadana Garage and Machine Shop on Saturday, May 3rd at 8:00 A.M.

The fire was well established before the alarm was raised, the roof rafters were burning and the smoke from the oil and grease made conditions very difficult for the firefighters. The firemen concentrated their efforts in stopping the flames burning through the roof, which it happened could well have caused a fire comparable with N24 when Strathmore Main Street was gutted. The cause of the fire, appears to have been a short circuit in Mr. Thor Larsen's half ton truck which had been in the Garage for repairs, flames quickly spread in the oil soaked materials in the building.

The Strathmore Fire Brigade were very efficient and had the fire out within one hour of the alarm. The way those volunteer firemen worked was inspiring, every fireman was at the fire within five minutes and M. & M. Drilling arrived with their water tankers as stand by units.

A fine display by Strathmore's Fire Brigade and other helpers.

George Risdon reports that although the damage to the building is extensive, the Machine Shop will be back into production when ever the electric wiring has been checked.

CLOSING EXERCISES FOR STANDARD GRADUATES FRIDAY MAY 2

The School Auditorium gayly decorated to accent the theme "I've Got to Be Me," was the scene for a memorable occasion in the lives of the 19 graduates — Neil Brandon, Annie Clark, Iona Elder, Darryl Envidsen, Lyle Gates, Ray Harris, Patricia Hussin, Terry James, Dallas Jensen, Judith Jensen, Bodil Larsen, Clifford Larsen, Greg Laycock, Brian Milbak, Susven Nelson, Keith Nelson, Edward Pedersen, Eric Sundgaard, Beverly Wells.

A banquet for about 200 proceeded the closing exercises. Clifton Hussin proved a personable and effective Master of Ceremonies. Pastor L. Abrahamson said grace. Toast to the parents was given by Iona Elder and responded to by Ken Elder.

A talented group of High School girls sang several appropriate numbers after which Joanne Nelsons proposed the toast to the Grads, to which Susve Nielsen responded.

The Grade 12 class formed a receiving line while the tables were cleared away to make room for the large number of invited guests for the Closing Exercises.

GLEICHEN LIONS CLUB

By Allan Vander Velde

The regular meeting of the Gleichien Lions Club was held April 15 at the Gleichien School. The Lions regret that Al Jordan is leaving our community and wish him well in his new home at Medicine Hat.

With the return of warmer weather, our Gun Club has resumed its activities and a shoot was to be held on April 27. The return of spring weather has also brought the subject of our annual Sports Day to prominence with this year's event to take place on July 19. A Queen Contest will be held in conjunction with the Sports Day and the program for the day will be basically the same as last year.

The Club hoped with regret that our proposal for a new fire engine did not receive approval from the Gleichien Town Council as town taxes would have to go up if the proposal was put through so the matter has been dropped for the time being.

The Hockey crests provided by the Lions Club were presented at the annual Sports Recognition night held at Meadowbrook Hall on May 3rd. The matter of savings for the Sports Grounds was to be investigated and at the April 28 meeting, it was decided that we could build them ourselves more cheaply than if we purchased them ready-made.

District Governor Leigh Williams was in attendance at the April 15 meeting and made the drive for the Sub-of-the-Month, won this time by Joyce Ball Bear of Gleichien. Mr. Williams also presented a Key Award to Lion President H. Saure.

Details of the Walkathon were presented by M. Demetrichuk and a full report of that venture has already been published. Thanks go out to all those who supported the project and made it a success.

Officers for next year were nominated and it is hoped that incoming Lion President Gordon Hall and his new executive will have a successful and rewarding year.

At the regular meeting held on Monday, April 28, Ron Saure of the Gun Club reported that the scheduled shoot was not held but future shoots will be arranged.

Bill Wilson of the Boys and Girls Committee reported that the status of minor league baseball is in doubt due to a shortage of coaches and any volunteers in this respect would be much appreciated. Although the Lions Club has now discharged its responsibilities with regard to the History Book, we would like to advise those who mislaid out on the first order that a second order is being taken by the United Church Women and books will be available. R. Desjardins reported on a very good Officers School and indicated that the guest speaker, Nasser Fudele from Bombay, India, who is a candidate for 3rd VP at the International Convention in Tokyo, was very grateful for the $5,000 which District 37 E is donating for a lens grinding machine for India.

For a complete list of items to remind you that our Charter Night is to be held June 20 and a good time is guaranteed.

STRATHMORE HOME & SCHOOL

Monday - April 28th

Mrs. Quinton, Assistant Director of Student Awards at the University of Calgary, was the guest speaker. She presented the trophies to all interested students in Grades 10, 11 & 12 to attend University days during the week ends in May. $200.00 fee gives the student a day and night on campus with talks and demonstrations in all faculties.

The Alberta Government will help students needing financial assistance. Both the Federal and Provincial governments give to the Student's Assistance Board. The first time this year the government will let money go out of the province to those wishing to attend Universities and students who are in need of further assistance. There has been an increase in grant money and $807.00 is now the total maximum. It takes eight to ten weeks for an application to be processed and no money is given to the student until he or she enrolled at University. There is an emergency fund available for short term loans to students. For students obtaining an average of 80% or better there are two automatic scholarships of $100. from the Government and $50. from the University. There is a shortage of scholarships and students should fill in more than one application. A list of scholarships may be found in the back of the University Faculty Calendar.

Mrs. Quinton was a most interesting speaker and it was unfortunate that the attendance was not better.

Home and School are going to sponsor the "Pedal Pushers Club" - a safety training program for children on bicycles. Also the usual assistance and Students Union will be given for the Graduation Banquet.

GREEN ACRES

By A.E. Edwards, Dist. Agr.

DORMANCY IN WILDOATS: The following release from the Lethbridge Research Station is of interest to farmers who have a Wild oat problem. Wild oat seeds are known to remain dormant in the soil for several years. Investigations on this dormancy which wild oats have been underway at the Lethbridge Station for the past ten years. Some of the results should be of interest to those who are interested in wild oat control. Four distinct varieties of wild oat have been found in Southern Alberta. The infestation in any field is a mixture of two or more. Although there is a range in the dormancy with which the varieties, in general, the two brown-hulled varieties produce seed with greater dormancy than do the gray-hulled ones.

Seeds produced on plants growing in the green house at high temperatures and in relatively dry soil are considerably less dormant than those produced at lower temperatures in moist soil. This fact helps to explain why wild oats are less troublesome in the warmer and drier sections of southeastern Alberta than in the western and more northerly grain-growing areas of the province. Under laboratory conditions the dormancy of wild oat seeds can be overcome, at least in part, by soaking in nitrate solutions. This finding can be put to use in the field. Broadcast applications of nitrogen fertilizers (e.g., ammonium nitrate) will increase the germination of the wild oat seed present in the soil. If such an application is made a month to six weeks before crop seeding, there is an excellent chance that a large proportion of the potential infestation will start growing and can be culled out before the crop is seeded. However, there is no guarantee that the seeded crop will not have a more severe infestation than if fertilizer had not been applied. The use of fertilizers either in early spring or at time of seeding will also help to reduce one of the measures for wild oat control. Our experience has shown that any fertilizer treatment beneficial to crop growth will also be beneficial to wild oat plants growing with the crop. It would appear, therefore, that fertilizers should not be used on grain crops in which a severe infestation of wild oat is present. Out herbicides is also used.

STRATHMORE PROM & GRADUATION

The school auditorium was the scene of a most impressive and memorable occasion when forty Graduates were honored. The Graduating Class class as their theme "Tomorrow is Another Day" and the auditorium was beautifully decorated to fit the theme.

On Friday, May 9th, the Graduates and their parents enjoyed a very delicious banquet. Mr. W.I. MacKenzie, Principal of the Samuel Crowther School, acted as Master of Ceremonies. The honored guest speaker, Honorable Justice C. Kirby, was ably introduced by Mr. M. Holman, Superintendent of Schools. Justice Kirby congratulated the students on their achievement and his message to them was very inspiring indeed. The problems they will face in a world they would soon be entering, will not be easy to solve. Each and every one of them will have serious decisions to make in a permissive society, a society of new morality and one with its many evils, the most prevalent today—that of drugs. All present then joined with Justice Kirby and roared the Graduating Class. Sheila Ramsay graciously replied to the toast and on behalf of the Grad. kindly thanked Justice Kirby for the stimulating address.

The Valedictory Address was ably given by Justice Boschman. Her presentation and message were appreciated by all.

During the evening, the Grade and their guests were treated to piano selections by Elaine Snellett and vocal selections by Coleen Kermack. Murial Kermack proposed the toast to the parents and was responded to by Mr. Art Christensen. Wayne Jones proposed the toast to the teachers to which Mrs. M. Vermont replied. On Saturday night, the Grade returned for the Graduation Prom. The twenty-one young ladies looked exquisite in their beautiful formal gowns and all the invited guests danced throughout the evening to the varied music of "The 80's".

The highlight of the evening was the announcing of the Queen of the Prom and Miss Ramsay, and the Man of the Hour, Doug Will. A hearty applause was given by all as the young couple danced, very proud indeed to have been given such an honor.

The evening was thoroughly enjoyed by all who attended. The Grade then left for the Strathmore Hotel where they enjoyed a midnight Snowgizzard.

FISHING FUN

Strathmore Wolf Cubs proudly display the winning fish. First Stephen Farran - 5 lbs., Second Larry Fedorachuk - 4 lbs., Third Blaine Hallert and Kevin Farran - 3 1/2 lbs.

The fish were really biting and the Wolf Cubs had great fun. The biggest fish weighing 5 lbs. was on the hook when the line snapped. Stephen jumped into the water and sat on the fish - one of the many which didn't get away.

STRATHMORE LOSES SCHOOL

The feeling at the Chief Returning Officer's office was very tense as the results of the School Plebiscite were phoned in.

With only ten votes difference between the two factions, only one polling station remained to inform George Burnie of their result. The station was Level Land.

The telephone in Level Land went out of order and there seemed to be no way of finding the results. Finally Frank Martin, County Secretary, phoned a Mrs. Gram who undertook to drive over to the Poll and obtain the results.

The anti-climax was Level Land voted eleven and eleven against.

The validity of some votes has been queried by both factions and it appears that we have not heard of this controversial Plebiscite yet!

Land deals, double deals, and ineligible voters turned the democratic system into a farce!

LETTER to the EDITOR

Box 597,
Strathmore, Alta.
May 8, 1969.

The Editor,
Strathmore Standard,
Strathmore, Alta.

Dear Mr. Parran:

That some of the residents of Strathmore and surrounding district should resort to rigged tactics to win or defeat the recent school plebiscite is almost unbelievable.

As a resident of Strathmore for the past five years I feel ashamed for those responsible. If we want to attract responsible citizens and new business to our town we need better advertisement when we make the headlines of a Calgary Daily newspaper then: - LAND BOOM - Lots for St. Feuille's Country.

Apart from the black eye dealt the town I can think of no better way to waste the taxpayers money than risk the possibility of the result of the voting being declared null and void.

Yours truly,
Mrs. Hector McLean

INSECT CONTROL:

Insects will be invading crops, gardens and trees in the very near future. Insect control chemicals are available to help us keep the balance of nature in our favor.

Several publications are available from the Agr. Extension offices throughout the country as follows:

Pub. 625 - Control of Garden Pests (ADA)

Pub. 625-01 - Chemicals for Insect Control on the Prairies (Co-op Pubs)

Pub. 627 - Control of Insects in Trees, Shrubs and Shelterbelts (ADA)

Pub. 632 - Control of Field Crop Insects - ADA

WEED CONTROL:

Everyone is busy preparing the land for seeding and sowing crops. A few are delaying seeding on account of wild oats. Cultural methods are a major part of weed control. Some everyone will be thinking in terms of Chemical Weed Control and want to study up on application rates and methods - as well as the best chemical to use.

A few publications are available to help us become re-informed about Herbicides and their use - as follows:

Pub. 641 - Use of Soil Sterilants - ADA

Pub. 641-1 - Chemical Weed Control in Field Crops - ADA

Pub. 641-128 - Chemical Weed Control in Forage Crops - ADA

SOIL DRIFTING DANGER:

The possibility of soil drifting is an ever-present menace in the County of Wheatland. Drifting starts when three conditions are combined. They are: Pulverized soil, extremely dry weather, and high winds. Moisture conditions are adequate now - but we are already getting the windier the soil is drying fast.

Some soil drifting has already taken place and it is bad enough. But let's insure that we don't have widespread drifting and take precautions now by following recommended Soil Conservation practices - as follows:

- Leave our fields in ridged and cloddy conditions at right angles to the prevailing winds.

- Practice trash farming, keeping enough trash on the soil surface to protect it against high winds.

- Practice strip cropping - avoid leaving large fields exposed to the wind.

- Use cover crops to an advantage.

- Seed vulnerable soils to forage crops.

- Plant field shelterbelts of appropriate trees.

- Be prepared to use emergency methods of ridging the soil surface where erosion does start.

You already know where most prices are going. Up. So you'd naturally expect the brand-new '69 cars shown here to cost a lot more than last year's. Fact is, many cars in this year's line-up from Chevrolet cost less, much less, than last year's models. For instance, the 2-door Impala, equipped with power disc brakes, Turbo Hydramatic transmission, whitewalls, wheel covers and head restraints, plus a bigger motor than last year, is yours for $120.50 less than last year's figure. And comparable savings are waiting for you on many Nova, Chevelle and Camaro models. In other words, you can buy many of this year's cars at less than last year's prices. Which is what putting you first is all about. From the top, Chevy Nova, Chevelle Malibu, Camaro and Impala.

Every Chevrolet has to make it before we export it.

NATIONAL FARM UNION BRIEF

By Paulina Jasman
FWA President

The annual NFU Brief to the Federal Government was given a hearing Monday May 13th by Prime Minister Trudeau and Cabinet members in attendance. The theme of the submission was set by Mr. Adkin, President of the NFU with other members of the NFU Council and cabinet ministers freely participating in the discussion.

The wide-ranging brief included recommendations for government action to stabilize prices and increase farm net income on the whole range of Canadian farm products.
The NFU asked implementation of a program for farmers which would guarantee every farmer holder a basic price of $2.75 per bushel each year for the first 2000 bushels of wheat.

Flaxseed production was advocated, with the Canadian Wheat Board announcing each year the quota level the farmer would receive, with a basic minimum of one bushel per specified acre.

Support for orderly marketing of all grains through the Canadian Wheat Board was recommended as was endorsement of the International Grains Arrangement. Expansion of export trade and credit liberalization in this area was a two-price system for wheat was also asked.

In the area of dairying, the NFU sought a minimum of $5.50 per cwt. for milk on a farm's quota; retention of the 12,000 pounds of milk; 400 pounds of butterfat for eligibility for subsidy payments; flexibility in transfers and export equalization deductions applicable against industrial milk produced in surplus over a fluid or manufacturing milk.

Council members were impressed by Prime Minister Trudeau's statement, that people will have to fight for their grain in order to attain that followed a promise that a clear-cut release of government goals for agriculture will be forthcoming in the near future.

Considerable discussion centered on the functions of the Wheat Board. Members of the Cabinet questioned the validity of the bargaining agency. One member in the liberal caucus pointed out that while in previous years the Wheat Board had negotiated with 115 countries in the past year it had contacted only 32. Our contention in this respect was that while the Wheat Board had not attained the required market and sales for our grain it is the only system of orderly marketing that we have; that until we have some-thing better to take its place we are reluctant to relinquish it as our marketing agency. We emphasized that the Wheat Board has given more power to promote and negotiate sales and that there definitely be producer representation on the Wheat Board.

MINOR SPORTS RECOGNITION NIGHT

By Matt Murray

Minor Sport Recognition Night at 8:00 p.m. Friday, May 2nd was held this year in Meadowbrook Hall. A full house enjoyed their evening as Master of Ceremonies Vernon Hoff set the pace with a very masterful job of news coverage in the future. Thanks Vernon!

Cec Fapke of the Calgary Centennial gave an interesting speech on Hockey midway through the program and guest speaker Dennis Kaestli, Director of Athletics, University of Calgary concluded the program with an interesting and enjoyable speech, with a message for everyone. As the parade of Baseball, Hockey, Badminton, Curling, Volley Ball and Basketball teams presented themselves on stage with their coaches and managers; as community sports and school sports unfolded all their players and all the young skaters of our newest club, the Gleichen Figure Skating Club, stood before us. I knew everyone, there felt proud to be a part of it all.

The School Sports program was very well presented by Alan Van Der Veek School Sports Director.

Mary Barlow, on stage with the Figure Skating Club gave a resume of a very successful season and expressed hopes that the coming year would be one to look forward to.

Special awards that have not been previously announced were presented to the outstanding players from each hockey team and the Cam Brown Trophy winners. These trophies presented by the Hockey Association were presented by Matt Murray and Cec Fapke; My Mite - Ricky Gordon; Pee Wee - Rod Nelson; Bantam - Alan Barlow; Midget - Dennis Brown; Cam Brown Trophy - Robert Goldsmith.

Crests were presented to the Tiny Mites and Pee Wees by the Gleichen Lions Club and a very touching part of the night were the thank you messages and presentations made to the coaches by the team members.

Following the program a few short films were shown, a delicious lunch was served and our messages danced until the wee hours of the morning.

IF YOU ARE HAILED OUT THIS YEAR... recall these facts about
HAIR SUPPRESSION

- Wheat yields in weather modification areas have increased by 50 per cent (1956 - 1968) compared to a 10 per cent increase outside the weather modification project area.
- Wheat yields in Rocky View, Mountain View, Kneehill and Wheatland jumped 75 per cent in the last six years, compared to gains of 30 to 40 per cent in adjacent areas (24 municipalities studied).
- Farmers could have protected their $25 - per - acre crop investment by spending 15 cents per acre - or less - for hail suppression.
- The City of Calgary and the Provincial Government stood ready to contribute money and facilities to our proposed 1969 program.
- The City of Calgary's director of research reported to City Council, "There appears little doubt cloud-seeding techniques can make significant reductions to hailstorm intensities."
- The principles of hail suppression are endorsed by: Alberta Chamber of Commerce, Farmer's Union of Alberta and Alberta Federation of Agriculture.
- The County of Mountain View and M.D. of Rocky View demonstrated leadership by saying the voters should decide the merits of weather modification.
- The County of Wheatland and M.D. of Kneehill councils refused to let the electorate voice a decision on hail suppression.
- Our organization has taken every step that is humanly possible to place the issues of weather modification before the people.
- We worked to the very last moment to protect your 1969 crop investment but had to cancel this year's project.

OBITUARY

MONGE
On May 12, 1969, Mr. Louis Monge of Calgary, Alberta, passed away at the age of eighty-four years, following a brief illness.

Mr. Monge was born in New Pang, Kwang, China and came to Alberta in 1909 and to Calgary in 1913 where he owned and operated Louis Monge's General Store. He was married to his wife Nellie in 1926.

Louis was one of Calgary's early old timers and always gladly donated to any community project. Due to having a severe, but personally couldn't be there, but his financial aid was.

Besides his wife, he is survived by five sons, David and James of Calgary, Albert and Henry of Calgary, Edward of Vancouver B.C., three daughters, Mrs. May Calhoun and Mrs. Bertha Quinlan, both of Calgary, Mrs. Kathleen Wall of Edmonton, a son and two daughters in China, twenty-eight grandchildren, two brothers, Chas. Louis of Calgary and Treg. Louis of China.

Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Daniel Wong on May 16th from Knox United Church in Calgary. Interment was in the Chinese Cemetery. Honorary pallbearers were Mr. L. Do Fon, Mr. S. Fraser Sr., Mr. W. Prowse, Mr. D. Cretin, Mr. B. Calf Road and Mr. M. Spilde. Other pallbearers were Mr. B. Storm, Mr. J. Fossaine, Mr. L. On, Mr. H. Louis, Mr. P. Rios and Mr. J. Quan.

Louis had a general store which is seldom seen in this modern day. At eighty-four years there wasn't room for on the shelves, hung from the ceiling. It was an education in itself to go to that store where articles from days gone by were still stocked with modern convenient things, no matter what you needed - "Louis Hong can get it" - rang true!

People stopped in from as far away as California to stop their grandchildren old fashioned corn poppers etc. which they had been meaning to buy in antique stores.

Louis loved to joke about the day the money didn't come on the cash register. He said that when he came to the bank, the bank was open for business as usual.

He was truly a very colorful old timer of China!

A STATEMENT OF FACTS FROM THE VILLAGE OF HUSSAR

The editorial carried in the Wednesday, May 14th issue of the Strathmore Standard suggested that the "rigging" of the recent school plebiscite was somehow the fault of the Community of Hussar. We take serious exception to this attempted smear and ask an apology from the publisher of this newspaper.

Here are the facts of the matter in the Hussar community:

It has been a practice by the village authorities for a number of years to sell a village lot or lots within the village to any individual, group of individuals or corporations for the purchase price of one dollar provided that assurance was given by the purchaser to develop such property within six months by the construction of a building or buildings the value of which would be agreed upon by the village as a condition of transfer of title.

No individual or groups of individuals have taken advantage of this offer by the village during the past five years up to the date of the preparation of this statement. A corporation acquired property under this arrangement in 1960 and another corporation in July 1968. Both of these corporations have fulfilled their full commitments for development. It should be noted that corporations were ineligible to vote in the recent plebiscite.

There have been no private sales of property made in the village of Hussar to other individuals or groups of individuals since the announcement of the proposed money-by-law by the county to this date.

We deplore the tactics used in the recent plebiscite and would much have preferred to have seen a true expression of the people, in any event - fair is fair - and we do not believe it to be fair to be accused of activities of which we are innocent.

J.A. Stewart
Mayor

Editor's Note: Fair is fair and we apologize. Nothing can be more explicit than Hussar's letter. That's what is known as Righteous Indignation.

SUNDAY HUNTING

Sund. y hunting of big game will be allowed in parts of Alberta this year as a result of amendments to the Game Act passed at the 1969 Session of the Alberta Legislature. The Hon. Henry Rounty, Alberta Minister of Lands and Forests, explains that Sunday hunting will only be allowed in northern parts of the "green area" of the Province and not in developed regions or in areas of intensive recreational use. Mr. Rounty expects the regulations designating areas where Sunday hunting can take place will be announced in July.

SUNRISE DIVISION GIRL GUIDES OF CANADA

By Division Commissioner Mrs. K.A. Hendry

Who thinks of spring-summer-fall or winter? Each season with its own beauty, more than those involved in the Guiding Movement? All personnel at this time of year is used to the Out-of-Doors. During the winter months most meetings have been held indoors because of the cold, how they can really bring the program into focus as they get away from holding those exploratory feelings of the young people inside four walls and into a program of hiking, camping, etc.

Being and within the blue horizon are many marvels to behold. Brownies (7 to 10 yrs.), Guides (10 to 14 yrs.) and Rangers (14 to 16 yrs.) realize that as do their Guiders. Did you know that some of the Local Association members from the Sunrise Division are going to camp this summer at Rockyford overnight? Under the supervision of Camp Advisor Mrs. Lorna Koppel, 7 out of 10 Standard members have never pitched a tent or cooked over a campfire, but they are willing to learn and have fun. Their reason for doing this is that they want to understand why the Guiders and girls like this face of the program.

Snow may have left the ground but already Guiders Brownies, Rangers and L.A. members are planning these camps. Every Guiding person has learned, practiced and played games about the out-of-doors in preparation for living outside. At camp a girl proves to herself that she can live the Law and Honor. The whole company or pack really gets to know itself as they live together as Guiders. The camp is the climax of the Guiding year. The Guiding program is based on outdoor activities hiking, nature knowledge, fire building, outdoor cooking, observation plus other facets of the Out-of-Doors. Through the school term Guiders try to make a few short outings that give them an idea of what camping is like. Each Company needs and wants to go camps to complete their program.

If any girl has the desire to go, she should have the opportunity to go with her Company or Pack. Once a Guide has been to Camp first at a local level then possibly at a Provincial, National or International level she is ready to really enjoy the following years of camping of hiking etc. Financial aid and extra equipment (bedroll, tent, etc.) are provided for girls needing help. Our main concern each year is to provide every girl in the Company with the finer week or days of her Guiding years. The Guiding leaders need help from you, too, in setting up and taking down the camp and in transporting the Company and its gear to and from the campsites. We need all sorts of camping equipment (tents, grass for cooking over fire, cooking blocks, chairs, tables, etc.) and pans etc.). The more that is donated the less we will have to buy.

Those who have been to camp have memories to recall and experiences to draw upon later. These girls lead the coming up growth years of their local Companies and are available from the Guiders or L.A. members.

In the Division most Companies or Packs are planning a camp. Who enters the camp to live our young people to a better understanding of the land we live in and how to enjoy the beauty of the great outdoors. How better than through hikes, camps, and other outdoor activities?

June 1 to 7 in Red Cross Water Safety Week. If you can't swim, don't use inflated swimming aids. They may let you down!

YOU MUST HELP

The Calgary Power Ltd. has for many years honored outstanding accomplishments by the young people of Alberta.
They, in their infinite wisdom, have chosen as their medium for connecting the people who 'Care', the Alberta Weekly Newspaper.

Calgary Power appreciates the rural areas as valued customers and also as the people who know of the mediocrity of today's hazards and hardships.

It is not necessary to have a dramatic happening to be recognized by Calgary Power, merely a display of fortitude, reliability, or just plain adaptability.

Calgary Power asks all Alberta Weeklies to submit names for these awards and we are proud to do so.
Please think of a youngster who has made a contribution to society and let your Editor know the details.
The adults of our times spend hours knocking the young people. Now is a chance to recognize their attributes.

REWRITING OF SCHOOL ACT

The Rewriting of the School Act is still in the hands of the committee appointed.

The chairman was charged by the Minister of Education with writing the preliminary draft of the new legislation in consultation with the Committee. The public was invited to present submissions to the committee. Although March 30 was set as a preliminary date for receipt of briefs, this proved to be much too early and press releases have invited subsequent submissions throughout the period of the rewriting. The committee has reviewed the forty submissions received to date and plans to examine additional briefs as they are received. It is also expected that public comment will be examined after release of the draft of the new bill tentatively possible. Following release of the draft and public appraisal of it, a revised bill will be considered by the Minister, the Cabinet and eventually by the Legislature.

Four activities have occupied the Committee in its initial stages: a statement of overall philosophy has been formulated, briefs have been examined, an outline of basic concerns on which decisions must be made has been structured and consideration of preliminary working papers which incorporate some four fifths of the present legislation into a new format has begun.

The preliminary working papers which have been drafted are not yet available for public appraisal because the Committee is involved in study and revision of this first document. Some changes have already been made and many more are expected. Eventually it is planned that a draft will be circulated widely which the Committee members feel can become the basis of the new Act.

As the foregoing illustrates, public appraisal of the work of the Committee is essential. Briefs are requested now and as the work progresses.

Congratulations to Bob Wheatley who was named "All-Around Cowboy" of the Little Britches Rodeo in High River on May 19th.

Mr. and Mrs. Helmer Welin have enjoyed visits from both of their daughters recently. Factor Jim and Joyce with their two children were out from Vancouver. Mrs. Kay Drysdale was the recipient of a gift certificate from the new shopping centre which opened recently in Drumheller.

Mrs. Maria Andersen of Southwood Nursing Home was a Sunday visitor at the home of her daughter and family, the Gordon Rasmussens.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Larsen left by car on Tuesday, while Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Nelson left by plane Friday morning to attend Graduation Exercises and the Confering of Degrees for their sons at Dana College at Blair, Nebraska on May 25th. CHRISTENSEN SHOWER
On Tuesday, May 20th, the Church Parlors were fragrant and beautiful with spring flowers for the occasion of the bridal shower honoring Karen Christensen.

Emceed by Louise Sundgaard and her mother by Esther Sundgaard, the honored guests were seated at the head table with many relatives and close friends.

M.C. was Miss Westergaard who capably presented the following program: Charlotte Jensen, pianist for the evening; Silvan and Linda Treach, accompanied by Betty Christensen, entertained by a vocal duet, Albie, sister of the bride-elect, with a two soprano numbers, accompanied by Lola Hansen; Charlotte Jensen played a piano solo, after which Louise Sundgaard paid tribute to her friend and classmate.

A delicious strawberry short cake lunch was served by a large committee of friends after which the numerous gifts were displayed.

THE HOMEMAKER

HOUSEHOLD AFFAIRS

It's remarkable to note that in spite of the appalling cost of most modern goods, household appliances have remained at approximately the same price since pre World War II.

Granted there are new lines and elegant deluxe lines, but the standard washing machine, range and refrigerator still sell at the moderate cost of the 1930's.

What about the appliances you own? How much do they owe you? Do they earn their keep? Do you have to wash the dishes before you put them in the automatic dishwasher, in order for them to come clean?

Frustration like this could drive a woman to distraction.

- 1) Buy from a dealer who has a known reputation for standing behind his goods.
- 2) Read and follow the instructions that come with the appliance.

3) If you already own an appliance on which you can't get dealer satisfaction, write the manufacturer.

4) When all else fails, write your problem to: Department of Consumer and Corporate Affairs, Box 99, OTTAWA, Ontario.

Now back to the lady with the automatic dishwasher problem. I would ask these questions:

- Does she load the dishes according to the instructions?
- Is the water at least 140 degrees or hotter?
- Has she tried several dishwasher detergents to find the one that reacts best with the hardness of her water supply?

If so, then the dealer who sold her the outfit should be her next port of call. Nobody needs several hundred dollars tied up in an appliance that doesn't work.

ROYAL CANADIAN LEGION

LADIES AUXILIARY No. 10

By Mrs. G. Newell

The regular monthly meeting of the Ladies' Auxiliary was held May 20, 1969 with seventeen members present. Four Ladies, Mrs. H. Simola, Mrs. G. Davies, Mrs. M. Conu and Mrs. A. Godfrey were initiated and we wish to welcome them as new members.

The Secretary read the minutes of the last regular and executive meetings. A card from District Commander Mrs. Rose Willard of Banff, thanking the Strathmore Branch for a job well done in hosting the District Mixed Dart Tournament, was also read.

The Treasurer's Report showed a healthy balance in our bank account.

June 17, 1969 is the date for the steak supper for all members of the Auxiliary. Let us all get out and make the cooks work so that we can enjoy ourselves.

The "Social Evening" is planned for June 27th, 1969. This will be for members of the Legion as well as the Auxiliary and as many guests and friends as you can bring. For $2.00 per couple admission, you can enjoy dancing from 9:00 p.m. to 11:00 p.m. and a buffet supper of turkey and ham plus trimmings.

Several of the members will be attending the Legion Convention in Calgary in June. Mrs. J. Colwell, President, and Mrs. J. Harrell, Sec., will be representing the Branch at the voting delegates.

Word has been received stating that all members are invited to attend the executive meeting June 2nd to hear the resolutions to be brought up at the Convention and to express their opinions on them.

Those members who still have (uncollected) dues are urged to turn them in to Mrs. Mary Slater as soon as possible.

The meeting was adjourned and lunch was served by the Committee for the month.

C.W.L.

Twenty members attended the C.W.L. meeting which was held in the Basement of the Sacred Heart Church.

Opening Prayer was led by our new councillor, Father Delisle.

Mrs. Betty Van Wazer, our new President-Elect, proceeded to open the meeting.

Conveyors reports were given. Irene Altemy, Fast President, Mrs. Irene Altemy, and delegate to the Leithbridge Convention, gave a report on the highlights of the program.

Father Delisle gave a very interesting talk on the Councillors of the C.W.L. and Parish. We welcome Father to his new Parish.

U.C.W. ASSEMBLY

The U.C.W. Assembly of Strathmore United Church met on May 8th with thirteen members present.

Mrs. Frida Hansen, President, opened the meeting with a prayer. Devotional was given by Mrs. Anne Scheer Job. 1-10, "Thou has blessed the work of His Hands and His substance is increased." Secretary and Treasurer reports were given.

Mrs. Hansen suggested that as the good cups and saucers were becoming depleted, she thought it might be a good idea for the Units to have a roll call of each bringing a cup and saucer. This suggestion will be discussed by the units.

The Pot Luck supper for U.C.W. members and any ladies of the church who desire to attend, will be held on June 12th at 6:00 p.m. Each unit will provide five minutes entertainment and a speaker will be invited to attend to give a short address.

It was decided not to have the Strawberry Tea or to do anything on Whopper-Upper Day this year owing to other commitments. Instead, we will endeavor to plan a bake sale at a later date.

Our pink dishes have been added to and are now complete.

A letter from Miss Jennie Boyden, a Missionary, was read.

As many of our Church Aprons are showing wear and not many are left, it was decided that each member make one for herself. The colors of wine and gold would be used and one person would do the purchasing of the material and a pattern would be made so they would be alike.

Mrs. Phyllis Holwegner consented to be on the Emergency Committee.
